

KANSAS MINISTER BRINGS BUSINESS METHODS TO BROADWAY

Christian F. Reisner Builds Sky-Scraper Church Twenty-four Stories High in Heart of Manhattan Business Section

F. Reisner, Methodist minister from Kansas, whose vision of practical shirt-sleeves Christianity is shared by such hard-headed business men as the president of the Columbia University, the president of the United States Steel Corporation, the President of the Dictaphone Company, the president of the Boman Hotels, and others. The temple is to be a combination of church and skyscraper; business and Christianity; spiritualism and industrialism—all housed under the one roof.

The building is to cover 26,000 sq. ft. of foundation space, fronting a whole block on Broadway, in the very heart of a population of four million people with only fifteen churches. The structure is to rise

“God on Broadway”

An unusual project has been set in motion in New York. A business building, taller than the Woolworth, is to rise on Broadway—and dedicated to Christianity. It is to be known as Broadway Temple, containing, a church, auditorium, schools, hotel, stores and business offices. “Help God open an office on Broadway” is the bond slogan. Dr. Christian F. Reisner, a Methodist minister from Kansas, is the leader in the movement.

twenty-four stories into the sky and will be surmounted by a thirty-four foot cross which, when illuminated at night, will be the focal point for the eyes of 8,000,000 people. Within the building will be an auditorium that will seat 2,200 and there is to be a huge organ which will at times be supplemented by a great orchestra. At the head of this institution will stand Dr. Reisner, fighting to put the Cross above the cinema.

Revenue to support the project and pay the dividends is to be derived from an apartment hotel and dormitory in the tower over the church containing 644 rooms; public offices, cafeterias, diningrooms and the rentals from some fine stores on the ground floor.

The temple will cost $4,000,000, one-half of which is to be raised by popular subscription—that is by the purchase of bonds. Already over one and a quarter of this amount has been subscribed. In offering the bonds for sale, the supporters maintain that Christ did not come to earth hat-in-hand—he did not supplicate for charity but offered it. “You cannot,” they say, “cite a single instance where he asked for something for nothing.” “Always he spoke in terms of reward.” “He approved of the man who makes money in the Parable of the Ten Talents and he said the laborer is worthy of his hire.” “By the same token, the investor is entitled to his income.” These appeals along with “Make a 5 percent investment in your fellow man’s salvation,” “Religion and revenue” and “Salvation and five-percent”, are the methods sparking refreshing in church financing.

Grammatical Slips
“Educated men don't say ‘don’t,’” remarked a great mayor of New York, now gone to rest. But they do. They did, even then. They also say “ain’t” when they are not thinking about it, and may yet come to saying it deliberately. While they are about it, they may even take “It's me” under their protecting wings.—New York World.

Straight to the Mark

You! and You!

Time is fleeting. Tomorrow—next week—next month—and next year—come and are gone while one still plans to start action for that “someday” of ease, comfort, peace and plenty.

The YOU of today, in the full power of earning capacity, is responsible for the YOU of tomorrow, when earning ability is decreased.

Heed these words from the pages of experience. Call it charity—but start today for the other man—the YOU of tomorrow—so that he may live in comfort and without worry.

Spend less than you make to-day—and bank the difference. We pay 4 per cent on savings accounts or certificates of deposit.
