BIG LEVEL

The singers from Tennessee that were to sing at Big Level Sunday, failed to come on account of muddy roads. But everyone enjoyed themselves just the same. Rev. Limer, the Pastor, delivered an interesting sermon. We also had music just the same as if they had been there.

V. B. Hyder made a business trip to Rutherfordton Monday.

Joshua Burnett spent Sunday with his friend Garland Hyder.

Miss Minnie Womack called on her aunt Mrs. Elida Jackson Monday afternoon.

Mr. J. C. Powell spent Sunday at V. B. Hyder's.

Mr. Talmage spent Saturday night with Bob Lynch, near Rutherfordton.

PEA RIDGE

Rev. W. W. Womack fills his regular appointment at the Chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McHathery, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent Saturday with their many friends of this section.

Mrs. R. B. Fowler spent Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fowler did some shopping in Rutherfordton last Tuesday.

Misses Thelma and Clara Mae Fowler spent a short while with their aunt, Mrs. R. B. Fowler, Saturday.

Mr. J. R. Phillips called on his son J. M. Phillips Sunday.

Dr. Norris and son of Rutherfordton also Willie B. Fowler, spent last Wednesday hunting.

Mr. Bert Cash, of Chesney, S. C., called at the W. M. Fowler home Saturday.

Miss Mary Hodge was a Pea Ridge visitor Saturday.

Mr. W. B. Fowler and Miss Thelma Fowler spent a short while with their Grandma, Mrs. E. Fowler, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Tom Phillips, of Inman, was a Pea Ridge visitor Saturday.

Mr. Brodas Whiteside and Elbert Burnett were callers at the J. M. Phillips home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Lewis Hodge spent a short while with the Fowler family Sunday last.

Mrs. W. M. Fowler's little son, George is very ill with the flu. We hope he will soon get well.

Not Oily

Athlete: Did you take a shower bath?

Freshman: "No—Is there one missing?"

LYNN

You just can't keep those Lynn kids down and they seem to be staging a neck and neck race for school honors with every student an entry. For the past month the race has been a warm one and many new names have been added to the honor list. If it keeps on growing they can just list the student body and call it a 100 per cent school.

Those qualifying this past month are:

Zoological Supply

A Chinaman was visiting Yellowstone National Park in winter. He had walked for some five miles along a mountain trail covered with snow. Looking back over his shoulder he saw a bear sniffing at his tracks and rapidly gaining on him. With a shrill yell, he began to run: "You likee my tracks? I makee you some more. —Exchange.
