

TRYON, N. C., February 12, 1925
This Section Supplied by, Skyuka Sales Service, Tryon, N. C.

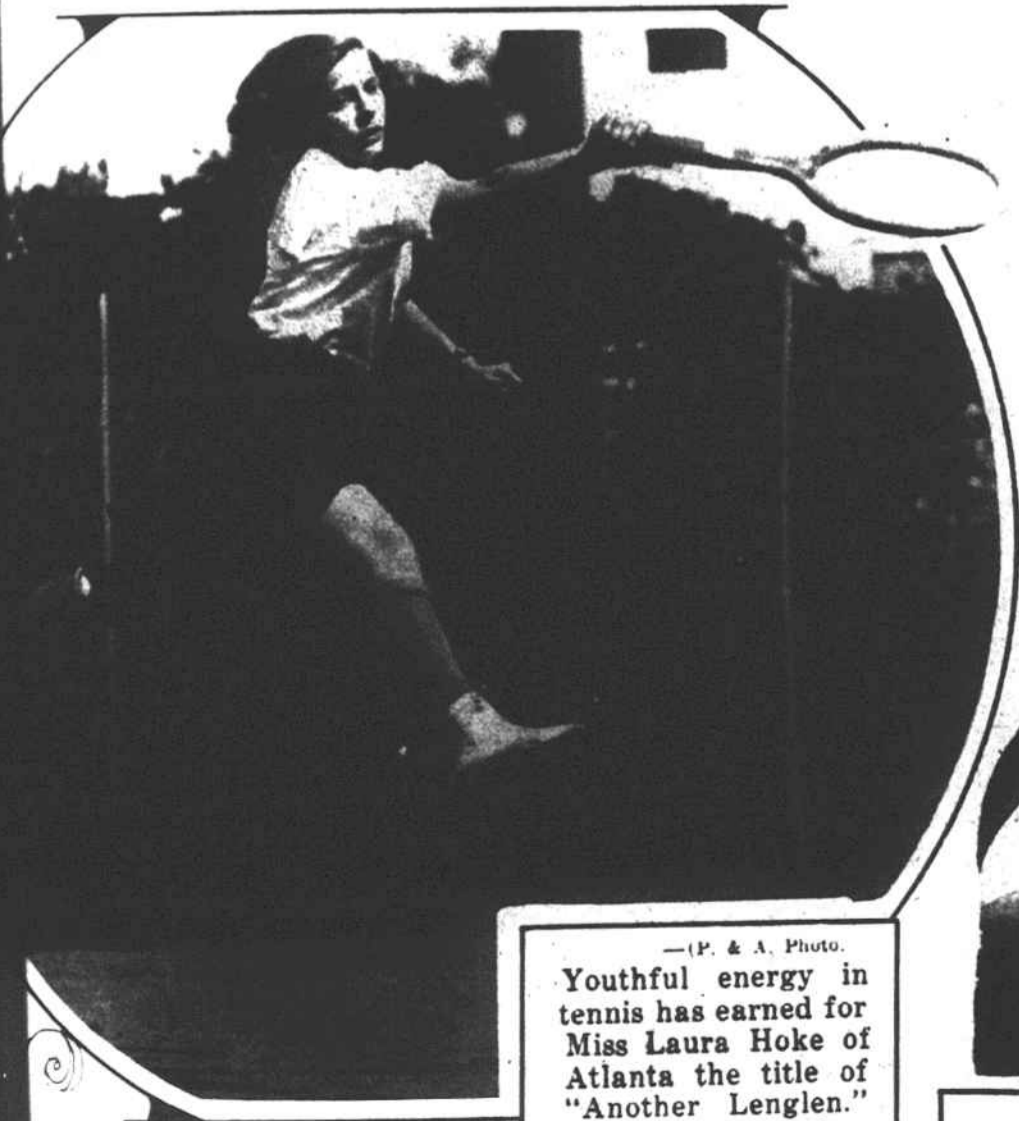

News-in-Views in Grabure

Mr. and Mrs. Hofman started from their home in the Netherlands in 1921 to win a $20,000 prize. They are to visit every Country in the World in four years, walking. Photo shows them in New York City.

—(P. & A. Photo)
Prof. Holger Moellgaard of Denmark, who is credited with the "salt of gold cure" for tuberculosis. It will be tested in the United States.

—(P. & A. Photo)
Youthful energy in tennis has earned for Miss Laura Hoke of Atlanta the title of "Another Lenglen." The photo shows her in action.

—(P. & A. Photo)
A recent photograph of Leatrice Joy, bright star of filmdom, who found the top of the hill called fame lonely and loveless and has quit the movies.