Fifty-one North Carolinians attended the National Farm Bu-reau Convention in Chicago, Illinois

The North Carolina delegation consisting of fifty-one members from all sections of the State are taking a very leading part in the peanut, tobacco and fruit and vegetable conferences at the National Farm Bureau Convention which is being held this week at the Sherman Hotel in Chicago, Illinois.

In the peanut conference, the North Carolina delegation reached a compromise with the Georgia delegation; and in a resolu-tion requested that the edible peanut allotment be protected at the conclusion of the present National emergency. The resolution provided for the freezing of all peanut quotas for a period of two years after the war, and insisted that farmers should have two parity prices for all peanuts being produced, regardless of whether they were going into the edible or oil trades.

This overlap will aid dealers in making deliveries of economical size and allow them more time to fill all consumer tanks at the end of a period. Fuel oil consumers are reminded that the number appearing on the coupon sheet must be written in ink on each coupon before it will be valid. Attention is called to the present value on the Class One Fuel Oil Coupon Sheet, which now is valued at ten gallons. This value is subject to change; and a newspaper announcement will notify consumers if such a change is made.
