COURT

noon recess of court that he must return One indictment against Adams read public drunkenness, resisting arrest and using profane language. Two others were for giving a bad check and stealing fish. A bench warrant was issued for Adams and his case continued.

Abandonment and non-support charges against Jethro Barefoot were settled out of court but approved by the court upon payment of costs. The defendant agreed to contribute $10 a week for the support of a minor child until further orders of the court.

In two public drunkenness cases, Willie Stewart was fined costs, and P. H. Taylor received a nol pros with leave ruling.

Nol pros with leave was also ruled in the case of Tom West, charged with larceny of two fox and deer hounds. J. B. Taylor and J. P. Taylor were indicted along with Robert Adams for stealing $10 worth of fish from a fish market. Their cases were continued.

The following cases of speeding received judgment: Samuel Erwin speeding 80 miles per hour, $25 and costs, and Charles C. Schwartz $10 and costs. Speeding cases not heard were Glen B. Ritchey, nol pros with leave; Douglas Lawrence and Simon Jack Foss, bonds forfeited; and Ernest Reginald Allsbrook, continued.

Wilbur Roscoe Boone was sentenced to pay $200 and costs or serve six months on the road for driving after his driver's license had been revoked for a conviction of drunken driving.

The following were ordered to pay costs for driving without a driver's license: John Henry Daugherty, Gene Neilson, J. W. Evans, Stacy M. Davis and Harold Daniels. Driver's license cases were continued for Dover Pittman Lawrence and John H. Campbell. Fines of $100 and costs were imposed on Ellis Fausel Reid and Robert Powell for drunken driving. J. B. Taylor, also charged with drunken driving, was fined $50 after his attorney entered a special plea that he be sentenced on a charge of reckless driving only.

Nol pros with leave was ruled in the cases of Mike A. Mason and Joe Teel, Jr., who figured in accidents. Mason was charged with failure to give a left hand signal causing a wreck, and the charge against Teel was passing another vehicle causing a wreck.

Judgments were as follows in minor motor vehicle law violations: driving with improper lights Guy Roosevelt Pritchett and Rev. Millard Maynard, costs; failure to have their cars inspected, Iner Joseph Lawrence, half costs, and Ira Pake, costs; improper brakes, Rev. Woodrow D. Caviness and David W. Clement, half costs.

Cases of minor traffic law in fractions not heard were the following: John Bunch, continued; Whitt Alexander Cutthins, bond forfeited; Thomas Wright Harris nol pros with leave.

Robert Lewis and C. L. Grover made charges against each other which were settled as malicious prosecution in the office of the clerk of court. The prosecuting witness in each case was fined half of court costs.

Recorder's court will not be held on Nov. 2, election day, but will convene again on Nov. 9.

The cornerstone of the Washington Monument in Washington, D. C. was suspended in 1854 when the shaft was 150 feet high and was not resumed until 1880.

City, chairman of the courtesy committee, following the afternoon session, read in rhyme an account of the day's activities.

Parts of this report, written by Mrs. Eure, follows: "Thanks to all who have welcomed us here. You've done your part for the District this year. Your building is pretty and comfortable, too. So we say thanks to you and you and you . . ."

The president's reports show they are doing their part

So accept our thanks from the bottom of our heart . . . "United for Youth" is our theme. Let's make this more than a dream. For we can build peace—this way. Let us begin, now, here, this day.

So to all officers, old and new, who have with us their knowledge shared. For youth we are indeed grateful that you cared; Under such leadership we can't help but go far. So thanks for hitching "Our Wagon to a Star."

termined by a majority of votes actually cast.

Morehead City township voters will receive a ballot containing only one name.

Hubert Fulcher is seeking the office of constable. He is, however, opposed by Charlie Krouse who is seeking election by write-in votes.

Morehead City township includes the following precincts: Morehead City, Wildwood, Broad Creek and Salter Path.

tra, many of whom never heard a symphony before. Others were going back for the second or third time, repeating the experience with an added sense of enjoyment.

Kangaroo meat is considered delicacy by Australian natives.
