B. F. Grady PTA Met Recently

The B. F. Grady PTA met Monday night, Sept. 16, in the school auditorium. Mrs. Gustav Ulrich was in charge of devotionals. Mrs. Warren Maxwell, Pres., gave an interesting report of the PTA Conference held in Greensboro in June. She stated that Mr. Clyde Erwin in his address was very pessimistic concerning the existing teacher shortage and that he saw no chance for betterment of the situation for at least six years.

Mrs. Maxwell stressed the need for active PTA members.
 Mr. Hugh Wells, principal gave a very constructive talk concerning some of the problems confronting the school this year.

Mr. Wells announced that the lunch room opened on Thursday, Sept. 19.

The Financial Committee is at work on plans to meet financial problems of the school.
 Mrs. Jesse Outlaw is the Lunch Room Supervisor.

The Ag. Dept. made the tables and benches for the lunch room. A number of men came in for a "work period" on Monday night and constructed a Supply Room.

The new teachers were introduced by the principal.

Mrs. Butler's First Grade and Mrs. Grady's Fourth Grade had the largest number of parents in attendance.

During the social hour Mesdames Roland Smith, Dempsey Smith and Hess Davis served delicious refreshments.

A large number of parents, teachers and pupils attended the meeting.
