

Comedy Drama At Local Theatre

"Transatlantic Merry-Go-Round," Reliance's sparkling new comedy drama with melody, mystery and romance, staged aboard a palatial ocean liner, comes to the Wanoqa Theatre Wednesday.

A great cast of screen and radio stars, headed by Jack Benny, Nancy Carroll and Gene Raymond is seen in this Harry M. Goetz-Edward Small production, which Benjamin Stoll directed for release through United Artists.

Benny is seen as a genial master of ceremonies, broadcasting from the high seas, while Nancy plays Sally Marsh, the star of his troupe, and Raymond is seen as a young Raffles who falls in love with her.

Among the famous screen and radio personalities, who take part in Benny's broadcasts are Mitzi Green, in her first grown-up role; Frank Parker, The Boswell Sisters, Patsy Kelly, Jean Sargent and Jimmy Grier and his orchestra. Benny's famous satire, "Grind Hotel," is a high point of the program.

The passengers aboard the liner include Sydney Howard, who is known as England's Chaplin, playing a happy, harmless drunk; Sid Silvers as Raymond's comic confederate working as a steward; Sidney Blackmer as Lee Lother, a scoundrelly Broadway racketeer who is pursuing Sally; Shirley Grey as a married woman who is infatuated with Lother; Ralph Morgan as her suspicious husband; and William Boyd as an escaped gunman who is stowing away aboard the liner.

The mystery develops when Lother is found dead in Sally's cabin. Suspicion falls on each in turn, and it takes a second murder to solve the first.

Magnolia News

The revival meeting will begin Sunday A. M. in the Free Will Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hunter, Mr. Jim Dixon and daughter, Miss Laura and Norwood Horne motored to several peach farms Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Gavin, Mrs. Elizabeth Merritt and little daughter Delores, Lela Tucker and Helen Wilson spent Saturday in Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. Jack-Lewis of Faison was in town Monday.

Mrs. S. B. Hunter and son, John, Miss Louise Croom and Norwood Horne spent Monday in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barwick of Mt. Olive spent the week-end with Mrs. B. D. Kornegay in West Magnolia.

The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist church held their regular meeting Sunday A. M., with the counselor in charge, Misses Alline Wilson, Elizabeth Gavin, Vernese Brown, Martha Dail, Dorothy Register and Mary Belle West took part on the program.

The Sunbeam Band of the Baptist church had one of the finest meetings of the season Sunday A. M. They were rained out the Sunday before so were asked to meet before S. S. at 9 o'clock Sunday A. M. and more than twenty-five children were present just bubbling over with interest in the program on Africa.

The counselor, Miss Macy Cox displayed on a table a white cross and at the foot of the cross a beautiful little globe of the world on a brass stand with Africa turned to front. On one side of the cross stood two negro dolls and on the opposite side two white dolls. Emphasis was stressed on the fact that Christ died on the cross for all the people of the world and the white Sunbeams have the privilege of telling the African children the story through our Missionaries. A large negro doll was held by a Sunbeam all bound with chains, representing Africans being bound in chains of sin, and all the Sunbeams wanted to loose the doll from the chains. They were reminded that our own Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Powell are our missionaries in Africa.

Family Reunion
The big Tucker family had a happy family reunion at the home Sunday, where eleven of the twelve children with few relatives and friends enjoyed family fellowship, fun and everything good to eat that country and town folks could pile on a long table in front of the house. The sons and daughters present with their families were J. P. Tucker, J. E. Tucker, M. T. Tucker. Mrs. Marvin Bradshaw, Mrs. A. W. Croom, Mrs. J. T. Baker, Mrs. J. E. Sheffield of Magnolia and R. G. Tucker who is at home with his parents Mrs. O. D. Drew and Mrs. Lewis Jones of Warsaw, and Mr. J. W. Tucker of Durham. Other relatives and friends were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rackley, Mrs. Lou Frederick, Mrs. L. L. West and son Ray, Mrs. N. C. Frederick of Warsaw, Mr. and Mrs. David Wilkins and family of Magnolia, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gaylor of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Acey Frederick and family of Turkey, Mrs. Mary Ezzell of Rose Hill, Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Williams and son Hilton of Magnolia. The total number assembled was eighty-five. They look forward each year to this happy event.

The East Magnolia Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Lindon Southerland Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Hendley Carr presiding.

Following the business session the project leaders gave reports of work done since October. The following leaders reported: Miss Margaret Blanton, Miss Lucy Carr, Mrs. Claude Rivenbark, Mrs. Norman Carr, Mrs. Wm. Register, Mrs. Hendley Carr, Mrs. H. F. Brown, Mrs. Mason Brown and Mrs. Lendon Southerland.

The judges voted Mrs. Wm. Register's report best, and she won the prize trip to the short course, but they are not having it this summer on account of infantile paralysis.

Prizes were also given to all members, with the hostess drawing the lucky number for the special prize.

Mrs. Southerland served delicious refreshments to the large number of members present.

Miss Macy Cox made a business call in Kenansville on Thursday morning.

Miss Bettie Horne spent the week-end with relatives in Kinston.

Scenes at Public Utility Lobby Investigations

Washington—There was plenty of action here as the House Rules Committee hearings and the special Senate Lobby Committee investigation got under way on lobby activities when the public utilities bill, with the "unnecessary" holding companies clause, was before the House. Top photo shows a general view of the House committee hearings. Center, Representative Sam Rayburn, (D. Tex.) and Senator Burton Wheeler, (D. Mont.) co-authors of the utilities bill, looking on at the House hearings. Below, Philip H. Gadsden of Philadelphia, Chairman of a Public Utilities Committee of Executives which was formed to oppose the abolition clause. He gave evidence before the Senate Lobby Committee, that more than $300,000 had been spent by the utility executives in an effort to defeat the provision.

WASHINGTON NEWS FOR U. S. FARMERS

ing slow progress in its program of electrification. Naturally, a new agency requires some time to get projects will be under way before long.

The attention of farmers everywhere is called to this opportunity to secure electricity. There are, perhaps, many regions where it is not feasible; in other places, the plan will work. It is the business of all those who live on the farms to understand the program and get in on it if possible.

"From time immorial," says Senator E. D. Smith, chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee, "the farmer has been exploited because he was disorganized."

There is a bit of truth in the remark, but it is not the whole truth. The farmer is partly to blame for the treatment he has been given. He has much to learn in a way of making his voice powerful in government.

The lack of organization is due to many factors but it has continued, in part at least, because farmers have refused to intelligently study their own problems and logically follow the path necessary to cure their evils.

A new snag hit the contemplated submarginal land purchase program when Comptroller General McCarl ruled that the $488,000,000 work relief fund does not permit such purchases where there is no substantial work relief on the land after it is purchased. Western Congressmen are working to secure direct authorization for the use of the funds, which would be used to buy 11,390,455 acres, affecting 14,135 families.

Rural rehabilitation and resettlement, designed to improve the economic status of 350,000 farm families, has been allocated $91,000,000 and the money will be used to make loans to families for farm purposes, to secure land and to set-up agricultural-industrial communities.

Dr. Rexford G. Tugwell, in charge of the program, has divided the nation into eleven districts and will try to spend the sum within six months. The regions were set up in accordance with relief needs and particular attention will be given to submarginal farms and to areas where changing economic conditions have left many farmers stranded.
