

SEVEN FACE TRIAL FOR IMPROPER AUTO LIGHTS

Warning to negligent motorists was issued by magistrate A. M. McClung in hearings here Tuesday in which seven persons were tried on charges of having improper lights on their trucks. Most of the cases involved strawberry trucks and the majority of the defendants were fined $2.00 and the cost. State Highway Patrolman Pierce made the arrests.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Marriage licenses were issued to seven couples in this county during the past week, they being: White, Bruce C. Taylor and Miss Ethel Benson; Creto Merritt and Miss Elizabeth Brooks, Sam Kennedy and Miss Mary Lee Thomas; Colored: Wilbert Pigford and Arletha Kenan, Harper Herring and Sudie Holmes, William H. Boykin and Gussie Boykin, Fisher Plummer and Louvenia Moore.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICIALS

(Continued from Page One) Strawberry Market and the local employment situation. She and her party also visited the Penderlea Homesteads project.

The Service, in three days, furnished approximately 2000 pickers in the strawberry area this year, it was learned. Many persons employed at the Penderlea project were also furnished by the organization.

CONVICT QUINTET AGAIN IN PRISON

(Continued from Page 1) Berry, Hughes, and Caldwell, still in stripes, were captured in a swamp 15 miles from Magnolia Monday night after a 12-hour chase by a posse of 30 men and bloodhounds. Nichols, who was reported seen at Rose Hill, and Sprinkle, both wearing civilian clothes, were taken in Goldsboro early Tuesday morning.

The break was made when the truck and trailer stopped at the place the road gang was to work. When the guard stepped off the trailer, two of three men sitting on the rear of the truck threw him to the ground. The five men disarmed him and ran. Five other convicts in the truck, said to be short-term men, made no attempt to escape.

John Bray, Federal Division Inspector of Fayetteville and L. G. Whitley, assistant prison director of Raleigh, came to the scene shortly after the break and directed the pursuit.

RECORDER'S COURT

Charged with drunk and disorderly conduct and forcible trespass, Ed McMillan was adjudged guilty by the Court and was sentenced to serve 60 days on the roads.

Lee Griffin, charged with operating an auto while intoxicated, was declared not guilty.

Pleading guilty to a charge of operating an auto while intoxicated and resisting an officer, Earl Ezzell entered a plea of guilty and had prayer for judgment continued to the June term.

In the case of Horace Britt, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, reckless driving, possessing and transporting whiskey, the defendant was adjudged not guilty on the assault and reckless driving charges. He was found guilty on the transporting charge and drew a six months road sentence.

Pleading guilty on a charge of larceny and receiving, Archie Batts was sentenced to serve four months on the roads.

In the case of Clifton Autrey, charged with assault with a deadly weapon and operating an auto without license, the defendant was found guilty on one count in the assault case and guilty of operating an auto without license. Prayer for judgment was continued for two years on condition he pay cost and remain of good behavior.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Paul Brown and Ethel Caison, charged with prostitution.

In the case of W. E. Childers, charged with reckless driving, the Court ordered the case remanded to J. P. court for judgment.

A nol pross with leave was taken in the case of Liston

Whitfield, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Buddie Hall, charged with assault with a deadly weapon and reckless driving, entered a plea of guilty and had prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment into the court the sum of $20.00 for benefit of Eddie Miller. He is also to pay cost of the action and not operate an auto in the State for one year and remain of good behavior for two years.

RETAIL BUSINESS

Rains revived the "dust bowl" resulting in boosted hopes of farmers in Texas, Missouri, Kansas, and the Northwest. Dallas and Houston reported farmers were encouraged by rains that fell over the State, but, lack of moisture continued. St. Louis reported good progress in corn planting as a result of rains, but low temperature retarded growth of crops. Farm work was rushed in the Seattle area as a result of moderate rains which spread to Eastern Oregon. Minneapolis reported crops reacting favorably, but some frost damage in the North. The wheat crop in the Dakotas was affected by poor seed. San Francisco reported excellent crop outlook and asparagus canning industry operating at capacity. Increase in the average box price of oranges and grape fruit was announced by Jacksonville. Official opening of the Owyhee dam in Southeast Oregon provided irrigation for 100,000 arid acres, considerable of which has been put in cultivation.

Carlott movement of Georgia tomato plants will reach the peak on May 15, according to the Atlanta report. Cash farm income for March is estimated at $513,000,000, compared with $419,000,000 in the same month last year.

Most cities referred to widespread employment gains. The Louisville report said the demand for skilled workers and for commercial, professional and personal service employees was greater than the registered supply. In Virginia, factory employment was 15 percent higher than 1929 according to the Richmond report. Buffalo reported machinery and metal plants increased employment 5 percent and wages 10 percent from mid-February to mid-March. Continued improvement and stronger demand for farm help was reported by St. Louis. Indianapolis reported highway projects in 77 counties would employ 12,000 and additional thousands on construction projects. Relief families in Detroit declined from 22,306 to 21,986 in the week. Jacksonville reported the Florida Re-employment office had dropped 1690 women and 500 to 600 white collar workers.

Most sections reported continued gains in construction. New York reported expanded residential construction mostly with Federal funds with private capital lagging. First quarter building permits in Atlanta were highest since 1929. A $500,000 marine and rail terminal was started in Detroit. Sharp gains were also reported by Wilmington, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, New Orleans, and Cleveland. Diversified industries held high operating levels. Minneapolis reported the early opening of iron mines in four towns on the Mesabi range. Steel production continued at a high level in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Birmingham, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh with Buffalo reporting the best rate in six years. Portland salmon packers opened the season at 11 cents, highest in six years. Detroit reported a million dollar expansion program by the Grand Rapids Varnish Corporation. Widespread industrial expansion in New England was reported by Boston with activity in Springfield resulting in a shortage of skilled mechanical labor. The tinplate division of the steel industry was at a seasonal peak.

No school can "guarantee" Government employment and none is given information regarding examinations, or any other information, which is not available to the general public. The Commission stated that it does not recommend any school and explained that it is not necessary for anyone to take a course with a so-called civil service school in order to compete in a civil service examination.

Watha News

C. D. Rivenbark spent the week-end with his parents. Mrs. Allen Padgett and children of Smith's Creek spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edd Padgett. Mrs. Millard Teachey returned home from a Wilmington hospital Saturday and is doing very nicely. Mrs. J. T. Thompson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alley in Greensboro. Mrs. J. M. Lee and Miss Nellie La Barbe were the guests of Mrs. Virginia Hall Sunday. Mrs. Roy Rivenbark and children of Wallace spent the past week-end with her mother, Mrs. Irene White. Mrs. Cora Hughes has moved into her new house. Mrs. Ned Mills visited her mother, Mrs. Emma Anderson who is still sick in Wilmington. She is convalescing and expects to return home soon. Carl Player is spending a week with his family, seeing after his berries and other crops. Louie Thomas died Wednesday and will be buried Friday at Hopewell cemetery. He had been a great sufferer for many years with rheumatism and his death was not unexpected. His sister, Mrs. Annie Baldwin of Portsmouth, Va., was with him when he passed away. He has another sister living in Florida. He and his brother, Oscar, who was buried two weeks ago had lived at the old homestead for many years, neither were ever married. They were good neighbors and were highly respected. They will be greatly missed by their friends and neighbors.

The weather still continues dry and the farmers seem very greatly worried over the condition, but there seems to be no dearth of berries. Could one have been in Wallace Saturday and Monday they would have marveled at the string of vehicles of every description, containing loads of berries. They extended a half a mile or more on each side of the selling shed from morning until 9 P. M. The prices are good, averaging over $3.00. Extra fine to be present. More than 3,000 ones, $4.50. This is caused by the berries being dry and solid. If it had been a rainy expedite the pilgrimage to Dallas season prices would have been las. About 9,000 singing instructors will be in charge of the movement. Each child will be tagged showing his exact place in the huge Cotton Bowl, the athletic field of Southern Methodist University. A dozen tank wagons and scores of water carriers will provide refreshments to the singers while they are in mass formation.

CHORUS 50,000 VOICES TO SING AT EXPOSITION

Dallas, Texas, May 7.—Fifty thousand Texas school children, the greatest chorus ever assembled in America, will sing typical Southwestern songs in unison June 18 at the Texas Centennial Exposition.

The children will mobilize in Dallas from all parts of the Lone Star state. Some groups will travel more than 300 miles to be present. More than 3,000 buses and several special trains will be called into service to expedite the pilgrimage to Dallas. About 9,000 singing instructors will be in charge of the movement. Each child will

WALLACE, N. C.

No Wonder Everyone is Saying: "My next refrigerator will be KELVINATOR"

We, too, say the 1936 Kelvinator is a fine refrigerator. We like the way the company has answered the questions wise buyers ask—about temperatures, operating cost, and service.

It has answered with Visible Cold—a Built-In Thermometer shows you that your food is being kept surely, safely, dependably cold.

It has answered with Visible Economy—for not only does the new Kelvinator use one-half to one-third the current—but a Certificate of Low Cost of Operation shows you, in advance, that current consumption will be amazingly low.

It has answered with Visible Protection—for a 5-year Protection Plan gives you signed assurance of long years of service.

And the 1936 Kelvinator is a beautiful refrigerator . . . designed with the aid of Count Alexis de Sakhnofsky. Furthermore, it has dozens of conveniences to lighten the work of preparing meals.

So come in and see the new Kelvinator. It will pay for itself and the time is so well spent just seeing it!

you can have a Kelvinator for as little as 15¢ a day on sale at Hardware
