

Personals

Guests of Mrs. I. B. South-land, on Sunday, were Mrs. F. O. Miller, Frank O. Miller, Jr., Mrs. B. C. Tavis and I. B. Southland, Jr. of Winston-Salem.

Miss Ruth Minchew of Black Creek is on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. James Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kimrey of Lake Waccamaw were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harrell during last week.

Mrs. Earl Walker returned to her home at Willis' Wharf, Va., on Saturday after spending several weeks with Mrs. Jones. Misses Mary Ellsworth and Martha Jones accompanied Mrs. Walker home, where they will spend time.

Messrs. N. H. Carter, Almond Carter and Rev. J. E. Lanier left this week for Washington, D. C., where they will receive treatment at Tacoma Park Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Foyles of Wilmington were guests of Mrs. Foyles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Boney, during the past week.

Mrs. Ned Paddison with Mr. and Mrs. Horton of Nashville, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Robinson on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheffield expect to leave Sunday for Baton Rouge, La., where they will spend several days as the guests of Mr. Sheffield's brother.

Mrs. Mollie E. Wallace and Mrs. Ada E. Carr have as their guests Mrs. C. B. Ellsworth of Ashland, Ky.

Lloyd McGowan has returned to Cameron, N. C., where he is engaged in business, after spending the week-end with relatives.

Miss Marion Powell and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kimrey spent Friday and Saturday in Magnolia, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Croom.

Miss Frances Weathersby of Wilmington was among those attending the Strawberry Festival held here last week.

Mrs. A. J. Cavanaugh and son, A. J., Jr., have gone to Clio, S. C., where they will visit Mrs. Cavanaugh's parents. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Covington for some time.

Mrs. E. J. Johnson and son, William left Monday for St. Stephens, S. C., where they will spend two weeks with Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Carroll.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Robinson had as their house guest, Wednesday night, Hon. R. T. Fountain of Rocky Mount.

Miss Lucy Catherine South-land left Monday for Winston-Salem where she will visit relatives for several weeks.

Mesdames J. S. Blair, Chas. Brooks and Clifton J. Knowles are spending several days this week in Raleigh, where they are attending the State meeting of O. E. S.

Mrs. Rufus A. Hunter and children of Raleigh, were visitors here during the past week.

Henry M. Campbell has returned to his home in Franklin, Va., after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell and Mr. Dave Campbell who remains ill at his home here.

Among those going to White Lake during the Week-end, were Misses Eunice Boney, Mary Elizabeth Wells, Virginia Browder, Red Hester and R. C. Williams, Jr.

Mrs. Alma H. Boney, who is at the bed-side of her daughter, Elizabeth, who remains critically ill at James Walker Hospital, Wilmington, spent Saturday at her home here.

Miss Edna Teachey returned to her home Sunday after undergoing an operation at the James Walker Hospital, Wilmington.

Friends of John N. Wells will be glad to learn of his return home after spending the past month as a patient in the James Walker Hospital, Wilmington.

Bill Blossom, Jr., accompanied by his children, Chris, III, and Betty Frank spent Sunday with relatives at Castle Hayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin formerly of Wallace and now of Mt. Olive were among those attending the Strawberry Festival last week.

Friends of Mrs. Jamie Tyler of Delway will regret to learn she remains critically ill at the house of her sister here, Mrs. H. F. Boney.

Miss Bettie Jenkins of Ken-

ansville spent the past week-end with relatives here.

Miss Elizabeth Wyszog has returned to her home on Harbor Island after spending several days with Miss Micky Bryant.

Mr. "Spot" Carr was a visitor in Rockingham Sunday.

Mrs. G. T. Fisher of St. Paul is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Caudell.

Misses Resa Veach, Louise Bowen, Mary B. Bowen and Mrs. McNair Johnson of Willard were guests of Mrs. R. W. Powers on Monday.

Mrs. Jacob Hurwitz left on Wednesday evening for New York, where she will spend the next two weeks visiting relatives and friends there.

Miss Elizabeth Ward, who has been the guest of friends in Baltimore, Md., for the past ten days, has arrived home for the summer months.

Miss Brunelle Butler has returned to her home at Salemburg after spending some time with Mrs. Allen Boney.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herring spent Sunday at Atkinson, where they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Beard.

Miss Anna Carr of Kenansville was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sion A. Carr during last week.

SOCIETY

Scott-Pearson

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Pearson of Petersburg, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter Nell Winifred, to Mr. Harry Scott of Hopewell, Va., who formerly resided in this city, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Scott of Rose Hill.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Derby, pastor of High St. M. E. Church in Petersburg, on June 1.

The couple will make their home at 614 W. Washington St., in Petersburg.

Mr. Scott is connected with the Hercules Powder Co., in Hopewell, Va.

MISS BRYANT ENTERTAINS

Miss Mildred Bryant entertained at her country home on Monday evening from 9 til 12 o'clock at a lovely party given in honor of Miss Sarah Seawell of Chapel Hill who was house guest of Miss Mary Graham Smith.

The home was beautifully decorated with lovely summer cut flowers. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening in the spacious sun parlor.

A delicious salad course with iced tea was served to the following guests: Miss Sarah Seawell, honoree, Misses Hyl-da Powell, Xylda Cooper, Josie Hall, Mary Graham Smith, Mary Fulton Turner, Louise Robinson, Leone Hall, Gladys Sheffield, Kathleen Cook, Virginia Browder, Annie Laura Harrell, Alice Farrior, Messrs. Horace Perry, Bill Sheffield, Oscar Smith, Steve Mallard, Jack Kirkland, Johnnie Mallard, Francis Campbell, J. B. Boney, Roy Wilder, Felix Dodd, Wendell, Horace Rivenbark, Rodie Postum, Joe Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Rivenbark.

Among those going to White Lake during the Week-end, were Misses Eunice Boney, Mary Elizabeth Wells, Virginia Browder, Red Hester and R. C. Williams, Jr.

Mrs. Alma H. Boney, who is at the bed-side of her daughter, Elizabeth, who remains critically ill at James Walker Hospital, Wilmington, spent Saturday at her home here.

Miss Edna Teachey returned to her home Sunday after undergoing an operation at the James Walker Hospital, Wilmington.

Friends of John N. Wells will be glad to learn of his return home after spending the past month as a patient in the James Walker Hospital, Wilmington.

Bill Blossom, Jr., accompanied by his children, Chris, III, and Betty Frank spent Sunday with relatives at Castle Hayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin formerly of Wallace and now of Mt. Olive were among those attending the Strawberry Festival last week.

Friends of Mrs. Jamie Tyler of Delway will regret to learn she remains critically ill at the house of her sister here, Mrs. H. F. Boney.

Miss Bettie Jenkins of Ken-

ansville spent the past week-end with relatives here.

Miss Elizabeth Wyszog has returned to her home on Harbor Island after spending several days with Miss Micky Bryant.

Mr. "Spot" Carr was a visitor in Rockingham Sunday.

Mrs. G. T. Fisher of St. Paul is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Caudell.

Misses Resa Veach, Louise Bowen, Mary B. Bowen and Mrs. McNair Johnson of Willard were guests of Mrs. R. W. Powers on Monday.

Mr. Rob Humphrey and son Milton of Burgaw were welcome visitors Sunday.

Mr. Flave Stroud of Wallace Mrs. Arthur Bullard of Wilmington and Mrs. Bob Wallace visited their mother Mrs. Emma Anderson last week.

The Woman's Club met with Mrs. B. R. Brinkley Tuesday evening. There was a very large attendance present. Visitors were Mrs. Jones of near Burgaw and Miss Nellie La Barbe of Asheville. Miss Orr presided over the meeting, giving instructions and illustrations in staining, plastering, papering and calcimining walls, finishing floors and proper draperies that would blend and correspond with the various colors used, after which a delicious lunch of salad, fancy cakes and iced tea was served by the hostess and greatly enjoyed by all. A miscellaneous shower consisting of many useful and ornamental articles was given to Mrs. Joe McGowan. The club will meet next with Mrs. J. M. Lee.

Miss Elizabeth Ward, who has been the guest of friends in Baltimore, Md., for the past ten days, has arrived home for the summer months.

Miss Brunelle Butler has returned to her home at Salemburg after spending some time with Mrs. Allen Boney.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herring spent Sunday at Atkinson, where they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Beard.

Miss Anna Carr of Kenansville was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sion A. Carr during last week.

MANY CASES DISPOSED OF IN COURT THIS WEEK

(Continued from Page One)

tered pleas of not guilty. Yancy was found guilty and received a sentence of eight months on the roads. Daisy was found not guilty.

A four-month's road sentence, which was suspended upon payment of the cost and a $25.00 fine, was imposed on Nathan Shaw following his conviction on a charge of possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale.

Pleading guilty on a charge of possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, Chancey Chestnut drew a six-month's road sentence.

Pleading guilty on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, Carl Miller had prayer for judgment continued for 12 months upon payment of the cost.

In the case of Norman Hanchey and Alton Carter, charged with public nuisance, both defendants entered pleas of guilty and had prayer for judgment continued to the July term.

The court ordered the case of Will Harrison, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, remanded to Justice's court.

The state took a nol pross in the case of Roland Thigpen, charged with violating the fish law.

Pleading guilty on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and disorderly conduct, Osborne Hall and John H. McKiever drew 90-day road sentences which were suspended on condition that each pay a fine of $10.00 and cost.

A nol pross was taken in the case of Rodolph Chasten, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

deadly weapon.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

ably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

Eight months on the roads was the sentence imposed in the case of Ed Savage following his conviction on a charge of manufacturing whiskey.

C. B. Taylor, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of a $50.00 fine and cost.

In the case of Leonard Moore, charged with possessing whiskey for the purpose of sale, the defendant entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty by the court the defendant was ordered to the roads for sixty days. Sentence was suspended, however, upon payment of the cost and on condition he be of good behavior.

Heavy shipments of both corn and cucumbers will probably get under way next week.

Pleading guilty to operating an auto while intoxicated, Tom Harper had prayer for judgment continued upon certain conditions.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Garland Williams and Lonnie Carroll, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. A nol pross was also taken in another case in which Garland Williams was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Charged with assault, Willie Moore entered a plea of not guilty. Upon being found guilty, the defendant was ordered to the roads for four months.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of James and McKinley Powers, charged with assault.

force peace no matter what nation she has to lick.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in two separate mortgage deeds made by Malachi Newkirk and wife, Sarah Newkirk, to Atlantic Coffin and Casket Company, one dated October 6, 1927, recorded in Book 304, page 153, Registry of Duplin County, and the other dated January 21, 1928, recorded in Book 304, page 152, of said Registry, default having been made in the payment of the bonds secured by the mortgage deed of October 6, 1927, and in the payment of the bonds of the mortgage deed of January 21, 1928, the undersigned will offer for sale at the courthouse door in Kenansville, Duplin County, on MONDAY, JULY 8, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, to the highest bidder, for cash, a certain tract or lot of land in Hill, N. C., described and defined as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a stake at intersection of the western edge of Pine St. with the northern edge of Center Street running thence with the northern edge of Center Street about S. 75 1-2 W. to a Isaac Cottle's corner; thence Cottle's line about N. 11 W., one-half the distance to the northern edge of Center Street and 150 feet at right angles from the southern edge of Ridge Street; thence V and Mallard's line parallel with the center of Main St. about N. 75 3-8 E. to the northern edge of Pine St. (thence) about S. 14 3-8 E. feet to the beginning, containing the lower lot of the purchased by Maury Ward, J. C. Mallard of D. T. and wife, on the north of Center Street and the eastern side of Pine Street, land conveyed by said V and Mallard to T. W. Fu by deed dated May 21, 1928, and recorded in Book 304, page 111, of the registry of Duplin County.

Advertised this June 7, 1935. W. H. HALL, Mortgagee. Oscar B. Turner, Attorney June 13-20-27 July 4

By virtue of the power of sale contained in two separate mortgage deeds made by Malachi Newkirk and wife, Sarah Newkirk, to Atlantic Coffin and Casket Company, one dated October 6, 1927, recorded in Book 304, page 153, Registry of Duplin County, and the other dated January 21, 1928, recorded in Book 304, page 152, of said Registry, default having been made in the payment of the bonds secured by the mortgage deed of October 6, 1927, and in the payment of the bonds of the mortgage deed of January 21, 1928, the undersigned will offer for sale at the courthouse door in Kenansville, Duplin County, on MONDAY, JULY 8, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, to the highest bidder, for cash, those lots of land in Rose Hill Township, Duplin County, described as follows:

The lots conveyed by said mortgage deed dated October 6, 1927, to wit: Lots numbered 5 to 17, inclusive, in Block No. 41 of the C. M. Steinmetz survey. Reference is made above to the record of this mortgage. This property will be sold separately from the other property described below:

Also the following lots conveyed by the above mentioned mortgage deed dated January 21, 1928, to wit:

First Tract, being lots numbered 1 to 17, inclusive, in Block No. 40 of the C. M. Steinmetz survey.

Second Tract, being a strip of land 50 feet wide and 415 feet long, as described in said mortgage of January 21, 1928, to the record of which reference is made above.

Advertised this June 7, 1935. ATLANTIC COFFIN & CASKET COMPANY, Mortgagee. June 13-20-27 July 4

By virtue of the power of sale contained in two separate mortgage deeds made by Malachi Newkirk and wife, Sarah Newkirk, to Atlantic Coffin and Casket Company, one dated October 6, 1927, recorded in Book 304, page 153, Registry of Duplin County, and the other dated January 21, 1928, recorded in Book 304, page 152, of said Registry, default having been made in the payment of the bonds secured by the mortgage deed of October 6, 1927, and in the payment of the bonds of the mortgage deed of January 21, 1928, the undersigned will offer for sale at the courthouse door in Kenansville, Duplin County,