

TRYON, N. C., January 15, 1925
This Section Supplied by Skyuka Sales Service, Tryon, N. C.

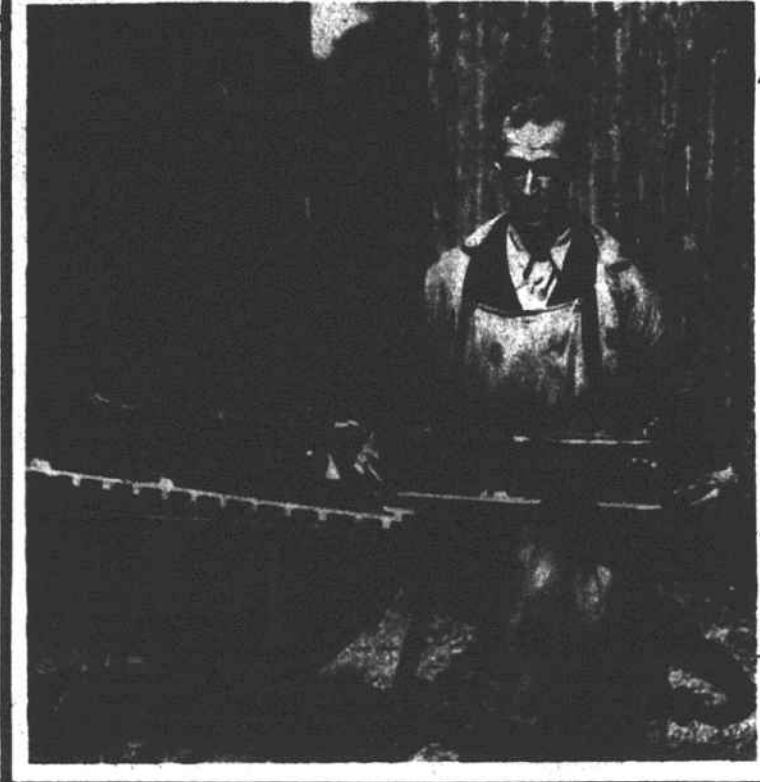

News-in-Views-in-Grabure

Above—All that was left of Midland Beach, famous New York pleasure resort, after it was swept by a devastating fire.

—P. & A.
Right—George E. Brink, an inventor of Newark, N. J., builds and operates his own railroad system, the smallest in the world.

—P. & A.
Rose E. Barrett, of Warrenton, Oregon, is the only city manager in the United States.

—P. & A.
Below—Nine stowaways from Italy got as far as mid-ocean, where they were transferred to an Italy-bound ship—and thus ended their trip to America.

