Opera Tenor Learns What's in a Whistle

Jerusalem—(AP)—What's in a whistle?—Jan Peerce, the Metropolitan Opera tenor, asked himself when he heard a shrill one at the end of his first concert in Israel. "Listen, my friends," Peerce addressed the audience—"when that happened to me in Bogota and then in Los Angeles, a few weeks ago, I knew people wanted to express their appreciation. To Europe, I haven't been yet, but I was told it's not so good if people whistle. Now what does it mean in Israel?"

"It means tow meel—mezuyan!" they shouted back. He got the Hebrew words translated. Tow meel means "very good." Mezuyan is "excellent." So he gave another "encore."

HOLLYWOOD... by Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—Which is harder for an actor—drama or comedy? Comedy, say today's guest experts, Jack Carson, Ginger Rogers, and Actor-Director Richard Whorf.

"It's much easier to make people cry than to make them laugh," said Carson. Miss Rogers commented, "A young player can learn drama more easily than comedy." She suggested why this is so: "Life is a drama."

Whorf, directing the other two in a comedy called "Illegal Bride," said: "In drama, the mood carries you along. In comedy, the mood is changed every second. Comedy is superimposed over the story." He thinks it's harder to direct comedy than drama because "you're inventing all the time."

I'd interrupted Whorf in the business of inventing on the set some business that wasn't in the script. Carson lies on a bed, supposedly with a horrible hangover. His hand flops over the side. One finger gets stuck in the neck of a champagne bottle. He struggles, pulls, and wrenches but can't get the bottle off.

Whorf thinks Carson and Rogers are a good comedy combination. "He'll fall on the floor to get a laugh. She's a high comedienne. This is wonderful. He feeds her (gags), and she feeds him."

Carson doesn't believe he's a comedian "in the pure sense. A comedian is a guy who thinks funny. With me, thinking funny has become work; I'm not an involuntary comedian. Red Skelton is a wonderful comedian. He's funny all the time." Jack calls himself an actor who plays comedy parts. He likes to think of himself, in fact, as an all-around actor. In "Bright Leaf" he's a generally sober-side

Self Defense!

Chicago—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Dickson thinks individuals, as well as nations, should be armed against aggressors. She was on her way home from her job as a waitress one night when a man tried to grab her. She took a firm grip on her blackjacket and struck him a half dozen blows. The man beat a staggering retreat.

Scientist Points Out Protective Skin Qualities

Los Angeles — (AP) — Human skin color may be a protective device to permit man to escape his enemies, says Dr. Raymond B. Cowles of the University of California. He says sunburn is not a good explanation of darkened skins. Thickening of the skin is a much better protection from the sun, he says. But in the jungle, a black skin makes a man hard to see. That is not true in northern forests, he says.

The United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina produced 89 per cent of the world's exportable grains last year, says the Encyclopedia Americana.
