Health Office Plans TB Meeting Friday, Jan. 10

Group Will Discuss Mass X-Ray, State Field Director to Attend

A county-wide meeting to explain the proposed mass X-ray of residents in Carteret county will be held at 7 o'clock Friday night, Jan. 7, in the court house, Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, health officer, has announced.

Attending this meeting will be leaders from the communities throughout the county and Miss Lulabelle Highsmith, field director in mass X-ray work.

Stanley Woodland, president of the Carteret County Tuberculosis association, Mrs. Martha Loftin, secretary, and Wiley Taylor, Jr., chairman of the tuberculosis seal sale, will be present. Between 100 and 200 persons are expected, Dr. Ennett commented.

"This is the most important meeting in connection with the mass X-ray program," he said. Funds received from the seal sale will be used to finance the visit of the mobile X-ray unit here.

In connection with the program, Dr. W. A. Smith, director of the tuberculosis division, state board of health, will speak to doctors of the county at the January meeting of the Carteret County Medical society, Monday, Jan. 10.

Rotarians Give Party For Wives

Beaufort Rotarians entertained their wives at a Christmas party Tuesday night at the Inlet Inn.

A turkey dinner was served on tables decorated with miniature Christmas trees and red candles. A large Christmas tree was put up in the dining room by the decoration committee, headed by R. M. Williams.

Dr. N. Thomas Ennett gave the address of welcome to which Mrs. T. R. Jenkins responded. The Rev. W. Y. Stewart humorously described Rotary organization, the Rev. Winfrey Davis read a portion of scripture and the Rev. T. R. Jenkins, program chairman, gave a short talk on the meaning of Christmas.

Mr. Jenkins conducted games and stunts, one in which Jack Oakley, John Steed, and James Davis selected "mamas." Mrs. John Steed, Mrs. C. E. Paden, and Mrs. William Martin. The mothers "dressed" their "sons" and then fed them milk out of a bottle.

The men received mechanical pencils as favors and the women were presented with boxes of candy.

The dinner menu consisted of grapefruit, turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, peas, cranberry sauce, rolls, fruit salad, ice cream in Christmas tree molds, and coffee. Guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. Stamey Davis, Morehead City.

Youngsters to Receive Treat Christmas Eve

Beaufort youngsters will receive a treat from Santa Claus at 6:30 tonight, Christmas Eve, on the court house lawn beneath the big Christmas tree which has been decorated by the fire department.

Three Beaufort pastors will be at the gathering, the Rev. W. L. Martin, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. T. R. Jenkins, pastor of Ann Street Methodist church, and the Rev. Winfrey Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Grayden Paul will lead the youngsters and their parents in singing Christmas carols. The program is being sponsored by the Beaufort fire department which has also collected second hand toys and repaired them for distribution to kiddies on Christmas day.

By Thomas H. Carrow

I see by the NEWS-TIMES that five thousand jammed Front Street in Beaufort, Wednesday, December 9th to welcome good old St. Nick. I also notice he arrived on the bow of a yacht provided by the Coast Guard. God save the mark! Dear old Nick discarding his reindeer and travelling by water. It just proves that even Santa Claus has to keep up to date. With the post-card headache (I mean for the P. O.), anybody that hasn't got fifty or a hundred on their mailing list is passe.

But they say they aren't doing so well. Colors are too loud or don't blend or something and you can spot 'em right off. They usually scream. Handkerchiefs are still on the list, but as a gift they are mighty thin and hard for the recipient to show much enthusiasm over. However, there is no falling off in the number of things suitable and acceptable to the children. Bicycles, velocipedes, trains, cowboy suits, games, guns and gimcracks are available, for say, twenty-five to fifty dollars. Lollypops, stick-candy, raisins and an orange or an apple don't fill the bill anymore.

Kids have outgrown trifles. Their wants have to be satisfied, no matter what. Why should kids wait till maturity to capitalize on mass production, anyway?

Many Children's Parties To Take Place Friday

Although many churches observed Christmas with special services and music programs last Sunday, there will be worship services also on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

A candlelight holy communion will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Beaufort, at 11:30 Christmas Eve and there will also be holy communion at 11 o'clock Christmas morning.

The holy communion will be celebrated again at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, Dec. 26. Church school will be at the regular hour, 9:30 a.m., morning prayer and sermon at 11 a.m. and the Young People's service league at 7:30.

There will be special church decorations in green and white for the Christmas services which will be put up by the Star Guild, Mrs. Claude Wheatly, Sr., in charge. Services at St. Egbert's.

The Joyous Feast of Christmas will be ushered in at Saint Egbert's Catholic church, 17th and Evans streets, Morehead City, with a high mass at midnight Christmas Eve. Father Elmer J. Landser, T. O. R. pastor, will be the celebrant of the mass and preach an appropriate Nativity sermon during Mass. Elias Mualen and Leon Mualen will assist during the Mass as Acolytes.

The choir, under the direction of L. E. M. Patrias, will sing the Gregorian music taken from the Vatican Edition of the "Missa de Angelis." The choir is composed of Mrs. McDeed, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Woodland, Miss Mualen, Mr. Onorio and Mr. Ryan. Miss Wheaton will be at the organ.

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will follow immediately after the Mass. There will be two low masses on Christmas Day; the first at 9 in the morning and the second at 11 in the morning.

Frank Onorio, chairman of the ushers committee has appointed the following to serve as ushers: L. C. M. Canan, Mr. Mualen, Mr. Cantelli and Mr. Hatton.

Decorations of the altar and construction of the Crib is under the direction of Mr. Minatel, Mr. Hardy, and Mr. Zajac.

Christmas confessions will be heard on Friday night between 7 and 8 o'clock.

First Methodist, Morehead City. The children's Christmas party will be held at 7 o'clock Friday night, Christmas Eve, in the First Methodist church, Morehead City. The regular Sunday program will be followed on the day after Christmas. All Methodist churches are observing "Student Recognition Day" when college students are especially invited to attend the 11 o'clock services.

Free Will Baptist churches. The Free Will Baptist church, Morehead City, the Rev. J. C. Griffin, pastor, will have its Christmas exercises Friday night and light its Christmas tree.

County Donates Six Tons Food To Europeans

B. J. May, Chairman of CROP Committee, Gratiified With Results

Six tons of stuffs valued at three thousand dollars, and $232 in cash are the net results of the Christian Rural Overseas program in Carteret county.

The food was shipped Tuesday morning and the cash has been sent to CROP headquarters at Raleigh where it will be used to purchase more food at wholesale prices for shipment overseas.

B. J. May, chairman of CROP, expressed his thanks to all who cooperated in the food collection at the box car dedication service at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the S. M. Jones warehouse, Beaufort.

The CROP committee was extremely gratified with the results and owe the success of the program to the churches throughout the county, the schools, and others who donated money or foodstuffs.

Speaker at the box car dedication service was Stanley Woodland, Morehead City, who described the conditions of starving persons in Europe.

"Existing on a diet of 1500 calories daily," he remarked, "is not enough to live on, but just too much to die on. Lack of food causes widespread disease, people shun responsibility and make it easy for political isms to catch hold," he explained.

"A starving Europe is a dangerous Europe," the speaker warned. He concluded his talk with words of dedication.

Miss Ruth Peeling, chairman of the food collections in Morehead City, expressed her thanks to those who helped make the program a success. James Wallace, member of the publicity committee, spoke briefly, and the Rev. W. D. Caviness, pastor of Franklin Memorial Methodist church, Morehead City, and secretary of the county CROP committee, read a letter from Germany which expressed thanks for food and medicine which has been sent there this year.

The invocation at the dedication service was given by the Rev. W. L. Martin, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Beaufort, and chairman of the Beaufort food collections. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. L. A. Tilley, minister of First Methodist church, Morehead City.

Volunteers who helped pack food at the warehouse over the week-end were Thomas Eare, Clifford Lynch, J. H. May, Miss Mabel Canady, R. M. Williams, and students of Beaufort school.

New CPA Office To Open Dec. 28

A certified public accountant's office in Morehead City will open Tuesday, Dec. 28, in the Wade office building, Morehead City, by Albert C. Gaskill, originally of Beaufort, and Frank C. Sprull.

Babson's Forecast for '49 to Appear Dec. 31; Columnist to Summarize County's '48 Events

Roger W. Babson's Business and Financial Outlook for 1949 will appear in the Carteret County NEWS-TIMES Friday, Dec. 31.

Mr. Babson, a pioneer in the field of business and financial statistics enjoys a remarkable record for accuracy in his annual forecasts. His score for 1948 was 91 per cent correct.

On Jan. 1, 1948 Babson was the only commentator who dared to predict: (1) That there would be no World War III in 1948; (2) That "due to the bungling of the price controversy Mr. Truman has a fair chance of re-election;" (3) That the Dow-Jones industrial averages would fluctuate between an upper ceiling of around 185 and a floor of around 165, and that commodity speculation would be curbed.

Born in 1875, reared in an old-fashioned atmosphere of hard work and hustle on a farm in Gloucester, Mr. Babson went to the
