Indians Said Devil Lived Here

"The Devil's Tombstone," shown above, is in Palo Duro Canyon, near Canyon City, Texas, 18 miles south of Amarillo. The canyon is one of the beauty spots of Texas that will lure tourists in their 1936 visits to the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas and other celebrations throughout the state. The rock drew its name from an Indian belief that it was the burial marker of an evil spirit.

MRS. JONES HOSTESS AT LUNEHEON

Mrs. W. B. Jones was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Monday when she entertained the executive board of the Presbyterian Auxiliary of which she is president.

Guests were seated in the dining room where a delicious three course luncheon was served. The central table had as its centerpiece a lovely arrangement of pink and yellow tulips, spirea and lavender verbena.

Those present were: Mesdames W. P. M. Currie, M. B. Pope, Jr., G. E. Boney, H. M. Morrison, Charles Caudell, Edward Farrior, H. B. Dunn, Alexander Southerland, John A. Wells, Luther Powell, D. L. Wells, B. C. Boney, Paisley

Boney, Jr., J. G. Southerland, J. D. Robinson, John Farlow, Gabriel Boney, Lina Potter, W. D. Campbell and Miss Mary Graham Smith.

MRS. COOK HONORS DAUGHTER AND FACULTY

Mrs. Ella Cook entertained on Wednesday evening honoring her daughter, Kathleen, and the members of the local school faculty.

Vases of early spring flowers were used in the rooms where tables were placed for bridge. A color motif of yellow and white was carried out in all the appointments. Since it was also the anniversary of her daughter's birthday a beautiful cake centered the dining room table and yellow tapers in silver holders were on each side.

High score prize was awarded to Miss Mary Gamble and low score to Mrs. E. J. Johnson. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. A. Rawley and Mrs. A. J. Cavanaugh served yellow and white cream, cake, and mints to the following guests:

MRS. EDWARD FARRIOR HONORS MRS. ROSE

One of the prettiest parties of the season was the tea given by Mrs. Edward Farrior on Friday afternoon honoring Mrs. William Rose, who before her marriage on April 12 was Miss Alice Farrior.

The home was lovely with decorations of early spring flowers. Bowls of azaleas, yellow iris and large baskets of spirea and bridal wreath were used in the living room.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. E. J. Johnson and presented to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Edward Farrior, Mrs. William Rose, Mrs. Robert Farrior, Miss Ruth Albritton, Mrs. Clarence Carr, of Burgaw, and Mrs. Rivers Lawther of Wilmington. Mrs. Farrior received her guests in a black lace dress with a corsage of sweet peas; Mrs. Rose was gowned in an afternoon dress of blue moiree with a corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Robert Farrior, mother of the bride, wore grey chiffon with lavender sweet peas.

Misses Kathleen Cook and Mary Graham Smith invited the callers into the dining room where Mrs. W. D. Campbell and Mrs. Stokes Williams cut cream at a beautifully appointed table. An arrangement of mixed flowers of pastel shades graced the center of the table and was flanked by green tapers burning in silver holders.

Assisting in serving green mints, cakes, and nuts were Miss Mary Virginia Farrior, Miss Mary Elizabeth Farrior and Miss Dorothy Farrior.
