Mrs. Powers And Miss Watson Honored With "Going Away" Party

On Tuesday evening, March 13 neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Southerland on Main Street to enjoy a covered dish supper honoring Mrs. James Alderman Powers and Miss Martha Watson who were leaving Wallace to return to their old home in Riverton, near Wagram.

The home was thrown en suite and decorated with arrangement of spring flowers. Small tables centered with Easter baskets were placed in the living room and dining room. Upon their arrival, the honor guests were met by Mr. and Mrs. Southerland and then greeted by their other neighbors. Mrs. Powers and Miss Watson were presented lovely corsages.

The dining table was covered with good things to eat and all enjoyed an evening of fellowship together.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Powers and Miss Watson were given a book of remembrance with the signatures of the guests present.

Wallace Woman's Club Has Monthly Meeting

The Wallace Woman's Club met at the Community Building, Thursday evening, March 15. Mrs. D. L. Wells, Jr. president, presided over the business session. A committee of Mesdames Alexander Southerland, Bill Hussey, J. F. Branyon, Alvin Thompson and Wayne Jordan was designated to aid in the annual Red Cross Drive. Announcement was made that the picture, "Cancer Self Examination," had been booked for April 9th for all adult women. This picture is being made available to all North Carolina Clubs throughout the state. New club officers were announced. Mesdames R. M. Carr, president and Mrs. George Finch second vice president.

Mrs. L. B. Cavanaugh, chairman of the Welfare Department, then introduced Miss Charlotte Hodges, District Field Representative of Public Welfare, who gave an interesting and informative talk on service rendered by the Welfare Department.

From an attractively appointed table the club hostesses, Mesdames J. F. Powers, Alexander Southerland and J. E. Pope, served refreshing punch, cookies and dainty sweets.
