VINSON-RIVENBARK

In a simple but impressive ceremony solemnized at 6:30 o'clock in the evening of December 18, in the Watha Methodist Church, Miss Rebecca Jane Rivenbark, of Watha, and James Franklin Vinson, Jr., of Goldsboro, were united in matrimony. The Rev. I. J. Strawbridge, pastor of the church, officiated using the ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. L. C. McKenzie of Wilmington, sister of the bride. Selections included "Indian Love Call," "The Rosary," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and "Serenade." "O Perfect Love" was used while the vows were spoken. The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were used. Mrs. McKenzie wore a dress of wine velvet with black accessories and a gardenia.

Long leaf pine formed the background at the altar. Four floor standards each bearing lighted cathedral candles were used on the altar. A large floor basket of white gladioli and fern was placed in front of the pulpit above which five tapers were lighted. Baskets containing white gladioli and fern were used on either side of the altar. The bride and bridegroom entered the church together unattended. The bride wore a two-piece dress of air corps blue crepe fashioned with high sweetheart neckline and bracelet length sleeves. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her hat was an off the face bonnet of navy and her accessories were navy. She wore a corsage of purple orchids at her shoulder.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling the bride changed to a three-piece suit of brown herringbone tweed with which she wore brown accessories. Her flower was an orchid. The couple are now at home in Watha.

Ushers were Oliver Pate of Watha and D. C. Rivenbark of Wilmington, brother of the bride. Mrs. Rivenbark, mother of the bride, wore a dress of black crepe with black accessories and she wore a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Vinson is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rivenbark of Watha. She attended Penderlea High School and Mrs. Mattis Secretarial School in Wilmington.

Mr. Vinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Vinson of near Goldsboro. He attended Rosewood School and is at present connected with the North Carolina Shipbuilding Company in Wilmington.

ENTERTAINED MUSIC CLUB

Little Mary Margaret Teachey entertained her music club at her home here last Friday night. Homer Boney, president had charge of the program. The life of Franz Schubert was given by Ruth Maulsby, Mary Ann Carter played "Evening Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel. A. J. Cavanaugh played "Spinning Song," by Albert Ellmewich; Evelyn Brown played "Serenade" by Franz Schubert; Mary Marguerite Teachey played Snow Flower, by Arthur L. Brown.

The program was concluded with the singing of Christmas carols. At the end of the program the children were invited into the dining room. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a miniature lighted Christmas tree, flanked on both sides with crystal candleabra containing red lighted candles. Ice cream, cookies, Christmas candy and nuts were served. Sixteen were present including some guests.
