ville. Miss Hilda Clontz, county home agent, of Kenansville, brought greetings from the Home Demonstration Clubs.

Reports par excellence were given by Mrs. E. L. Lanier, district president, who presided over the meeting, and president of the various clubs in the district.

Mrs. John D. Robinson of Wallace, chairman of the committee on veterans for the general federation, gave highlights of the Chicago convention.

An interesting feature of the program was two lovely choruses, "Hark, Hark the Lark," (Schubert-Bliss) and "Thank God for a Garden," (Theresa Del Riego) rendered by a group of Rose Hill women, accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Marshall, of Rose Hill.

After adjournment the ladies of the W.S.O.S. of the Methodist Church served a delicious luncheon in the church basement.
