RADIO PROGRAM — Congratulations, girls, for a very nice radio program Saturday. Those who didn't hear Libby Bell announcer; Nancy Russell, pianist; Marie Webb, soloist; and Connie Lewis, reader, missed a real treat. Some of the other girls who were supposed to help out, lost their voices with Friday's night's game. Can't blame them for shouting over a game like that. Listen to the Morehead Teen-Age club this Saturday at 9:30.

BIRTHDAY PARTY — The Scout building was beautifully decorated, Valentine style, Monday night for Ellen and Ann Norcom, who celebrated their 16th birthday. Everyone had such a wonderful time that some of the kids carried the party to the Norcom home. Mom and Pop Norcom enjoyed the party as much as the kids.

LITTLE SYMPHONY — Little Symphony on Tuesday night at the Beaufort High School Auditorium gave a wonderful performance. Carteret County should be proud that we have the opportunity to have that type of music, and more than anything else that we are the proud "owner" of so talented Bobby Morris of Atlantic. Selling tickets for Little Symphony would be an easy task. But, I wonder if it is???

FEBRUARY PARTY — This Saturday there will be a Valentine party at the Teen-Age Club. The mothers who are entertaining us will be announced in next week's article. Smyrna Teen-Age boys and girls have been invited to attend.

TALENT SHOW — On Monday night, Feb. 20, the Teen-Age Club of Morehead City will present a talent show to parents and the public. This will be a benefit show and the proceeds will go to maintenance of the Recreational Center. Admission: 35c adults; 25c Teen-Agers. Some of the Teen-Agers of Beaufort have already offered to take part in the show. If there are others, please call me 572-6 and I will turn your name in to Mrs. Sampson. Calls will be accepted as late as Monday.

INVITATION TO MOREHEAD CLUB — On Saturday night, Feb. 25, the Beaufort Teen-Agers are invited over to the Morehead Teen-Age Club. New Bern Teen-Agers are also invited and will have transportation on their own buses. There will be no charges to invited Teen-Agers. Refreshments will be served. Beaufort Club plans to have cars available for those who wish to accept this invitation. We will leave from the Club about 8:30, this will give ample time for those boys who are working, to get to the party. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Sampson and the Morehead Teen-Agers for this invitation. I know we will have a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Steed attended an oyster roast and barbecue given by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Topping at Belhaven Wednesday evening.

Miss Audrey Gaylor of Pink Hill spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Steed.

Charles Davis, Robert Lee Humber, and Robert Lee Humber, Jr., all of Greenville, spent Wednesday here.

Mrs. Joe House is still ill at her home.

Mrs. J. S. Steed will return today from a short visit in Greenville.

Lt. Robert Hill flew down from Virginia Beach Wednesday to visit his brother, Dave Hill, who is recuperating at his home.

George Brooks is expected to return today from a trip to Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Piner arrived today to visit Mrs. Vernon Lewis in Marshallberg. Mr. Piner was retired from the Coast Guard service on Jan. 31.

Court

had his case bound over to superior court under $50 bond.

A suspended sentence of six months on the roads was given to William Fulford for reckless and careless driving and speeding 90 miles an hour. Sentence was suspended on payment of $50 and costs.

Norman O. Hill, charged with speeding and reckless and careless driving was fined $25 and costs. James Powell pleaded guilty to giving a bad check and was fined one-half the costs and required to make the check good.

Pays $10 and Costs

Six persons were charged with speeding. Four of them, Hallis W. Lawrence, Tilton Lawrence, Harold D. Alexius and Grady C. Beacham, failed to appear in court and had their bonds forfeited.

Kell-Crozier
Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Crozier of Rutherford, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Agnes Marie, to Copeland Kell, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Copeland Kell of Manassquan, N. J.

Miss Crozier is a senior at New Jersey college for Women and Mr. Kell is a senior at Rutgers university. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. Kell lived in Beaufort for several years, and attended St. Paul's school.

Mrs. Batson Honored At Surprise Party
Mrs. Ray Garner of Beaufort and Mrs. Hamlin Salter of Crab Point entertained at a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Garner on Pivers Island to honor Mrs. Harold Batson, sister of Mrs. Salter.

The Valentine motif was used in decorations throughout the house and the refreshments were cakes, cup cakes decorated with Valentines and Valentine candy. Games were played with prizes being given the winners.

Mrs. Batson received many lovely gifts from the thirty guests.

Mrs. Wheatley Hostess To Bridge Club Tuesday
Mrs. Albert Chappell was special guest Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. James Wheatley entertained her bridge club.

High score prize, a box of Valentine candy, was won by Mrs. James Potter, III.
At the end of the play Mrs. Wheatley served ginger bread with whipped cream, nuts and coffee.

Daughter Born
Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Marshall, 211 E. Capitola ave., Kinston, announce the birth of a daughter Mary Elizabeth, on Tuesday, Feb. 7. Mr. Marshall formerly lived in Beaufort.

The Rev. and Mrs. Winfrey Davis returned Saturday from a trip to Wilmington and Tabor City. While away Mrs. Davis visited a camellia show in Darlington, S. C. and gardens in Darlington and Timmonsville, S. C.

Four Appear In Court
Four men were charged with public drunkenness Monday afternoon in mayor's court, Beaufort. Alfred Bierman, Jr., pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $17. Willie Moore, colored, paid $5 and costs; Willie Fulford, colored, was sentenced to work 10 days on the town streets; and William Chadwick, colored, was fined $9.50.

CAP Dance Scheduled
Prospective members of the Civilian Air Patrol and the public are invited to the Channel club for a dance Saturday night. CAP applications, pictures, and fingerprints will be taken in order to fulfill requirements for the CAP charter.

Parker B. Whitman pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Pete C. Paulsen was fined the costs when he pleaded guilty. Willie E. Bartlett and Uzell Lewis were fined one-half the costs each when they pleaded guilty to driving without a valid license plate on a trailer. Prosecution was withheld in the case of Goine Johnson, charged with driving with improper brakes.

Twelve cases were continued. The defendants, Theodore J. Le-maire, Rebecca Jones, Robert G. Bell, Lemuel D. Golden, Geraldine Barker, Willie Motley, Lovie Davis and Alice Lassiter, alias Alice Davis, Thomas H. Riley, James W. Chartier, Samuel T. Tracy, Jr., Ed-die Collins and Horace D. Taylor.
