

Weepy Defendant To Serve Year's Sentence on Roads

Broad Creek Man Found Guilty of Two Assault Charges

A weeping defendant was sentenced to a year on the roads in recorder's court Tuesday at Beaufort.
Benny Taylor of Broad Creek, a man in his early twenties, received two sentences, a year each, to run concurrently. He pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon on B. A. Lewis and pleaded guilty also to assault with a knife on Mrs. Hollie Golden, with intent to kill. The two attacks allegedly took place on Tuesday, May 2.

Broke Suspension Terms

Judge Lambert R. Morris also pointed out that Taylor, who broke down and wept throughout the trial, failed to comply with terms under a suspended sentence given him Oct. 28, 1947.
Manley Garner, charged with assault and using loud, boisterous, profane language and with putting the affiant in fear of his life, requested a jury trial. He was bound over to superior court under $500 bond.

Found Guilty

Julian Carl Gilbert was found guilty of careless and reckless driving and paid $10 and costs.
In two cases the judge ruled malicious prosecution and the plaintiff was charged with court costs. These were cases against Calvin Newark, charged with assault, and against William Godette, charged with assault on his wife.

Atlantic School Principal Resigns

Thomas Hood, principal at Atlantic school, has submitted his resignation to the Atlantic school board of trustees.
Mr. Hood served as principal at Smyrna two years before going to Atlantic in the fall of 1949.

Beaufort Building Inspector Reports on April Projects

New buildings, repairs and alterations to buildings in Beaufort during April cost an estimated $12,330, Gerald Woolard, building inspector, reported this week.
Dr. Luther Fulcher was granted a permit to build a new office building on Front st. at an estimated cost of $8,700. A permit was also issued to Joe House Drug store to alter the front of the building at an estimated cost of $2,500.

Atlantic 4-H Club Meets For Final 1950 Session

The Atlantic 4-H club held their last meeting for the school year in the auditorium of Atlantic high school, Monday, May 8.
Our president, Lillian Marie Morris, called the meeting to order. We sang our opening song after which we had our pledge, devotional and poem.

Five Buildings Condemned

Mr. Woolard reported that three of five condemned buildings have been torn down. The three which have been destroyed were the dwelling owned by Sam Morgan, New Bern, at 210 Fulford st., Quick Lunch building owned by Nathaniel Davis, 407 Queen st., and the dwelling owned by Mrs. Jesse Duffly, New Bern, 311 Pollock st.

Landmark Will Go

Everett Enterprises has agreed to tear down the old theater. Its going will mark the passage of an old Beaufort landmark. Razing operations should have started this week on the Legion building, Mr. Woolard said.
The building inspector explained that condemned buildings are

Rear Admiral to Address Medical Meeting May 24

Firemen's Radio Features 'On-The-Scene' Blaze

The only fire Morehead City firemen handled recently was one at the fire station Wednesday afternoon. The firemen's new $300 radio burnt up.
They were listening to it and when big clouds of black smoke started to pour out, they decided to pull out the plug and go back to reading their comic books.

County Board Draws 80 Names For Jury Service

Eighty jurors were drawn by the county board Monday for the two week term of June superior court in Carteret county.
They are as follows (listed by communities): Beaufort, Roy Eubanks, Mrs. Deaver Mades, A. B. Hooper, T. L. Willis (RFD), James W. Taylor (RFD), Alex. Pruitt, North M. Sabiston, S. A. Beachem (RFD), William Gillikin (RFD), Harry Gillikin, H. T. Rhue, George Loughton, Neal Campen, A. B. Lewis, Uzzell Lewis, all of route 1, Walter P. Arthur, Mrs. Bessie Lee Rumbly.

Leo Simpson Seeks Sheriff's Office

Leo F. Simpson, Morehead City, is running for the office of sheriff, to serve a four-year term.
Mr. Simpson, who was born at Bettie, has lived in Carteret county 32 years. He is living now in Morehead City with his wife and three children. Mrs. Simpson is the former Hilda Sabiston of Core Creek. Their children are Leo, jr., 12, Jackie, 10, and Zelma, 7.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Beaufort Jaycees To Hear Address On Social Security

Bids Will Be Invited On Morehead Port Soon

Col. G. W. Gillette, director of the North Carolina State Ports authority, announced this week that bids on the Morehead City port construction work will probably be invited within the next four or five weeks.
Bids were opened Tuesday on the construction proposed at Wilmington. The lowest was submitted by Diamond Construction Co., Washington, D. C., which quoted $1,926,416 on construction of a reinforced concrete wharf, steel piling bulkhead, and railroad trestle. A total of 14 bids was made.

4-H Club Members Will Observe 4-H Sunday May 14

North Carolina's more than 123,000 4-H club members will use the theme "For a Better Rural Community" in their annual observance of 4-H Church Sunday on May 14, according to L. R. Barrill, 4-H leader for the State College Extension service.
A suggested program outline prepared by the Rev. Garland Hendrix, pastor of Olive Chapel church of Wake county, will be used by many of the clubs. This includes special music, Scripture reading and prayer by 4-H members, and a talk by the pastor or four-five minute talks by club members on the factors which make a better community.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Car Upsets, Two Girls Injured

Bids Will Be Invited On Morehead Port Soon

Col. G. W. Gillette, director of the North Carolina State Ports authority, announced this week that bids on the Morehead City port construction work will probably be invited within the next four or five weeks.
Bids were opened Tuesday on the construction proposed at Wilmington. The lowest was submitted by Diamond Construction Co., Washington, D. C., which quoted $1,926,416 on construction of a reinforced concrete wharf, steel piling bulkhead, and railroad trestle. A total of 14 bids was made.

4-H Club Members Will Observe 4-H Sunday May 14

North Carolina's more than 123,000 4-H club members will use the theme "For a Better Rural Community" in their annual observance of 4-H Church Sunday on May 14, according to L. R. Barrill, 4-H leader for the State College Extension service.
A suggested program outline prepared by the Rev. Garland Hendrix, pastor of Olive Chapel church of Wake county, will be used by many of the clubs. This includes special music, Scripture reading and prayer by 4-H members, and a talk by the pastor or four-five minute talks by club members on the factors which make a better community.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Veterans Planning On Summer School Should Apply Now

Bids Will Be Invited On Morehead Port Soon

Col. G. W. Gillette, director of the North Carolina State Ports authority, announced this week that bids on the Morehead City port construction work will probably be invited within the next four or five weeks.
Bids were opened Tuesday on the construction proposed at Wilmington. The lowest was submitted by Diamond Construction Co., Washington, D. C., which quoted $1,926,416 on construction of a reinforced concrete wharf, steel piling bulkhead, and railroad trestle. A total of 14 bids was made.

4-H Club Members Will Observe 4-H Sunday May 14

North Carolina's more than 123,000 4-H club members will use the theme "For a Better Rural Community" in their annual observance of 4-H Church Sunday on May 14, according to L. R. Barrill, 4-H leader for the State College Extension service.
A suggested program outline prepared by the Rev. Garland Hendrix, pastor of Olive Chapel church of Wake county, will be used by many of the clubs. This includes special music, Scripture reading and prayer by 4-H members, and a talk by the pastor or four-five minute talks by club members on the factors which make a better community.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Glee Clubs Will Present Concert At 7:30 Tonight

Bids Will Be Invited On Morehead Port Soon

Col. G. W. Gillette, director of the North Carolina State Ports authority, announced this week that bids on the Morehead City port construction work will probably be invited within the next four or five weeks.
Bids were opened Tuesday on the construction proposed at Wilmington. The lowest was submitted by Diamond Construction Co., Washington, D. C., which quoted $1,926,416 on construction of a reinforced concrete wharf, steel piling bulkhead, and railroad trestle. A total of 14 bids was made.

4-H Club Members Will Observe 4-H Sunday May 14

North Carolina's more than 123,000 4-H club members will use the theme "For a Better Rural Community" in their annual observance of 4-H Church Sunday on May 14, according to L. R. Barrill, 4-H leader for the State College Extension service.
A suggested program outline prepared by the Rev. Garland Hendrix, pastor of Olive Chapel church of Wake county, will be used by many of the clubs. This includes special music, Scripture reading and prayer by 4-H members, and a talk by the pastor or four-five minute talks by club members on the factors which make a better community.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Market for County Cabbage Drops

Bids Will Be Invited On Morehead Port Soon

Col. G. W. Gillette, director of the North Carolina State Ports authority, announced this week that bids on the Morehead City port construction work will probably be invited within the next four or five weeks.
Bids were opened Tuesday on the construction proposed at Wilmington. The lowest was submitted by Diamond Construction Co., Washington, D. C., which quoted $1,926,416 on construction of a reinforced concrete wharf, steel piling bulkhead, and railroad trestle. A total of 14 bids was made.

4-H Club Members Will Observe 4-H Sunday May 14

North Carolina's more than 123,000 4-H club members will use the theme "For a Better Rural Community" in their annual observance of 4-H Church Sunday on May 14, according to L. R. Barrill, 4-H leader for the State College Extension service.
A suggested program outline prepared by the Rev. Garland Hendrix, pastor of Olive Chapel church of Wake county, will be used by many of the clubs. This includes special music, Scripture reading and prayer by 4-H members, and a talk by the pastor or four-five minute talks by club members on the factors which make a better community.

Education Board Visits New School

Members of the county board of education visited the new Atlantic school building Tuesday.
The general contracting job is complete, reported H. L. Joslyn, superintendent of county schools, but sub-contract jobs remain to be finished.

Heating Plant

During the summer vacation, the school superintendent said the heating plant now in the old Atlantic school will be installed in the Harkers Island school, providing it is in operable condition.
The sanitation job at Newport school is expected to be finished this summer and there are plans to erect a metal building at Beaufort to provide extra classrooms temporarily. This may be used later, Mr. Joslyn continued, as an industrial arts shop.

Educator Believes Report Cards Should Be Banned

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Miss Helen Heffernan is one educator who doesn't believe in report cards.
It would be better for both parents and children if the "old-fashioned" cards were eliminated, she told a conference of educators. Miss Heffernan, assistant chief of the division of instruction, California Department of Education, suggested that parent-teacher discussions would be a better way to determine what is best for children.

Henry Eubanks, 4-H Club Member, to Raise Bull

The bull calf, part of the recent started county calf chain, has been assigned to Henry Eubanks, 4-H club member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Eubanks.
Henry also has a female calf, R. M. Williams, county farm agent, explained that there is not much incentive to raising a bull and that it would have been difficult to place him.

Hitler Back in Waxworks

HAMBURG—(AP)—Hitler is back—in a Hamburg waxworks. His comeback was delayed because not a single brown shirt could be found in the whole of Hamburg and one had to be made to order, a Hamburg paper reported.

Tide Table

Tides at Beaufort Bar

Friday, May 12	Friday, May 12
5:04 a.m.	11:15 a.m.
5:31 p.m.	11:55 p.m.
Saturday, May 13
5:49 a.m.	11:56 a.m.
6:12 p.m.	12:10 a.m.
Sunday, May 14
6:31 a.m.	12:38 a.m.
6:51 p.m.	12:34 p.m.
Monday, May 15
7:10 a.m.	1:18 a.m.
7:28 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
Tuesday, May 16
7:43 a.m.	1:55 a.m.
8:04 p.m.	1:45 p.m.