

TRYON, N. C.

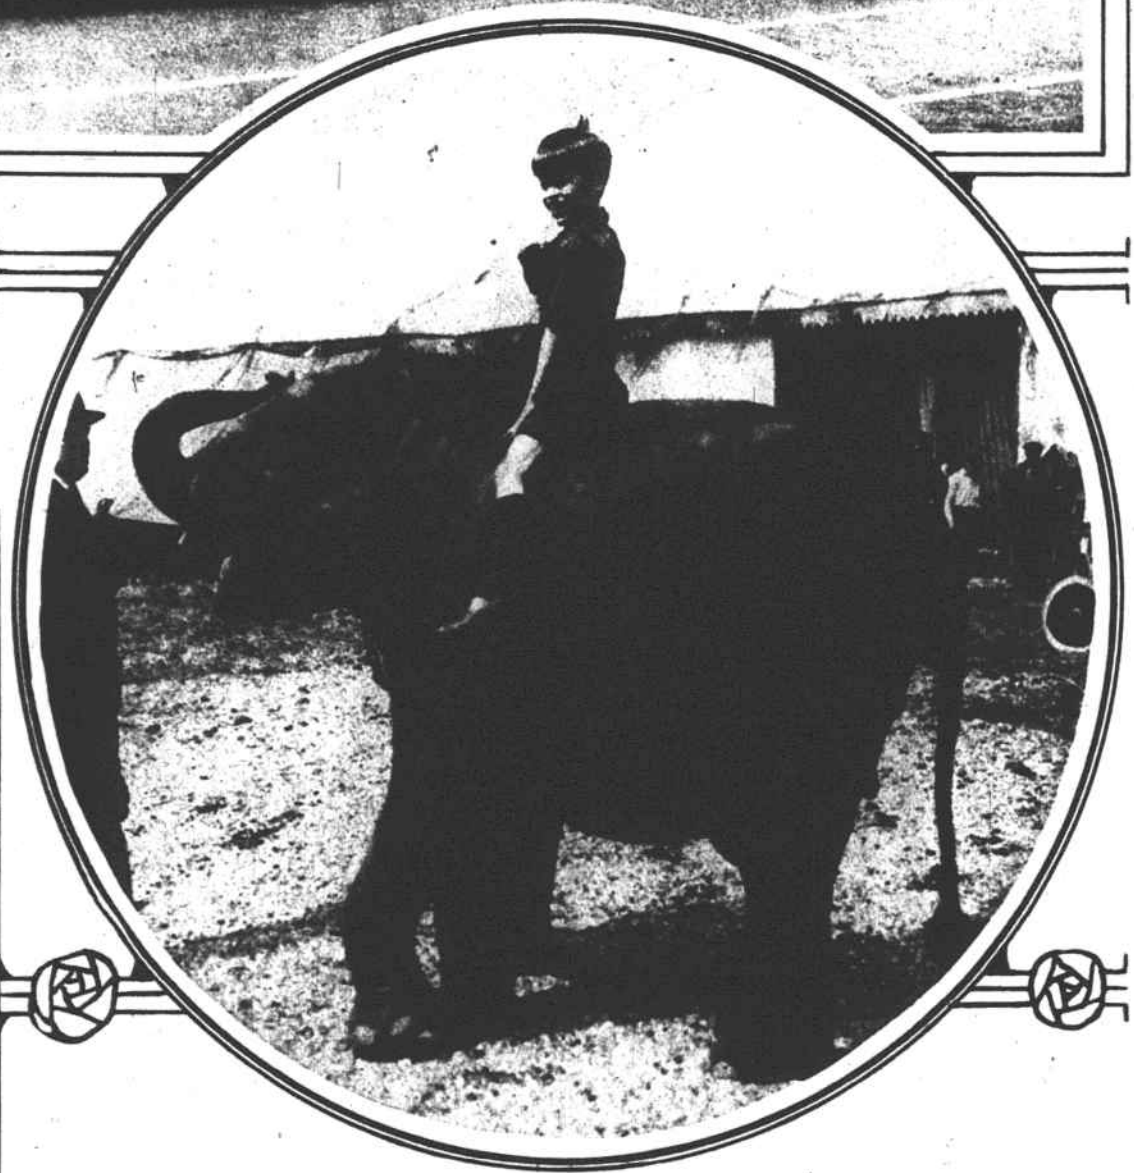

This Section Supplied by Skyuka Sales Service, Tryon, N. C.

News-in-Views-in-Grabure

—P. & A.
 ABOVE—A 30-foot working model of the U. S. S. Intrepid, capable of doing ten miles an hour, is an exact duplicate of the big ship.

—P. & A.
 BELOW—The figure shown in the photo was started to represent "The Spirit of the Monroe Doctrine," but now reposes in a stone yard in Washington, D. C., where it serves as an anchor for a derrick.

—P. & A.
 Above: Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., like his granddad, just couldn't resist a ride on the elephant when the circus came to town.

—P. & A.
 Below: A second Boston Tea Party, in the exclusive Boston manner.

