

Developments Plan to Run Pullmans to Tryon

Tryon-Shelton Plans Ready For O. K.

SPECIALS FROM BIG CITIES

Proposed Plan Will Mean Much To This Section

Plans are on foot by the various development companies of Tryon to run special Pullmans from Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Louisville, Richmond, Va., Norfolk, Va., and other big cities bringing people to Tryon to inspect the wonderful sub-divisions.

The plan that has been worked out successfully in various Florida cities and while it is an expensive proposition, valuable results are sure to follow.

The properties offered in Tryon are exceptional from many viewpoints. Particularly from the standpoint of investment and also ideal residential.

BLUE RIDGE FOREST CORRECTS STORY

The headline story carried in the Polk County News of last week, announcing the construction of another hotel on Hog Back Mountain, was in error on the part of the editorial force of this development company.

From the information of this company it was announced that there would be a correction of the headline and that every prearrangement be used in carrying out the plan. The company has about completed the first Golf Course and the second is under a contemplation of being started. They wish this report to be correct until it is absolutely an established fact.

WORK TO BEGIN IN FEW DAYS

New Holstery Will Be Elaborate Structure

WORK WILL BE RUSHED

The officials of the Tryon Shelton Hotel Company announced today that Mr. Frank H. Anderson, president of the Leland-Shelton Hotel Company of New York, has been called to Tryon for a full discussion of the proposed plans for the new Tryon-Shelton, and his wife has been received that he will be here on Saturday, the 22nd. It is believed that during his stay here the final plans can be approved on arrangements and the work to an early completion.

Plans in Readiness Only to Be Approved.

The plans for this lovely structure have been in readiness for some time and only need the final O. K. when the work can be started immediately. These plans were drawn by one of the country's foremost architects, and are said to be the last word in modern tourist hotel layout. The building when completed will compare favorably with the finer hotels of the tourist class, and will serve as a long-awaited need to this great resort center.

Officials State That Work Probably Will Begin in Early June.

One of the high officials of the company representing the Tryon stockholders stated that he confidently believed that the work would begin in early June, but could not predict the date of the actual completion of the structure, owing to the massiveness of the project. The new hotel will be located on one of the most picturesque sites of Lake Lanier, and will command mountain views unparalleled in this whole mountain range.

Large Portion of Stock Subscribed by Local People.

A major portion of the stock in this magnificent hotel project was subscribed locally, and the announcement that the contracts will be left for construction in a few days will be heralded as a great event for Tryon and this entire section of the country. It was also stated authoritatively that only ten days' time would be allowed for the job, so as not to lose any more time in getting the holstery completed.

Will Serve as Great Mecca for Many Notable Society Events.

The new hotel will serve as a great Mecca for social functions for which Tryon is so well noted, and will take care of the ever increasing band of tourists that continue to make Tryon their headquarters both summer and winter.

ASHEVILLE IS ONE OF THREE CITIES PICKED FOR M. E. HOSPITAL

Asheville was recommended as the place for establishment of one of three hospitals by the Methodist Church, it was learned here. The next move will be the appointment of a committee from the hospital board of the general conference to come here for the purpose of carrying forward negotiations as to the selection of a suitable site and to arrange for other details incident to building, it was stated.

Establishment of hospitals at Tucson, Ariz., and at New Orleans were also recommended. Bishop Warren A. Candler is head of the hospital board and Dr. Charles Jarrrell of Nashville, Tenn., is secretary.

The plan for establishment of a hospital in Asheville has long been under consideration by the Methodist Church, it was learned here. The next move will be the appointment of a committee from the hospital board of the general conference to come here for the purpose of carrying forward negotiations as to the selection of a suitable site and to arrange for other details incident to building, it was stated.

News that Asheville has been selected for this institutional hospital brought general gratification in Methodist circles.

POLK COUNTY ROADS BEING CRAPED AND IN GREAT SHAPE FOR TRAVEL. Most of the most important roads in the county are being kept in wonderful shape. They are scraped very regularly and in every section of the county are in good shape. The road from Columbus to Rutherfordton is in excellent shape for travel and is considered one of the best dirt roads in this section of the country. It is expected that the work of hard-surfacing the Columbus-Rutherfordton road will be announced very soon, which will come as great news to the this community.
