Brady-Powers
 The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Powers and William Everett Brady, Jr., of Greenville, was solemnized Sunday morning, August 18, at ten o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. E. Lanier of the Baptist Church. The living room was decorated with bowls of pink roses and white asters. Tall baskets of pink gladiolas were placed on each side of an improvised altar against a back ground of southern smilax. There were no attendants and the bride and bridegroom entered the room together.

 The bride was attired in a stunning early fall suit of beet root with trimmings of silver gray fox and gray accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of talisman roses and baby breath.
 Mrs. Brady is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Powers of Wallace. She graduated from Wallace High School and attended East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville.
 Mr. Brady is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brady of Durham and has made his home in Greenville for several years.
 The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for Virginia. After September first Mr. and Mrs. Brady will be at home in Greenville.
MRS POWERS ENTERTAINS
 Prior to the wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Powers and William Everett Brady, Mrs. G. J. Powers, the bride's mother, entertained the out of town guests at a wedding breakfast. The dining room table was covered with a breakfast lace cloth and graced with a bowl of pink and white asters.
 A three course breakfast was served to the following guests: Miss Mary Elizabeth Powers, Mr. Bill Brady, Miss Mary Elizabeth Crawford of Kinston, Miss Allene West of Warsaw, Miss Mary Brady of Durham, Miss Becky Moffitt of Fayetteville, Messrs. E. W. Eason of Fayetteville, Pete Shell, David Johnson and Morris Brady of Greenville.
Entertain For Bride
 The spacious lawn of Mrs. Ward Blanchard was the scene of a lovely party when Mrs. Ralph Carlton and Mrs. Bruce Dickson assisted Mrs. Blanchard in entertaining for their sister, Mrs. Brantley Hawes, who before her recent marriage was Miss Linda Carr.

 Mrs. Julian Carr greeted the guests and Mrs. Ralph Carlton directed them to the register which was presided over by Mrs. Eugene Colwell.
 An interesting puzzle was presented and each wrote her favorite recipe for the bride. Little Misses Doris Blanchard and Mary Elizabeth Carr placed a huge basket filled with many attractive and useful gifts before the honoree.
 A delicious salad course with tea was served to about fifty guests. Favors were tiny bags of rice.
 One of the loveliest parties of the summer was given on Thursday evening when Mesdames John Powers and R. W. Powers entertained at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Mary Elizabeth Powers, bride-elect of the month. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out effectively in the decorations and appointments for the party, and the bridal motif was emphasized in the tally cards. Arrangements of pink roses and pink verbena were used throughout the rooms in which the guests were entertained contract bridge was played at eight tables and at the close of the progressions the high score gift was presented to Mrs. Roy Carter. To the holder of second high, Mrs. J. W. Powell, a prize was given and to the bride-elect the hostesses presented a lovely corsage of pink rose buds and valley lily and a tomato server in her selected pattern of silver.

 The hostesses served a delectable chicken salad plate with sandwiches, orange biscuits, tea and pink and green mints. Pink asters on each plate had a little card attached on which was written "Powers - Brady, Aug. 18, 10:00 A. M."
 Guests for the affair were: Miss Mary E. Powers, Miss Mary Brady of Greenville, Mesdames J. W. Powell, Chas. Caudell, J. S. Blair, A. J. Cavanaugh, E. J. Johnson, W. G. Wells, J. Hurwitz, Cary Carter, Albert Wells, Robert Carr, R. E. L. Dees, Clute Rivenbark, James O. Carr, Finley Carr, C. Knowles, H. M. Morrison, L. B. Cavanaugh, Bill Ipoeh, Stedman Carr, J. G. Southerland, W. B. Knowles, Lewis Herring, J. B. Cooper, Roy Carter, Chas. Brooks, W. M. Rivenbark Jr., Sam Bloom, Kinston, Ed Johnson of Willard, Misses Louise Bowen of Willard, Virginia Campbell, Mary G. Smith and Mildred Bryant.
 Misses Mildred Bryant and Mary Graham Smith were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at the home of Miss Smith in honor of Miss Mary Elizabeth Powers and Mr. Bill Brady whose marriage will take place Aug. 18. Attractive arrangements of summer flowers decorated the living and dining room. After an hour of informal entertainment the honorees were invited to the living room where a table was laden with many lovely gifts. The hostesses served a delicious salad course.
