

Wanoca Promises Unusual Story On Coming Program

"Give Me Your Heart", a dynamic drama revealing the human emotions of love, passion, hate and sacrifice, comes to the Wanoca Theatre Monday with Kay Francis in the stellar role.

She is supported by a cast which includes George Brent and Roland Young.

The plot of the play is ultra-modern and startlingly daring, and although frank in treatment, is handled with the utmost good taste.

The story concerns the romance of an English girl with a nobleman married to a semi-invalid wife and their child is taken into the nobleman's family. The girl seeks forgetfulness in America, marries a fine business man whom she respects, but does not love.

Torn with mother love and the loss of her child, she seeks to drown her anguish in social gatherings, but an estrangement seems imminent, when a friend of both families comes to America, where the young nobleman, his wife and "their" son are visiting. He arranges a meeting of the two couples. This creates a situation so intense both parties are on the breaking point, but through the bigness of the nobleman's wife matters are smoothed out in one of the most tremendous climaxes ever filmed.

"My American Wife", a deft romance of a Count who marries a wealthy American girl and then sets out to become an Arizona rancher, despite the girl's social ambitions, co-stars Francis Lederer, European romantic screen favorite, and Ann Sothern.
