Shirley Temple And Will Rogers On Wanoca Screen

A little cupid who picks her spots to shoot her darts best describes Shirley Temple's portrayal in "Curly Top", the new comedy-drama with music which comes on midnight Sunday, and on Monday and Tuesday to the Wanoca Theatre.

Shirley has the role of a little orphan who wins her way into the heart of John Boles, a wealthy trustee of the orphanage.

At the large summer mansion which Boles owns, Shirley enacts the role of cupid to perfection. Rochelle Hudson, believing Boles is not interested in her, decides to marry someone else, but Shirley, who knows differently, employs her childish charms to bring the two together.

Playing the role of cupid, however, does not in the least prevent Shirley from singing and dancing. "Curly Top" presents Shirley with intricate routines and two new songs, "Animal Crackers in My Soup" and "When I Grow Up."

Special Offer to Kids

To the first 75 children who attend the Monday matinee the management will give illustrated books on the life of Shirley Temple.

worthwhile amount towards seeing the big show on next Thursday afternoon or evening.

Celebrating the 52nd year of his circus Mr. Main is making it possible for every child in each city visited by the circus this season to see the show for ten cents. Through the cooperation of the local department store, this is made possible. When making any purchase at Kramer's from now until next Thursday ask for a circus ticket. These special tickets do not entitle you to free admission, but save you from ten to fifteen cents on the price of the ticket, and as a special treat for Wallace children, Mr. Main has arranged to have Jumbo, Jr., the tallest elephant in America, on exhibition in front of Kramer's Department Store on circus day, next Thursday, at noon, from 12 to 12:30.

NEW CHEVROLET MODELS ARRIVE AT CAVANAUGH'S

A few persons in Wallace had the opportunity of glancing at the new 1936 model Chevrolets just shipped to the Cavanaugh Company before they were stored away until the formal exhibition on November 2.

Chief among the features of the new master sixes is the addition of hydraulic brakes, which supplant the former mechanical braking system. The body designs have been altered, presenting a larger body with lines similar to those of higher priced automobiles. A noticeable change is shown in the radiator design, being of chromium construction with a frontal curve.

The interior of the coach exemplifies more comfort and convenience. This is especially evident in the front seat, which gives a solid, one-piece appearance. The backs of the front seats move forward while the base remains stationary.

The rich humanity and shrewd native humor which made Will Rogers America's favorite comedian and one of the country's leading film stars are again abundantly in evidence in one of his last starring pictures, "Steamboat Round the Bend," at the Wanoca Theatre Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The colorful romantic Mississippi of the 1880's with its roustabouts, adventures and comedy is the scene of the new picture.

The plot of "Steamboat Round the Bend" revolves about the love story of Anne Shirley and John McGuire, a swamp girl and a river pilot, and about the comedy feud between Rogers and Irvin S. Cobb who play a pair of rival boat captains.

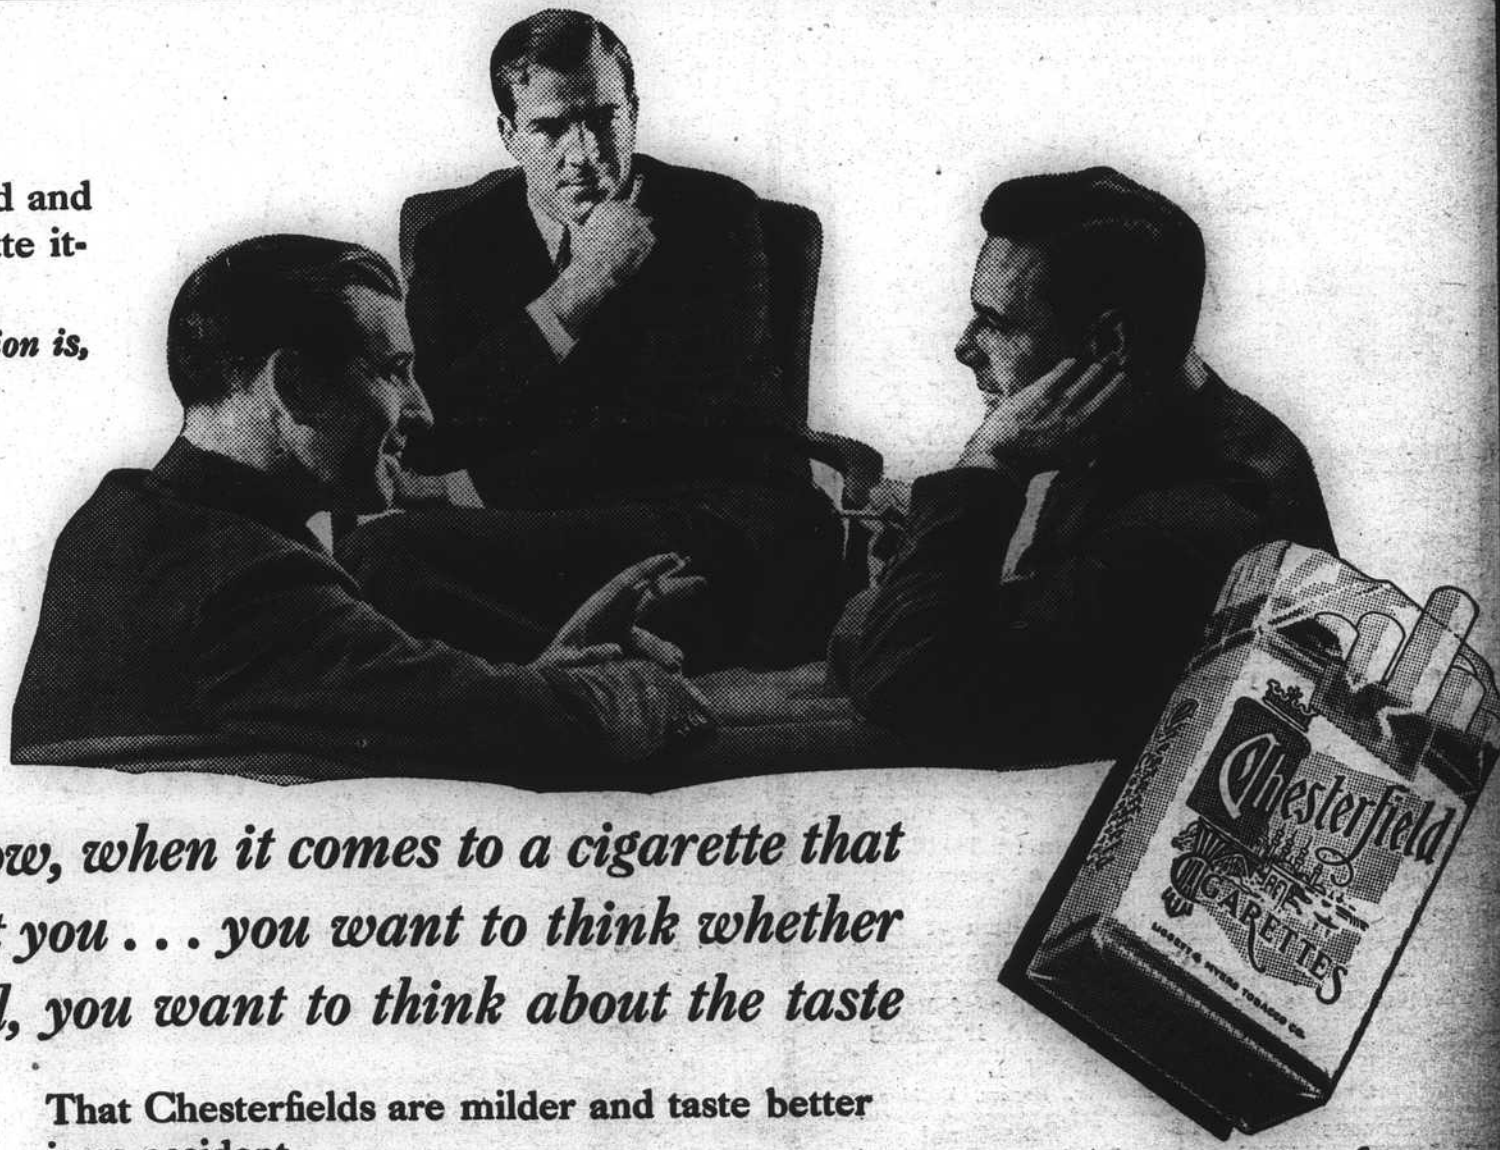

At first Rogers objects to the boy and girl romance, but when the youngsters get into a heap of trouble and the boy is sentenced to hang for killing a man, the wise old river captain comes through with flying colors.

KRAMER'S TO DISTRIBUTE SPECIAL CIRCUS TICKETS

...but, after all is said and done, it's the cigarette itself that counts

... the question is, does it suit you?

Now, when it comes to a cigarette that will suit you . . . you want to think whether it's mild, you want to think about the taste

That Chesterfields are milder and taste better is no accident . . .

The farmer who grows the tobacco, the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder, every man who knows about leaf tobacco will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobaccos to make a good cigarette.

Outstanding .. for mildness .. for better taste

In making Chesterfields we use mild ripe home-grown and Turkish tobaccos.
