GREENS CREEK

The weather continues dry at this writing and farmers find the ground getting hard for plowing and planting. Some corn and perhaps a small acreage of cotton has been planted, however, and vegetable gardens are doing fairly well, though a good shower would be beneficial.

Some of the younger set enjoyed a party with Misses Lola Hines, Annie Davis, Dorothy McChesnee, Louise Paige, Chreston Allen, and Edlon Hines, and others.

Paul Wall spent Saturday night at his home with Mrs. Addie Giles and family.

Miss Louise Page of Jonesville, S. C., spent last week visiting Mrs. E. C. Hines, returning home Saturday. Miss Page is a young and attractive "Schoolmarm," welcome at Green's Creek.

Miss Ila Giles of Spindale, N. C., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Giles, attending church Sunday.

Ernest Hines came home to spend Saturday night and Sunday.

Prof. Edgar T. Hines, High School principal, and E. C. Hines, of Hines Motor Co. went to Raleigh Thursday, or rather Friday. Spending Thursday and Friday night at the home of Prof. Hines' father in Greensboro while in Raleigh they found time for a short visit with some of the home boys now at A and M.

Were you at Green's Creek Sunday? If not you missed something worth while. A large number of visitors from Columbus, Landrum, Chesnee, Spartanburg and other points, with many from other churches in the township, joined our people in some of the new songs, interspersed with a few selections of old familiar hymns, we were glad to have those good people with us, and hope that many of them will find it agreeable and convenient to come again. Mr. D. P. L. Martin of Chesnee extended a hearty invitation to all to attend the Biennial is State Singing Convention, which meets in Mayo, S. C., the second Sunday in May.

For Charitable purposes, and for the edification of the public generally, a string band concert was given at the School Auditorium Thursday night. The splendid music was enjoyed by an appreciation audience.

At the School Auditorium next Friday evening, a play "All a Mistake" will be given by members of the Senior Class, the proceeds to be used for a worthy purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Marrow of Rutherfordton, N. C., were among our friends who found a hearty welcome "back home," at Green's Creek Sunday.

Submitted by Mrs. Solon Hipes.

Property on Chocolate Mountain belonging to Mr. Lindsay Smith was purchased last week by Marion and Shelby capitalists who are planning to develop this picturesque mountain slope. The deal was made through Blanton and Green.

COLUMBUS PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION MEEES

The Columbus Parent-Teacher Association held the regular monthly meeting at the school building on April 27, at 8 p. m.

The Junior Chorus sang two numbers "Home Song" and "Get away from this Cornfield."

Followed by a Dramatization "making the best of it" given by the pupils of the third and fourth grades each of these members were well rendered and caused much appreciable comment.

The climax of the evening was reached when Judge Schenck of Hendersonville addressed the crowded room on "Juvenile Delinquency," a subject which he said is being widely discussed and the only solution yet discussed is the Home. He advised a closer cooperation between the Home and school and heartily endorsed the work of the Parent-Teacher Association as a means of this end.

The social committee served tea and wafers at the close of the meeting and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

The next Parent-Teacher meeting will be held Friday night May the 7, this meeting will be held in the new Auditorium and every parent is cordially invited an interesting program has been prepared.

Apparently the White House chief is not receiving the credit he deserves. Only two of the foreign debt commissions have failed to make a settlement after being dined at the executive mansion.
