

ROSE HILL COUPLE HAS WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Rose Hill, Oct. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Herring celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a lovely reception Tuesday evening, September 29. Mr. Herring is a son of the late W. B. Herring and Mrs. Elva Herring, of Mt. Olive, and Mrs. Herring is a daughter of the late W. B. Southerland and Mrs. Rachel Southerland of Rose Hill.

An artistic arrangement of southern smilax, cut flowers and ferns in the living room, the dining room, and the gift room made a beautiful setting for the reception. During the evening popular songs of 1911 were sung by Mrs. W. H. Hall and Mrs. Oscar Fussell, with Miss Verna Teachey accompanying on the piano. In the registration book, which was designed as a large silver bell and presided over by Mrs. B. G. Herring, there were approximately 100 names.

Mrs. John Bandy of Smithfield greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Herring were Rev. W. P. M. Currie, of Wallace, the officiating minister for the marriage ceremony in 1911; Mrs. Elva A. Herring, of Seven Springs, mother of Mrs. Herring; J. S. Herring, of Pink Hill; B. G. Herring, D. B. Herring, Mrs. I. W. Farris, Mrs. Royole Kornegay, of Mt. Olive, and Mrs. H. S. Johnson.

Guests were introduced by Mrs. Johnson to Mrs. J. M. Jerome, by whom they were given improvised silver bells as favors and ushered into the dining room which was lighted by the soft glow of white tapers. The dining room table, on which there was a lovely lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of white cut flowers and ferns, flanked by white toppers. Mrs. R. L. Carr, Miss Mattie L. Herring of Pink Hill, Rosa Farris and Mrs. Horace Fussell, assisted by little Misses Sallie and Ethel Herring and Dorothy Johnson, served cream in green and white colors, and hostess cakes.

As the guests entered the gift room they were greeted by Misses Verna Teachey, Annie Louise Herring, and Louise Whitfield, who served punch and presided over the display of lovely gifts. Good-byes were said by Mrs. B. S. Symons and Mrs. Scott Herring.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Royle Kornegay and Mrs. S. W. Chestnut, of Seven Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Waller, of Mt. Olive; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Southerland, Mr. and Mrs. John Wells, Miss Susie Southerland, Mrs. F. B. Hardee, of Wallace.

ROSE HILL WOMEN BUY FROM HOME MERCHANTS

Rose Hill, Oct. 6.—At the first fall meeting of the local woman's club Mrs. Vivian Wells of Kenansville, who is district chairman of gardens, was honor guest. The club was entertained in the home of Mrs. A. R. Bland, with Mrs. R. L. Carr and Mrs. L. W. Williams as assistant hostesses.

Program numbers were, a discussion, "The Perennial Border", by Mrs. Vivian Wells; a piano solo, "Mighty Lak a Rose", by Mrs. L. K. Alderman; a discussion, "The Care of Shrubs and Lawns", by C. J. Thomas, teacher of agriculture in the local school; vocal solo, "In the Garden of Tomorrow", by Mrs. W. H. Hall.

At this meeting the ladies wore dresses purchased from local merchants, this feature being a response to a request from the Rose Hill Boosters' club in emphasis of the "Buy-at Home" campaign. Mrs. D. B. Herring discussed the need of buying at home. Miss Ruth Murray, president of the Boosters' club, presented plans of the organizations.

During the social period the hostesses served lemonade and small cakes.

PREPARE FOR OPENING GREAT N. C. STATE FAIR

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—Gates to the 1936 edition of the Great State Fair will swing open Monday on one of the finest arrays of educational and entertainment features ever assembled in North Carolina.

Preparations for the annual event, which is expected to attract more than a quarter million visitors, have been completed and all is in readiness to present North Carolina on parade during six big days and nights ending October 17.

A new thrill every day is promised by Manager Norman Y. Chambless to the thousands of holidaying Tar Heels expected to turn the State Fair midway into a gladway.

The Fair will open Monday with a parade officially ushering in the exposition on Fayetteville Street at 4 o'clock.

Tuesday has been designated as Thrill Day, with Lucky Teter and his Hell Drivers presenting an exhibition of motorized daredevilry on the race track.

Horse races, featuring some of the nation's fastest runners, will feature the arena program Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Joe McGraw, official at the Friday will be the day for all North Carolina school children. They will be admitted to the grounds without charge, and thousands will accept this courtesy.

Professional auto racing, under the direction of AAA, will bring the country's best dirt-track drivers to the oval Saturday for a sizzling show of speed, nerve and thrills.

On Thursday, a half mile parade of prize-winning cattle will file before the grandstand giving visitors an opportunity to see the best that North Carolina produces in livestock.

On the midway of the State Fair will be Max Linderman's "World of Mirth", featuring 20 wholesome shows and 15 popular rides.

Fifteen novelty acts, bringing some of the best hippodrome talent in the world, will feature the grandstand program each afternoon and night. A colorful revue, "Revelations of 1936", will be presented each night—twice on Thursday and Friday—under the personal supervision of George A. Hamid, who recently returned from Europe on a tour for talent. A dazzling display of aerial fireworks will top off each evening's entertainment.

CAROLINIANS PAY HIGH FEES TO OPERATE CARS

Efforts are now being made throughout North Carolina to bring about a repeal of the Federal tax on gasoline and lubricating oils. Member of Oil Dealers Associations comprising every county in the State are now passing at meetings of their organizations resolutions appealing to Representatives in Congress to use their efforts and influence in having the duplicating Federal tax removed.

A recent report of the State Revenue Department shows that income from gasoline taxes, license fees and registration fees increased for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, nearly a million dollars over the income shown for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935. Users of motor vehicles paid $19,182,867.56 in gasoline taxes and $6,850,976.31 for license and title fees for the last fiscal year. The total sum paid to the State by motorists is 51.2 percent of all the tax income for North Carolina, although only one-seventh of the population of the State is represented as owning automobiles.

With the exception of Florida and Alabama, North Carolina motorists pay the highest tax average per vehicle in the United States—an average of $66.63 per vehicle; 44 percent higher than the average paid in the forty-eight states.

GRAHAM WILL DISCUSS STATE FAIR SATURDAY

The last in a series of broadcasts on the North Carolina State Fair will be made on the Carolina Farm Features program Saturday, October 10, when Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham will give a description of the exhibits to be seen.

The Fair, which opens October 12 in Raleigh, is expected to surpass all previous fairs in the number of agricultural exhibits displayed by the farm people of North Carolina. Cash prizes have been increased in practically all of the various departments.

High grade animals from all parts of the State will be in competition for prizes, as well as grains, vegetables and fruits. One of the outstanding departments at the Fair will be the 4-H division. Club boys and girls, working under the direction of L. R. Harrill and Miss Ruth Current, will submit exhibits and will compete with one another in judging contests.

The schedule includes, today, Miss Mamie Whisnant, "Making the House to Suit the Family"; Friday, H. C. Gauger, "Common Diseases of Poultry"; and Saturday, W. A. Graham, "The North Carolina State Fair."
