NEWS-TIMES OFFICES Beaufort 120 Craven St. - Ph me 4481 Morehead City

38th YEAR, NO. 92

MOREHEAD CITY AND BEAUFORT, NORTH CAROLINA,

Christmas Party

Wednesday, Dec. 21

Theater To Give Show Luther Lewis, chairman of the

Jaycee Christmas activities com-mittee, announced that the City

Theatre has agreed to give a free cartoon show the morning of the 21st, restaurant owners will feed the children and after lunch they will be guests at a Christmas party in the Carteret Recreation center.

, On Saturday, Dec. 3, at 9:30 a. m., a Christmas movie will be shown at the City theatre to collect toys to be given to children at the party on the 21st. Any child bring-

For Children

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1949

Jaycees to Give Jacob Miller Dies at Aberdeen

Aberdeen the first of September this year and operated it the past

Coroner Hugh Kelly of Moore county, in which Aberdeen is lo-cated, told THE NEWS-TIMES by telephone Tuesday that the shoot-ing which took place at 10 a.m.

Monday, was witnessed by a wo-man nearby, who immediately no-two months.

tified police.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Eight Pages Color Comics

Churches Observe Thanksgiving

Morehead City Congregations Combine; Beaufort Services Scheduled

Beaufort and Morehead City hurches will conduct special Thanksgiving services.

The integrations of Morehead City will unite for a service at 8:30 Thanksgiving morning in the audit orjum of the high school. The combined choirs will be under the direction of Ralph Wade and the Rev. Priestly Convers will preach. Other pastors will assist in the ser-

The union service last year was held in the Franklin Mem-orial Methodist church, but beuse of the large crowds was insferred this year to the school auditorium.

At 9 a.m. members of Ann Street Methodist church. Beaufort, will gather for Thanksgiving worship and at 10 a.m. there will be a ser-vice in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Beaufort.

A 10-day revival is in progress in the First Baptist church, Beaufort, conducted by the Rev. J. Clyde Yates of Charlotte. The service Thanksgiving night will begin at 7 p.m. as usual. The revival will end next Wednesday night.

29 Attend Eye Clinic Tuesday

Firemen Answer

Call to A and P

100

Boat Will Bring Santa Into Beaufort Dec. 7

Clinic Tuesday Twenty-nine children attended the eye clinic conducted by the health department Tuesday. Glass-es were prescribed for 27, five of whom require operations also. One child was treated medically but norglasses prescribed, and none

There was a definite smell about the business Beaufort. Chamber of Commerce Manager Dan Walker was planning this week, as smelly as a skunk, in fact. Recently Charlie Parker, head of be State Num Burgan in Palarb the State News Bureau in Raleigh, had a request from a New Yorker who wanted to huy a skunk or two.

smoke, there's fire" fortunately proved erroneous Tuesday night, school sports curriculum by next

Opening night of the side-split-ting theatrical is set for Friday, Dec. 2, at 8 p.m.

The old adage, "Where there's more there's fire" fortunately more who might be able to fill the order. I all of plant to determine the state in an effort to locate someone who might be able to fill the order. I all of plant to the state in an effort to locate someone who might be able to fill the order.

COUNTY NEWSTIM

Jacob Miller

Newspaper Ads

Aid Salesman In Winning Cuba Trip Jack Whitley of Greenville, Car-

Floor Show Will

Highlight Dance

tern Star, No. 128, Franklin Lodge 109 AF & AM. Scottish Rites of New Bern, Sudan Temple, and the Beaufort - Morehead City Elks club. He is survived by his brother. Meyer, and two nieces.

Unsealed Christmas Cards

Charges Send Stained Glass Windows Two to Prison Given to St. Paul's Church Three stained glass windows are being placed over the front entrance to St. Paul's Episcopal church by Mrs. C. R. Wheatly, David Bell, Thelma Mumford, Negroes, Found Beaufort, in memory of her hus Guilty Tuesday . band. One of the windows depicts

David Bell, Morehead City Ne-gro, was found guilty of operating St. Peter, the other St. Paul, and the third, Jesus. a house for the purpose of pros-titution and sentenced to one year on the roads in Tuesday's session Work on installation of the stained glass was begun about a week ago and the Rev. W. L. of recorder's court in Beaufort Martin, rector, said it would be completed within several days, court house. Bell was also found guilty of The George L. Payne company assault on a female and threaten-ed assault with a deadly weapon Patterson, N. J., is putting in the and sentenced to six months on the roads. This sentence was suspend-ed on condition he pay a $25 fine and the costs of court.

Gets One Year

Gets One Year Thelma Mumford, Morehead City Negro, was found guilty of being a prostitute and sentenced to one year in the Women's Prison, Raleigh. A similar sentence of one year passed on May 25, 1948 but suspended on five years good behavior was invoked, the two sen-tences to run concurrently.

Bennie Lewis was found guilty of non-support and sentenced to one year on the roads. Sentence was suspended on condition that he pay the costs of court and contrib-ute $5 a week to his wife toward the support of his minor child. Leslie David Norris pleaded guilty to the transportation of non-tax paid whisky and was fined $25 and the costs. McVernon Garner pleaded guilty to giving a bad check and was fined the costs and required to make payment on the check. Case Dismissed The charge of abandonment and non-support against Leslie Fulford was heard and dismissed. A judge-ment of frivolous and malicious prosecution was delivered in the case of William Godette, charged with assaulting a female, his wife, and the prosecuting witness was taxed with costs. The prosecuting witness in the case of Alvin Taylor charged with trespass, was required to pay one half the costs when Judge Lambert Morris ruled malicious prosecutio Pleads Guilty Charlie E. Cleveland pleaded to

The bonds of John Dailey, Ralph D. Robbins and Fred J. Hare, all charged with speeding, were for-feited when they failed to appear court. Charles R. Chapman

LATE BULLETIN Darius Ballou's barn, just west of Morehead City burned at 7:30 Wednesday night, Morehead City firemen were called but it was reported that the barn was a to-tal loss.

Charles R. Chapman pleaded guilty to driving without a license and with insufficient brakes and was fined the costs. The costs were levied on Moses Smith, charged with driving without a license, and Daniel J. Kubrak, charged with driving with insufficient brakes, each pleaded guilty. Eighteen cases were continued. The defendants are Theodore J. Le-maire, Harold E. Peterson, Daniel Mailchok, Jr., Virginia Z. Stiles, Charlie Fonville, Hazel S. Garner, H. H. Holloman, Frank Fairington.

pleaded

ted, he found a sealed letter ready to mail to Mr. Miller's brother, Meyer, of Wilmington, in which Mr. Miller told his brother how his estate should be administered. The windows.

The coroner said that Mr. Miller shot himself in the right temple with a .38 calibre pistol while standing on the steps at the rear of his store. In Morehead City On his body, the coroner repor

A Pontiac automobile driven by Delphin D. Price, Crisfield, Md received $175 damages to its left side Monday afternoon at 5:25 when it was struck at the corner of 6th

Two Cars Crash

