An Independent Weekly Published in an inde-pendent part of these United States.

12 PAGES

POLK COUNTY—The Gateway of Western North Carolina

Five Cents Per Copy

Tryon, N. C., October 29, 1925

$1.50 a Year

RT HOTEL FOR LAKE LANIER LAUNCHD AT NAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING MONDAY

Aranderson, President Continental Hotels Corpora-New York, Outlined Plans---Cost of Proposed Hotel 10,000 -- Bangeters Enthusiastic Over Conclusion

scale as outitizers and busperelopment Company and Blue Ridge.

MEWS BROS. HOSTS

Display and Demonstration 7. Inaugurating New us be the biggest food er stock of the highest Pople, and the Chester Wils company. Each firm i representative who will The demonstrator of the It to offered with the and Tryon house afford to miss this exwhile will really take on the i larty In addition to the with store, Mr. Andrews the Reid Murdock repre The serve lunch to the at the school building,

Clubs to Meet in Mars Hill

dursed to attend the Disallied adies attended ting held in Hender-Year and it is hoped an attendance Tho feel their inwork drooping wit wid strengthened at such meetings, similicant and valuable neeting and who in a great measure was responchamber of sible for the splendid success in pro-Monday night ducing the most beautiful lake in this sched for the section, explained some of the pre-Lake La- liminary plans for the hotel at Lake of the most Lanier, dividing the task of raising Blue funds as follows: Fifty per cent for the Continental people, 25 per cent hotel of for the Tryon Development Company the hotel are at the offices of the Park in owners of Lake Lanier, and the re-"The mainder for local interests in Tryon at a glance, that would naturally profit by such he drawing card a venture. He stated that the cost visitors annually, of the structure would be around of Tryon and, Lake $300,000, with an additional $25. ym national in scope, will 000 for the site, and $60,000 for the for such a project on the furnishings.

Ret Andrews Bros. Food

Thhe drawings of Tryon's proposed Development Company, and are both of Asheville handsome and individual, following followed by Colonial lines in design, and the Carl J. Bal- broad portico with its stately col-Frank H. lumns, with the cupola atop, are keenpresident of ly reminiscent of Mount Vernon. The Corporation, arched windows, green shuttered, furand enthu- ther bear out the idea. The interior is handsome in the extreme, decided-'y different from the ornate hotel his move- lobby, the arrangements and furniture appearing comfortable, in the extreme, although stately and digni-

With the onward march of progress in all sections of the country. Tryon place that clusion and much vaunted position as an "unspoiled paradise." Tryon, as situated, could never become a manufacturing center, or a bee hive of industry, but the coming of such splendid features as the Lake Lanier Hotel will surely be, will add to her prestige as the most sought mounrly H. Hester, treasurer tain town in the entire range of the

TRYON GIRL WINS HONOR Miss Helen Morgan One of Fifteen to

Make Honor Society. The many friends of Miss Helen mud exhibition ever at- in making the honor society in Association of the Red Cross was rooms. During the summer vacation to learn that she has won distinction will take place at Greensboro College, where she is at formed in the District of Columbia the building has been improved in sa and 7th, with Oliver five hundred to attain this coveted of the Convention of Geneva, which position. The requirements were that in 1864 combined many nations in at the windows of the auditorium, the student should average over 90 agreement to care for the wounded and the books thoroughly cleaned and per cent for four consecutive semes- and sick in war time. From 1881 my groceries that can be ters. In addition to keeping above until 1905, however, the development the requirements in the course of was sporadic and the association opthe comes, and will also study outlined, Miss Helen is devot- erated along restricted lines. In this Miss Carpenter, a professional training five hours a day in the study of twenty-first year of its service in beart, and is one of the two editors of half of suffering humanity, the adult Reid-Murdock, Greensboro College journal, the Col-membership of the American Nation-

> Goes to B. F. Moore of Hendersonville.

After having a sale "fall through" several weeks ago, R. M. Osteen has closed a deal, the sale confirmed, and his restaurant passes into the hands of B. F. Moore, who for five years has been in the same business in Hendersonville.

Mr. Osteen has built up a splendid business at his little place at the turn of the highway, particularly with be free and parents are busy men and auto transients who of raish a cup and spoon always managed to strike there about noon. He has made many friends in Tryon, and among his customers, his food being excellent, with good serv-While Mr. Osteen likes Tryon, and may some day return, he has a big place in Hendersonville which demands his time, and he is leaving this week. He appreciates the patronage shown him here, and invites his old customers to visit him at his home place when in that city. Mr. Moore comes well recommended, and will retain the good cook that has given Mr. Osteen such valuable service.

> Nesbit Walker of Mill Spring Buys Roddy's Store Near Mencerizing Plant.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cherry are returning this week to Charleston, S. C., after spending the summer in their

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller of Asheville were in Tryon Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Morris.

Mail Order Service

Mail Order Department—in charge of experts

aways at your command. These experts shop

you and use all possible good taste and judge-atin making selections. Why not give this service

Me are always ready to open charge ac-

with responsible parties and we pay postage

Bon Marché

Isheville,

They Drive Him Nuts "Rube" Goldberg

Bozo Butts

A Query in the Minds of Many Readers Fully Answered.

In answer to a large number of inquiries from Tryon folk-"What is Splendid Organization Plans for a the Red Cross?" the answer is definitely given in the following, taken from The Red Cross Courier:

The American National Red Cross is a volunteer organization chartered by Congress in 1905. Its inception dates from 1881 when the American freshly decorated and beautified club al Red Cross is close to 3,500,000 and on the rolls of the American Junior Osteen Sale Confirmed - Restaurant Red Cross are nearly 6,000,000 school

Since 1905 the Red Cross has enthe World War 3,742 Chapters in as and the adult membership reached first meeting. the unprecedented figure of 22,000,-000. Demobilization of war forces, perative obligation to render assistance to the ex-service men and their Organization and the Chapters dis- Page. burse millions of dollars each year, while many thousands of members give voluntary aid to war veterans. The Red Cross is required under its Charter to be prepared to provide Van Busskirk of Pittsburg, Pa; day on business. While here they adequate relief for every emergency Bishop John McKim and Mrs McKim made a visit at The News office and due to pestilence, famine, fire, floods, or other great national calamities, and J Dwight Dickerson and daughter of nouncing a general sale at his resito take all possible preventive measures. These obligations alone call for extensive peace time service. How well the Red Cross maintains a condition of readiness for disaster relief is illustrated by the work of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1294, which marked a new record. In 62 major disasters and 130 minor disasters the Red Cross was engaged in relief operations and $737,603 from Red Cross the standard for large industrial and E. Merrill of Chautauqua, N.Y. All and fire departments, and by use of eral weeks at Melrose Lodge. Mr. and thre department and the same debeen given to many thousand railroad workers and shopmen. The J.ife-Saving Corps in 1924 had an enrollment of 44.000 members on duty along the oceans, lakes and rivers, tination being Galveston, Tex., with a and a record of 120,000 persons who brief stop in Atlanta. They will be had passed the regulation life-saving in serving humanity strives to conduct and expand its work so as to of the Blue Ridge Weavers. merit the co-operation, support and commendation of all the people, and to carry the message of good will D C., arrived in Tryon Thursday for everywhere throughout the world.

Apartment for Rent.

ond floor Good location, close in, much better at this time, and his all conveniences. Rent reasonable, many old friends are delighted with For further information call Phone this opportunity of meeting him.

latter part of last week from Mil- been removed to Merriweather Hoswaukee where he had been on a visit pital there. He is reported to be with his mother.

LANIER CLUB SEASON TO OPEN ON NEXT THURSDAY

Winter's Program—Club House Newly Decorated.

The first meeting of the Lanier convenient, fresh shades and cartains ver, the libearian, was assisted by young and old are invited.

er of librarians. It is hoped that former members who have dropped out for one rea- honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lightner and son or another, will give the board Mr. and Mrs. R Dennison. of directors the pleasure of re-electing them to membership. If they national and international. During to act upon this. The programmes of the year, under the direction of Mrs. many communities were rendering Holmes, promise exceptional interest.

Judge R. W. Winston, who was a placed upon the Red Cross an im- terror to the evil doers of Polk County and other counties in this disthe Chapter requirement "to act in having given up the law and taken back to Tryon. matters of voluntary relief and in ac- to the gospel, or at least to that part cord with the military and naval au- of it concerned with philosophy and > Recent arrivals at Pine Crest Inn include Mr Hugh G Petersen of Ken-Chicago, and Mr and Mrs William dence on Nov. 10th. Matlack of Moorestown, N J; Bishop McKim has lived for forty-six years in Japan where he worked for the interests of his church.

Villa Fla. A tract to Miss Bessie in Chicago. these partis have been in Tryon sev-

Mr. and Mrss. W. G. Weigle are leaving Friday morning for a trip through the south, their principal desgone during the winter.

Mrs. George Cathey has been quite ill at her home this week, and her many friends miss her at the shop

Dr. J. C. Bushnell of Washington, a visit, which will include a drive over the new developments under way. Dr. Bushnell has not been well Three unfurnished rooms on sec- the past few weeks, but is feeling

Mr. Eugene Brownlee of Oak Hill, Dr. Louis Fuldner arrived home the who was taken ill in Asheville, has much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Dickerson and daughter have arrived at Pine club will be held November 5 in the Asheville spent last Sunday with Mr. ful chains and divans, Indian rugs, visiting his pareents.

York being unfavorable.

Miss Fassett has again opened Pine Crest School and will be prepared to Friday and Sat- tending, being one of fifteen out of in conformity with the requirements several ways; the kitchen made more teach all grades and tutor in higher ure for musicians and furnishes mubranches of learning.

> Club on the night of Thursday, Nov. and gentlemen. newest methods. In this Miss Oli- 12th. It will be a family party, and > > bridge party on Monday night in

James Fisher returned Monday will attend a meeting of the club and from a week spent in and around parties, and to dinner dances, and arstate their desire to be re-elected, it Rutherfordton, where he attended tered many active fields of relief, will be the first duty of the board court and spent a few days hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lightner drove to Detroit in Admiral Berry's car, service throughout the United States The year's dues are payable at the leaving Tryon on Tuesday. Admiral make a valuable adjunct to Tryon and Mrs. Berry will go up by train

Mrs. Strong of Duluth, Minn., will Local Horses Win at Spartanburg can speak. spend the winter with Mrs. W. A. trict thirty years ago, is a guest at Strong, and her many friends, who families, which is a most important Oak Hall. He is now taking a course have enjoyed her visits for several continuing peace time function under at his former college, Chapel Hill, seasons, will be glad to welcome her

A pleasant letter from Mrs. Georgia thorities as a medium of communica- physiology. He is coscerning himself LeCount advises that she is leaving tion between the people of the United too with the International School soon from her summer home in Ni-States of America and their Army and which is to be a fitting memorial to antic Conn., and will arrive in Tryon In this service the National the great North Carolian, Walter H. for the winter. She will motor through, and anticipates a most en-

> J. M. Davis and Roy Sullens from ilworth, ill; Mr and Mrs Arthur B near Collinsville were in Tryon Monof Tokio, Japan; Mr and Mrs Mr. Davis had some bills printed an-

> Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Bird left Saturday noon for Illinois whither they had been called by a message conveying the sad tidings of the death Real estate transactions of import- of Mr. Bird's father in Paris. They ance have passed through M. G. stopped in Knoxville en route for a Blake's hands this week in the sale brief visit with their daughter, Miss of seven acres in the beautiful Gil- Eleanor who is attending college there. lette woods to Dr. Mary B. Jewett Before returning to Tryon, Mrs Bird and Mrs. A. C. Pleisted of Florence will visit her sister, Mrs. Hinsdale, Pine Crest School.

Primary, Intermediate, High School velopment to Mrs. Grace Clemons, of Grades. Individual attention—Tutoring. Miss Fassett, Tel. 65-B.

FRENCH LESSONS given by Miss Siller at little Orr Cottage. Also Piano lessons, beginners or ad-10-tf vanced pupils.

FOR RENT: Light, cheerful room with use of bath. Location near Library and churches Miss Siller, little Orr Cottage.

WANTED-By Dec. 1, reliable married man with grown son to work on dairy farm. Steady work and good wages. State experience and give references. F. L. Fitzsimmons, Golden Blow Farm, Hendersonville,

Many, rare bargains at Andrews Food Show November 6th and 7th.

THE POLK COUNTY NEWS

LOG CABIN TEA HOUSE AT LAKE LANIER MUCH SOUGHT

For Hospitality and Entrancing View Blanton & Greene Open for Busi-It Commands—Scene of Many Joyous Parties.

When Mr. J. Foster Searles, Tryon's architect, designed the Log under the firm name of Blanton & Cabin Tea House at Lake Lanier, he Greene, have opened a real estate ofdid so with an eye to beauty, utility, fice in Columbus in the Polk County and for picturesque effect that is Bank & Trust building. This new possibly unsurpassed for charm of firm is a valuable acquisition to the setting and environment in Western County Seat town, and will do a structed of huge peeled logs, chinked to this new firm. in with gray cement, and the foreground carries out the plan of a miniature garden of Merrie England. Cobble stones and logs form the steps leading to the hospitable doors, and an added attraction.

partitions, and which, combining, thousands to the splendid city of an atmosphere of warmth and hos- most the fine displays in all departpitality. The primitive scheme is re. ments, as well as the special enterplaces, one in each wing, are built Reidsville, and school exhibits from of stone embedded in the chimneys. Whitney, Reidville, Appalache, Gram-The floor is waxed and polished, and lin, Holly Springs, Liberty, Poplar the blazing logs radiate cheer and Springs, Pacolet Mills, Lone Oak and

Mrs. Florence Averill spent last brasses, and imported ware, augmentweek end in Spartanburg, the guest rugs which she has on sale for gifts, Mrs. Thomas Pettigrew is here to are used in the decoration scheme on recover from a cold, the air of New broad shelves, and placed where they will appeal to the eye. Big jars of autumn leaves and cat-tails feature Mr. and Mrs. Barnett Stroup of the autumn decorations, while rest where he had been for several weeks and a corner devoted to books an periodicals, impart a home-like air to make it complete. A baby grand piano affords pleassic for dinner dances, and the utmost There will be a party at Lanier appointed rest rooms for both ladies | - tso been a guest of Bishop and Mrs.

Small tables, elegant service, and excellent cuisine have bready spread the fame of the Log Carin Tea House, Mrs G. H. Holmes gave a small and many parties have been entertained locally, as well as groups of folk who drop in nearly every day from nearby towns and cities. Mrs. Burleson will make a specialty during the coming season of catering to entertainment.

Truly, the charm and convenience of this splendid institution should society for the season of gaiety ahead.

At the Spartanburg Horse Show

Wednesday night of this week, the following local horses won honors: Mrs. Carter Brown's "Azalea Prince" with owner up, took the blue ribbon in the ladies' three-gaited class, and Mr. Carter Brown's "Glory" with Miss Julia Denison up, placed third in like herself have found Tryon a dethe same class in the combination lightful change from the streauous riding and driving class, Miss Julia life of Detroit. Denison placed second with Mrs. Carter Brown's "Azalea Prince." These horses will be shown in the annual the Walter Hines Page Memorial for Greenville horse show November 5th social committee of the Parent-search School of International Rela-Teacher Association, announces that tions will be established at John her committee will give a party in Hopkins University, Baltimore, where honor of the teachers at the school Page graduated. At this school, building Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 8 which will open September, 1926, a o'clock. All who are interested in the first hand study of great Internationschools are cordially invited to be al questions will be made data col-family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward laboratory to find a way to outlaw and children, were among the Tryon- war. Checks forwarded to Judge ites who attended the fair in Spar- Winston at Chapel Hill, N. C. will tanburg Thursday.

NEW REAL ESTATE FIRM AT COUNTY SEAT TOWN

ness with Offices in the Polk County Bank & Trust Co.

C. R. Blanton and A. V. Greene, general real estate business includ-Cozily snuggled against a back- ing buying and selling of property, ground of sloping bank timbered with sales and rentals, and are prepared pines and other forest trees, the Log to give listings of properties for sale. Cabin looks out over the broad ex- This firm has been conducting a real panse of water, which since our re- estate office at Mooresboro, where cent rains, is rapidly taking on the Mr. Greene will still remain in form intended by its originators and charge, while Mr. Blanton will operthe engineers who put their plans ate the Columbus office. Columbus into definite execution. It is con and Polk County extend a welcome

Spartanburg County Hair Ends Friday.

The Spartanburg County Fair, which was largely attended by Tryon tiny parks of boxwood and cedars are and Polk County citizens, closed in a blaze of glory and unprecedented The cabin has a central hall, with success today. Widely and consistwo wings diagonally placed, without tently advertised, the fair drew form the whole. Within one finds Spartanburg, who enjoyed to the utpeated in the huge log beams, un- tainment featured. Community exhewn, and the two great open fire- hibits from Fairforest, Pauline and up of native stone, with rough shelves Boiling Springs, Co-operative, Lyman, Green Pond were very interesting Mrs. M. A. Burleson, who operated attractions. The racing programs the temporary tea room at Lake La- were attended by throngs from all nier this summer, is hostess, and over the state, and North Carolina through her artistry the interior car- was well represented each day. The ries an individuality not often found. Spartanburg County fair, which was Articles in the way of pottery, organized in 1907 by a small group of citizens, has grown each season ed by mountain made furniture and till now it is an outstanding event in affairs of he state of South Caro-

> Larry Goelett returned the latter . part of last week from New York

Dean Rogers of Boise City, Idaho, on his way from the Episcopal Con-Touret. Mrs. Benedict of Detroit, in comfort is assured guests in well another visitor at the convention has

> Mr. an d Mrs. Henry Bray are in hattangoga for a week's visit with their daughter and family. From here they will go, to New York where they will sail on Nov. 4th on the Mauretania for a year's stay abroad

Two distinguished attendants at the great Episcopal Convention in New rangements are such that individual Orleans, who stopped in Tryon on guests will not interfere with other their return north, were Bishop and Mrs. McKim of Japan Bishop Mc-Kim remained for a day or two, but Mrs. McKim made a longer visit. On Wednesday at a meeting of the Woman's Guild held at Mrs. Touret's. she spoke on Japan as one who knows her subject thoroughly only > ing come for the bright autumn days Mrs W. E. Kilpin gave a tea on Saturday largely to old friends, who Judge R. W.Winston Chairman of North Carolina, is spending a few days in this city. A fund of one million is being raised, and North Mrs. James Rion, chairman of the Carolina's quoto is $25,000. A Relected and disseminated, and the results made known to the world. It Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland and is hoped through this great political be gladly received.

The New Pro at Tryon Country Cleb a Popular and Efficient Instructor

The Tryon Country club has attained deserved fame for several reasons, among which might be mentioned the finest 9-hole golf course in the South; the most splendid stretch of scenery; the unsurpassed hospitality extended gguests and new members, and from the further fact that it has always employed the highest skilled "pros" obtainable. Denny F. Jones, who since coming to Tryon, has

The present season finds the links in charge of proven his worth to the cl b as an instructor of the highest calibre. Guests find him courteous and halpful, and his strong personality, coupled with unbounded pep and enthusiasm, will make the Tryon Country club continue to be a much sought retreat for those who love the game of the Scots.

A Charleston, W. V., paper has to say the following of Mr. Jones: "Denny F. Jones, former Pro of the Kanawan Country club of Charleston, West Virginia, who for many seasons was in charge of he Royal P. ciana Golf club at Palm Beach, has now the en charge of the Tryon Country club. He succe ds Chas. Glennie, former Pro, an we feel that he will prove popular to he large number who beeckon to DENNY F. JONES. the call of the white pill. As an instructor, he cannot be surpassed, for his patience with the beginner finds no end."

