

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

J. W. McIntosh, who for three years has served efficiently and well as principal of Stearns High School, Columbus, will leave there July 1, with Mrs. McIntosh, for Lenoir, in Caldwell County, where he has accepted the superintendency of the Lenoir Schools. Mr. McIntosh received his appointment over fifteen other applications which speaks well for his educational qualifications. During their stay in Columbus, this splendid couple proved a valuable asset to their community, and will be missed in social and civic as well as school circles. The best wishes of their Polk County friends will follow them to their new home.

Mr. Barnes, assisted by some of his friends, gave a tea at his quaint studio on the grounds of the Misses Pettigrew on Tuesday. In spite of the showers there was a considerable company who seemed to appreciate and enjoy Mr. Barnes' pictures particularly his more recent Tryon pictures. A few days ago a telegram from the National Academy of Design announced that one of the three pictures shown there by Mr. Barnes had been sold.

The Tryon Presbyterians are making definite plans for the erection of a handsome church building to be begun at once. Tentative arrangements have been made for the exchange of building sites and building operations will be under way as soon as possible, on the Main Boulevard of the city.

Rev. Alfred McMahon, of Eastover, S. C. preached at the Tryon Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the members of both Tryon and Columbus churches. Mr. McMahon is a splendid preacher and would be a valuable addition to King's Mountain Presbytery.

On Saturday, April 25th, the Florida Class met with Miss Lenora Hankford. The meeting was called to order, and the business of the organization disposed of. Following the business session, religious exercises were held consisting of scripture readings, sacred literature, and prayers. The next hour was devoted to a social program which was made very interesting with music, both vocal and instrumental, comic selections, and poems. Miss Jean Braswell and Miss Dora Long were welcomed into the class as new members. At the close delicious refreshments were served, and the next meeting announced for Saturday May 9th at Mrs. Avanta.

Rev. S. Wilkes Dendy, of Columbia, S. C. who has been the successful supply pastor of the Tryon and Columbus Presbyterian congregations for several months, has severed relations with these churches and will go to Columbus, Ga., as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Dendy has made many friends in both places who regret his departure. They all wish him an accord, however, wish him happiness and success in his new field.

usefulness. Mr. Dendy will be married to a beautiful Abbeville, S. C. girl in May and a host of Polk County admirers will pray "showers of blessings" upon him.

L. J. Penney, known throughout the state for his "L. J. P." column in the Hendersonville News, has spent most of this week in Tryon in the interests of Tryon Development Company, in his official capacity of Advertising Manager. Mr. Penney is one of the best ad men in this section and will move his family from Hendersonville as soon as he can find a suitable residence. Mrs. Penney, a native of Ireland, has been in America but a few years, coming here with Mrs. Terrence McSwiney in the interests of the Irish Republic, and was at that time, private secretary to DeValera, of Irish Free State fame. The Penneys, with their delightful children, Pat, Mike, and Molly, will make a splendid addition to Tryon civic club and social circles.

Misses Kathrine and Lillian Uchtmann of Chicago are spending the week at Oak Hall. They are very much impressed with Tryon, and have ordered the NEWS to follow them back home, in order to keep in touch with Tryon development.

Captain and Mrs. Althouse left for Washington on Tuesday. Since their coming there have been many consultations of the Atlas to locate Guam, the Island of which Captain Althouse was recently Governor.

Mrs. J. T. Camp and daughter Frances spent the afternoon Tuesday in Tryon visiting with Mrs. Shannon while Miss Mary motored to Columbus and visited friends there.

Miss Julia Whittlesey left Wednesday for her home in Berea, Ky. after a most enjoyable visit with her brother, Mr. A. T. Whittlesey and Mrs. Whittlesey.

WE DO JOB PRINTING

Mr. and Mrs. Nolte of Duluth, Minn. were guests of Livingston's Hotel this week. Mr. Nolte is interested in the development of Shore Acres, a subdivision of St. Petersburg, and is well qualified to express an opinion on the development of Lake Lanier. He prophesies a great future for the Tryon Development Company. Mr. Nolte inspected the property, being guided by Mr. Fred E. Swann and Mr. W. M. Elsworth, and expressed the opinion that the present price list is much below the intrinsic value, and that ready sales are sure to follow as the beautiful lakes and visits are brought to a point of realization.

Miss Vinelle Sawyer of Chesnee, S. C., Miss Alleen Mullinax of Grover, N. C., Miss Edna Parker of Shelby, N. C., all students of Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., were weekend visitors at the Livingston Hotel.

Glenn D. Cash, G. Vernon Ezell, and Clifton H. Elder of Chesnee, were interested visitors in Tryon Sunday.

Kyle Davenport, manager of the John Collins Department Store in Landrum returned to that city from Gaffney where he was called to attend his father who has been a patient in the Gaffney Hospital. Mr. Davenport left his father in a greatly improved condition and no serious consequences are expected.

Mrs. James Vernon entertained in a delightful manner last Tuesday afternoon, complimentary to Mr. Vernon's aunt, Mrs. Geo. A. Johnson of Detroit. The handsome Vernon home was never more charming, nor the grounds more attractive in the full bloom of early summer. The fine day brought out dainty summer frocks which added to the beauty of the surroundings. Mrs. Vernon was ably assisted by Mrs. Carson, Misses Martha Jackson, Elizabeth Grady and Helen Fairchilds.

is the day when every man, no matter how far from the old home, wears a white carnation on his lapel for mother. Ask "Dick" at the Tryon Pharmacy where one may find such a flower, and he will see that you are not disappointed in wearing this token of remembrance for her.
And do not fail to take note of those beautiful boxes of fine candies, done up in pink and gold, with a dainty carnation, ribbon tied, adding the final touch. Just for Mother—God Bless Her!

PLANNING THE MENU FOR THE DAY IS FUN
Neither the simple, nor the most elaborate menu has any terrors for the housekeeper who has the foresight to spend one early morning hour at THE RIPPAN WAY.
She views the tempting display of dainty foods on the neat shelves, and she easily makes her selections and balances her food rations for the day. There is no guess work. It is always in sight, and the prices are right!
