POLK COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Her Incomparable Climate
 Her Majestic Mountains
 Her Restful Scenic Beauty
 Her Rolling Fertile Acres
 Her Lovable Gentle Folks
 Her Contented Homes

We Believe That She Will Achieve More In The Next Decade Than In the Past Quarter Century.

We have seen land rise in value from one dollar an acre to one hundred dollars an acre.

We have seen her bottomless mud roads develop into graded streets and paved highways.

We have seen her look of want transformed to smiles of confidence as prosperity came.

We have seen comfortable homes rise from the cabins on the mountainsides.

We have seen her school-less districts grow to centralized graded schools filled with bright children.

With all her grandeur of nature
 With all her valuable lands
 With all her excellent roads
 With all her splendid schools
 With all her happy homes
 With all her charming people

Why not have an abiding faith in Polk County, North Carolina?
 We have: Have you?
