

Wanoca Announces Featured Dramas On Coming Program

"Fury", with Spencer Tracy playing the part of a man who is the innocent victim of mob rule, and with Sylvia Sydney as his girl friend, brings to the Wanoca Theatre what one critic says "is honest drama * * * It will make you suffer, it will make you think, it will keep you glued to your seat tense and strained, but it will leave you with an emotional satisfaction that only honest drama can cause. It's a picture that you cannot afford to miss".

It is the dramatic story of an innocent man who is the victim of mob violence; who is held in jail while an angry mob sets it on fire and by a miracle he escapes. Then he sets out for revenge!

"White Fang", Jack London's thrilling sequel to his great adventure story "Call of the Wild", opens with Michael Whalen and Jean Muir heading an exceptional cast that includes Slim Summerville, Charles Winninger, the original "Cap'n Henry" of radio fame, John Carradine, Jane Darwell and Thomas Beck.

What is heralded as one of the outstanding productions of the screen, "The White Angel", a picture portraying the life story of the immortal nurse, Florence Nightingale, opens at the Wanoca Theatre Thursday with Kay Francis in the stellar role.

The picture paints in fiery drama the fight of Florence Nightingale, a wealthy English society girl, to remedy conditions in army field hospitals and the neglect of dying soldiers. All the tragedy and pathos of the battlefield is pictured in the film, as well as the beauty of the life of sacrifices of Florence Nightingale and her specially picked nurses.

No more powerful nor romantic theme could have been selected than that of the life of the great nurse who gave her all to humanity by revolutionizing the hospitalization system of the world, and whose efforts laid the groundwork for the establishment of the Red Cross.

The picture is enacted by an exceptionally talented cast of principals, with more than one thousand persons in extra roles. Ian Hunter, famous on the London stage and in films, and Donald Woods have the two leading masculine roles.

ANNOUNCE TEACHERS INCREASE IN COUNTY

F. Grady high school, and another teacher will be added in the Kenansville, Beulaville, and Magnolia elementary schools.

The decreased allotment for colored schools in this county was adjudged an error, it was learned, and the State School Commission will be asked to investigate.

White schools in the county will employ 172 teachers, 46 in high school departments and 126 in elementary schools. Colored schools will operate with 108 teachers, 13 in high school and 95 in elementary.

schools. Last year colored schools in the county used 127 teachers.

White school allotments are as follows:

Kenansville, high school, four, elementary, 10; Warsaw, high school, five, elementary, 12; Faison, high school, three, elementary, eight; Calypso, high school, four, elementary, 12; B. F. Grady, high school, five; elementary, 16; Beulaville, high school, four, elementary, 22; Chinquapin, high school, four, elementary, 13; Wallace, high school, eight, elementary, 14; Rose Hill, high school, five, elementary, 10; Magnolia, high school, four, elementary, nine.

POLITICAL BATTLE

element had its reward, for three incumbents known to have been sometimes at odds with the Ehringhouse regime, met defeat.

While only 3,683 ballots were cast in the second primary gubernatorial contest by Duplin voters, 1,085 less than in the first primary, it is interesting to note the whereabouts of the majority of the much-contested Graham votes.—McDonald got 'em.

Hoey increased his vote in this county by only 295 for a total of 1919. Dr. McDonald, however, came up from 1331 to a total of 1764, making an increase of 433 votes.

Paul Grady, with 2977 votes, overwhelmed Horton, with 465 votes, in the Duplin balloting for the Lieutenant Governor contest. Duplin supporters also gave Thad Eure a commanding lead over Stacey W. Wade in the Secretary of State race, the final unofficial vote being, Eure, 2006; Wade, 1366.

TEACHEY SUFFERS DAMAGING STORM

barns. On at least two farms small tenant houses were destroyed by the wind while at Teachey proper several hundred dollars damage was done to the school building when the wind tore a section of the tin roof off. The hail was severe, crops being damaged considerably. The storm was accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain which brought some relief from the drought which has prevailed in this section since early in April.

Several other sections of Duplin and Pender Counties were visited by severe windstorms on the same night as that at Teachey and some hail was reported, but so far as could be learned, the Teachey section was the worst sufferer.

James S. Ficklen, Greenville, N. C., second vice president, and J. W. Dunninton, Farmville, third vice president.

The association authorized the employment of a full-time secretary and empowered the executive committee to revise dues accordingly.

Clark, who was elected an honorary member of the Association for life, declared in his annual address that while the export tobacco trade was suffering "temporarily" it was "obvious" that tobacco grown in the United States would maintain their position in the world's trade, because of consumer taste.

High prices and efforts of governments to become independent of other nations largely accounted for tobacco exports dropping lower than any year since 1915 during 1935, he said.

The association deferred action on a request of J. S. MacFayden and A. E. Dixon, representing Fayetteville, N. C., Clyde Austin, Greenville, for the establishment of a market there.

In announcing the market dates, officials said all would open with a full set of buyers.

B. D. Hill, Washington, of the Department of Commerce, Charles Gage, of the Department of Agriculture, and Duval Brown of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, were among those attending today's sessions.

A banquet tonight concluded the convention.

BONUS MONEY ASSERTS POSITION IN BUSINESS

Trade in a number of cities over the country has begun to feel the deferred effects of bonus money, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from leading trade centers. In San Francisco it was stated that June collections were better than for 5 years, sustaining somewhat the reports that considerable amount of bonus funds was going into the payment of old accounts. A survey of bonus spending in Birmingham indicated varying results. For example, one large department store, appealing to the industrial population, reported that June cash business increased 75 percent over a year ago. Another department store in the same city with a general merchandising appeal reported in the largest sales increase in June for any month survey of bonus spending in this year.
