Needlecraft Exchange Opens at The Yarn Shop

Believing that those who enjoy needlework should reap profit as well as pleasure from their enterprise, Mrs. Harris Lewis, owner and operator of The Yarn Shop, 1508 Shackleford avenue, has begun a Needlecraft Exchange.

Members of the Needlecraft Exchange will have the privilege of displaying their handiwork for sale at The Yarn Shop. They will price their own work and the selling of it will be up to Mrs. Lewis.

For her services she will make a small charge, which will be paid annually.

Mrs. Lewis points out for those who enjoy embroidering, knitting, crocheting, or other crafts of that type, money can be made now to spend on Christmas gifts. Also the finished products that will be on sale in her shop will make unique and attractive gifts themselves.

Further information on the Needlecraft Exchange can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Lewis.
