Columbus, N. C.

Greeting old friends in Columbus during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntosh and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, from Lenoir, who were guests of Supt. and Mrs. E. W. S. Cobb. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh were greatly impressed with the many changes having taken place in the little county seat town since they left it in July for Caldwell county, where Mr. McIntosh is county superintendent.

Handsomely engraved announcements were received in Columbus recently announcing the marriage on December 31st of Miss Celeste Legette to Mr. A. D. Huffine. The marriage took place at the home of the bride near Red Springs. This is the culmination of a romance started in Columbus last winter when both were members of the Stearns High School faculty. Mr. and Mrs. Huffine will make their home in Denton, Texas, where Mr. Huffine is engaged in the automobile business.

Another marriage which came as quite a surprise to Columbus friends was that of Mr. Bostic Page to Miss Annie Belle Adams, which took place at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. James F. Ormond, in Columbus, Sunday afternoon, January 3rd. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Ormond.

Mrs. Page, whose home is near Greenwood, S. C., has been nursing in the Tryon Infirmary for the past year and has made many friends in the county who will be interested to hear of her marriage.

Mr. Page has a position with the W. S. McDowell Grocery Company, and is well known in Columbus where he has always lived.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doar and baby of Charlotte are again in Columbus, stopping in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Smith.

Rev. A. V. Reese of Hendersonville, who is engaged in evangelistic work throughout the South, preached at the Baptist Church in Columbus Sunday morning and night. Later in the spring Rev. Reese will return to Columbus and conduct a series of revival services.

The many friends of Mrs. E. B. Cloud will be glad to know that she was able to return to her home the latter part of the week from the Tryon Infirmary where she successfully underwent a very serious operation just before Christmas.

Mr. W. P. Cargel, superintendent of the Columbus Cotton Mills, spent last week-end with his family at Cherryville. Mr. Cargel expects to move his family to Columbus within the next few weeks.

Mr. Claude R. Blanton, our wide awake and progressive real estate dealer, spent the past week-end at his home in Mooresboro. Columbus hopes soon to claim Mr. Blanton as one of her permanent residents also.

Rev. T. F. Haney of Winston-Salem will preach at the Columbus Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Major Hutchinson, Thursday, January 7th, a fine son.

Mr. Marshall Chittwood, who has been quite ill with pneumonia at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. B. Barnett, with whom he lives, was carried to Tryon Infirmary last Thursday. His condition remains about the same.

The regular Parent-Teacher meeting for the month of January will be held Friday evening the 22nd at 7 o'clock in the High School building. An interesting "Health Program" has been prepared. Parents and friends of the school are invited.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. N. T. Mills next Tuesday evening, January 19th, at 7:30.

A special hot luncheon program will be demonstrated during the month of February in the Stearns High School under the supervision of Miss Maywood, the Home Economics teacher, and Miss Holderbaum, Home Demonstration agent. This work will be financed by the Parent-Teacher Association.

Mr. J. Austin Newman of Gafney, S. C., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newman.

Mr. J. B. Wilson and family moved the first of the year to Columbia, S. C. Mr. Wilson will have charge of the laundry at the Baptist Hospital there.

Mill Spring, Route 1.

A. A. Edwards of Columbus, N. C., is visiting his son, Albert Edwards. Misses Vernie Hyder and Maude Womack have returned to their school at Hill Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Spurlin spent Thursday at the home of W. W. Womack.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lynch of Tryon spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Womack.

Rev. H. L. Powell is visiting his father, J. C. Powell.

Misses Maude and Clara Womack spent Sunday with their friends, Vernie and Valma Hyder.

Green's Creek.

At a meeting of the board of deacons of the Green's Creek Baptist Church recently the following resolutions were adopted and presented to the congregation at the last preaching service.

On motion the resolutions were left open for discussion until the third Sunday of the present month:

"Be it resolved that one of the greatest assets that can be added to the Green's Creek community is the building of a parsonage. Some of the advantages of having a parsonage in the community are the following:

"Having a pastor in the community, whether full time preaching or part time, would raise the religious and moral standard of the community. The first community to build a parsonage will be the community that will get the pastor. The pastor would be where he could meet with the different committees. He would be more able to advise and handle the difficult problems that come up from time to time. He would be a great help in the Sunday School work, B. Y. P. U. work, missionary work, and Young People's Unions. He would be on hand to visit the sick and attend funeral services.

"Building material is as cheap as it will ever be, and is getting more costly each year.

"The church has advanced about as far as it can under the leadership of an absentee pastor."

Much progress is being made in the Green's Creek section this winter. Several new homes are either under construction or will be at an early date.

Motion pictures for the high school were procured through the State Board of Education some time ago, and good programs are being presented each Saturday evening. The performances are well attended and are adding a great deal to the social life of the community.

A CARD.

We, at Crestwood, desire to express our gratitude to neighbors and friends who came so promptly to our assistance when the house caught fire. So efficiently and quietly was it extinguished that very little damage was done, and even the sick mother was not awakened until all danger was past. "And so we say with Tiny Tim, God bless you every one."
