Mesdames Williams and Smith Joint Hostesses At Reception

Mrs. Stokes Williams and Mrs. Colwell Smith charmingly entertained at the home of the former, Friday evening at eight o'clock with a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyce. Dr. Henry Carr greeted the guests at the door and invited them into the living room which was beautifully decorated with red and white gladioli and dahlias. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Herring presented them to the receiving line which was composed of the hostesses, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Smith, the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce, Rev. Ben F. Brown and Mr. Colwell Smith.

The guests were then invited into the gift room by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyd where many lovely gifts were on display and were shown by Mrs. Norwood Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Smith presided over the register.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore directed the guests into the dining room. The table was covered with a handsome white maderia cloth and centered with an artistic arrangement of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums with fern flanked by candelabra holding white tapers which graced the table ends. Mrs. Leonard Young and Mrs. Pearl Blanchard, seated at each end of the table served ice cream and Mesdames Edward Williams, Jack Kirkland, J. E. Pope, John Marks, Eugene Colwell and Jack Carr served pastel cakes and salted nuts.

Music was furnished during the evening by Mrs. W. H. Farrior, Mrs. Henry Carr and Mrs. Ralph Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lockamy said goodbyes to the one hundred guests that called during the evening.

Mrs. Caudell Gives Daughter Party

Mrs. Sarah B. Caudell entertained Friday afternoon, October 4, at her home with a party for her daughter, Sylvia's tenth birthday. Games were played on the lawn. Nancy Moore received a package of candy as prize for one game played, pinning the donkey's tail on.

A table was centered with a decorated birthday cake from which ice cream, cake, candy and chewing gum were served.

Sylvia received many nice gifts. Her mother presented her with a salad fork in her chosen pattern of silver.

Guests were: Deane, Jimmy and Ann Hundley, Katie Cooke, Anne and Edwin Pullen, Beth and Harriet Boone, June and Emily Potter, Harriet Liberman, Janis Jessup, Patricia Whaley, Patricia Carter, Georgia Smith, Jane Currie, Jean Bradshaw and Nancy Moore.

Atkinson-Smith Vows Spoken

Miss Christine Atkinson of Bennettsville, S. C., and Oscar F. Smith were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony in the Duke University Chapel at five o'clock Tuesday, October 1. The Rev. Robert DuBose officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The chapel was decorated with cathedral tapers and baskets of white chrysanthemums.

The organ program included "Because" and "O Promise Me" and the traditional wedding music was used. The couple entered together unattended, the bride wearing a suit of grey gabardine with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of purple orchids.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Franklin Atkinson of Bennettsville, and for the past several years has been connected with the B. and C. Railroad.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Smith of Wallace, attended the University of North Carolina and later served with the U. S. Navy for four years. He is now connected with the Boney Construction Co. of Norfolk, Va.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirkland of Wallace entertained the bride and groom and out-of-town guests with a wedding supper at the Washington Duke Hotel.

Following a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will be at home in Norfolk, Va.
