MRS. RIVENBARK ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Clute Rivenbark complimented Miss Huberta Bible of Athens, Tenn., house guest of Mrs. L. B. Cavanaugh, at a bridge party on Monday evening. Lovely arrangements of lilacs, iris, and tulips were used in the rooms in which guests were entertained. At the close of the games the hostess served a sweet course with mints and salted nuts. Lovely prizes were presented to Mrs. W. B. Jones for high score, to Mrs. A. J. Cavanaugh for second high and to Miss Huberta Bible, the honoree. Those playing were: Miss Bible, Mrs. Gilbert Tripp of Warsaw, Misses Marion Powell, Kathleen Cook, Mary Fulton Turner, Louise Carter, Xylda Cooper, Mesdames J. D. Robinson, Albert Wells, E. J. Johnson, W. B. Jones, A. J. Cavanaugh, R. E. L. Dees, Finley Carr, L. B. Cavanaugh, G. E. Boney.

MRS. ROBINSON HOSTESS

A lovely event occurred on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. John D. Robinson was at home to her friends at a lovely garden party. The affair, which was held from 4 until 6 o'clock, was a scene of beauty with a profusion of spring blossoms in bloom. Punch, sandwiches and dainty cakes were served the guests. Receiving with Mrs. Robinson, who is state chairman of gardens, were members of the executive committee of the local woman's club; Mrs. Hugh Morrison, president, Mrs. Jas. Henry Currie, Mrs. Clifton J. Knowles, Mrs. Lawrence Cavanaugh, Mrs. Albert Wells, Mrs. Herbert Rogers, Mrs. J. S. Blair, and Mrs. R. C. Williams.

MRS. CAVENAUGH ENTERTAINS

Mrs. L. B. Cavanaugh entertained at a charming tea on Saturday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Huberta Bible, of Athens, Tenn. Iris, spirea and tulips were gracefully arranged in baskets and vases throughout the front rooms. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. W. B. Jones and Mrs. J. D. Robinson. In the receiving line were Mrs. L. B. Cavanaugh, wearing black chiffon, Miss Huberta Bible, gowned in dark blue starched net, Mrs. Frank Boney, a recent bride, most becomingly attired in dark blue crepe, Mrs. Gilbert Tripp of Warsaw, wearing light blue ruffled net, and Mrs. Luther Williams of Rose Hill who wore dark blue crepe.

Mrs. Cary Caudell invited the guests into the dining room. The beautifully appointed table was covered with an exquisite maderia cover and a silver bowl of gorgeous yellow tulips formed the centerpiece. Burning yellow tapers in silver holders furnished illumination. Mrs. E. J. Johnson and Mrs. Clute Rivenbark seated at the table served yellow and white cream. Green and white frosted cakes, nuts and mints were served by Misses Louise Robinson, Mary E. Powers and Josie Hall.

ROSE HILL HIGH SCHOOL HAS ITS CLOSING EVENTS

On Sunday evening, Dr. A. J. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Goldsboro, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The minister presented the transformation that took place when Jesus preached in the dirty fishing boat, owned by Simon Peter. Dr. Smith declared that property takes on the personality of its ownership and the whole realm of life might become sacred by the right use of property, talent, and powers.

Senior class exercises were held on Tuesday evening. The program was presented in the form of a one-act play, "The Rosy Pathway". The class president was Miss Estelle Harrell, the valedictorian, David W. Rouse, and the salutatorian was William Blanchard. The senior play "Wild Ginger", directed by Miss Margaret McArther and Mrs. L. H. Fussell, was successfully presented on Thursday evening. The high school orchestra furnished music on this evening.

Marshals for commencement were the highest ranking students in the junior class: Misses Eunice Margaret Williams, Edith Ward, Velma Jones, Harold Ward, Chester Rouse, and Oscar A. Beach.

If Europe must have her war there is very little that we can do to prevent it.

Business men who were struggling to break even three years ago are now complaining because they are not making larger profits.

HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS TAKE 83 LIVES IN MARCH

Sunday counted 21 fatal accidents and 57 non-fatal wrecks. Saturday was the second highest day with 16 fatal and 70 non-fatal mishaps, and Friday was third with 10 fatal and 48 non-fatal.

The largest number of mishaps, 10 fatal and 24 non-fatal, occurred between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock at night. The second largest number, seven fatal and 20 non-fatal, happened between 8 and 9 o'clock at night.

Ninety-three men were involved as drivers in the fatal wrecks, as compared with five women.

Reckless driving was the cause for 14 fatal and 65 non-fatal mishaps, with speeding the cause of 14 fatal and 37 non-fatal occurrences. There were four persons killed and 10 injured by hit-and-run drivers.
