

Students Begin Use of Dual Control Car in Driving Course

Motorcycle Crash Fatal to Marine

Pfc. Frederick Ballas Dies, Pfc. Miles J. Walges Injured

A motorcycle accident at 10:20 Tuesday night, seven miles east of New Bern, was fatal to Pfc. Frederick C. Ballas, of VMR 252, transport squadron, Cherry Point. Pfc. Miles J. Walges, USMC, Cherry Point, who was riding with Ballas, was seriously injured. The accident occurred on an S curve on highway 70. Ballas is reported to have lost control of his 1948 Harley Davidson motorcycle. He was en route to the air base. The motorcycle left the road on the left side, traveling approximately 250 feet before it struck a culvert in a ditch, throwing both passengers. They were taken to the Naval dispensary at Cherry Point where Ballas died at 5:55 a. m. Wednesday. Walges sustained a leg fracture, cuts and bruises. The motorcycle, which was demolished, was owned by Ballas.

CAP Unit Awaits Investigation Of Plane Crash

Officials of the Civil Air Patrol by yesterday had not arrived in Carteret county to investigate the crash of the L-5 which was used as an observation training plane in the county CAP unit. A. D. Ellsworth, adjutant of the unit, said that he has been expecting investigating officials each day since Sunday when the craft crashed on Bogue Banks near the state park. George Herbert, pilot, and James Everett Lupton, passenger, both of Beaufort RFD, are recovering from minor injuries in Morehead City hospital. The crash of the L-5, valued at "a couple thousand dollars" according to Ellsworth, leaves the county CAP with one plane, an L-4 on floats. Ellsworth reported yesterday that attendance has been good at the cadet classes which are held each Tuesday night at the town hall. Beaufort. Classes begin at 7 p.m. The instructor is Lt. Ralph Gardner of Beaufort. Operations classes, during which planes are flown, take place Sunday afternoon at the Beaufort-Morehead City airport. Ellsworth said cadets may enroll at any time.

Registration Books Will Close After Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the last day for registrations. Citizens not registered cannot vote Nov. 7. F. R. Seeley, chairman of the county board of elections, struck a warning note for preservation of democracy this week when he remarked, "Before Hitler, less than 50 per cent of the Germans voted. Then they had to vote, and had to vote Ja'."

Methodists Will Worship in New Church at 11 Sunday Morning

The first service in the new sanctuary of the First Methodist church, Morehead City, will be conducted at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The church, built at a cost of $160,000, is located at 9th and Bridges st., on the site of the former structure which was torn down to make way for the recently-completed building.

REA Appoints W. C. Carlton Local Manager

W. C. Carlton of Morehead City has been appointed manager of the Carteret-Craven Electric Membership Corp., an REA affiliate. L. W. Pelletier, president of the corporation's board of directors, announced yesterday. Carlton began his new duties Monday. He was chosen from 40 applicants. Pelletier said it was a high compliment to Carlton to be selected since many of the other applicants had lengthy REA experience. The new manager succeeds Paul Jernigan, who resigned.

Power Failure Affects County

A power failure "somewhere upstate" caused an outage at 5:30 p.m. Monday in Carteret county. George Stovall, manager of Tide Water Power co. in this area, said he could not learn where the trouble originated. Wilmington was affected also.

Walter R. Copes Gets Six Months On Driving Charge

Walter R. Copes, colored, was sentenced to six months on the roads in Tuesday's session of recorder's court for reckless driving, driving without a license and driving after his license was revoked. In passing the sentence Judge Lambert Morris pointed out that Copes had received a six months' sentence in January of 1949 for reckless and careless driving, causing an accident, damaging personal property and speeding 85 miles an hour. "If this six months sentence doesn't cure you I'll give you a longer one next time," the judge warned. Melvin L. Sorell was fined $125 and costs for speeding, reckless and careless driving and driving drunk. A fine of $100 and costs was charged against Rodney M. Tarrance for driving drunk. Two lines of $50 and costs were given, one to Theodore J. Smith for illegal possession of non-tax paid whiskey. The second was given to Charles W. Lisa for reckless and careless driving. Pays $25 Robert L. Williams was fined $25 and costs for possession of a small quantity of non-tax-paid whiskey as was Bertford King for driving without a license and careless and reckless driving. Six speeding defendants had their bonds forfeited for failure to appear in court. They were Rachel D. Davis, Floyd B. Twiford, Clayton M. Gillikin, Woodrow Wilson, William D. Caffrey and Albert I. Garner. J. P. Osfield, jr., was fined $10 and costs for speeding. Others who were fined the costs for the same offense were Harry W. Headley, Alex F. Gerastimuk, W. B. Chalk, Wilda Grey Melvin, and Daniel M. Wright. Prosecuting witnesses were taxed the costs in three separate cases after verdicts of malicious prosecution were delivered. The defendants and charges against them were Leon Mann, assaulting a minor; George A. Copes, trespass; and Froner F. (Buddy) Mayo, assaulting his wife and daughter, being drunk and disorderly and causing bodily injury. Robert W. Harper was fined the costs for public drunkenness. Prosecution was withheld in the case of Lee Manning, charged with giving a bad check. A $10 fine and costs were charged to John H. Weberg for passing a school bus while unloading. Joseph Wallace paid the same penalty for driving without a license. Four Pay Costs With purchases made in Morehead City stores, tickets will be given. Each Saturday certain ticket holders will receive large cash prizes. The Christmas shopping promotion program will begin Monday, Nov. 13. Beginning that week stores will stay open each Friday until 9 p.m. and Christmas week the stores will be open every night until 9. President Warren Beck appointed the following shopping promotion committee: Bernard Leary, chairman, D. G. Bell, W. C. Matthews, W. B. Chalk, Bill Willis, Jimmy Wallace, and Walter Morris. The street lighting committee is comprised of George Stovall, chairman, Clyde Blanchard, and John Lashley. Introduced as new members were Dom Femia and Clarence Styron, Mr. Lashley, city clerk, was a guest. Mr. Matthews was especially welcomed because he was absent from several meetings due to illness. Bill Willis served as secretary in the absence of Robert G. Lowe.

B&PW Club Hears Mrs. T. R. Jenkins

Mrs. T. R. Jenkins of Beaufort was guest speaker when the Business and Professional Women's club held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at the Morehead City civic center. In the absence of the president, Miss Ruth Peeling, the first vice-president, Mrs. Richard Ryan, presided. Miss Betty Joyner, international relations chairman, introduced Mrs. Jenkins. In her speech on international relations, the speaker told how many times the policy of the United States shifted since this spring. She emphasized that people of today are busy in so many places that it is difficult for them to keep abreast of the numerous changes that do occur. Since world war 1, she continued, interest in the United States and abroad has increased and distances shortened. People now have a more intimate knowledge of world affairs. Mrs. Jenkins stated that a lack of common understanding among nations is the main cause of world disorder today. In the UN, she declared, there is no chaplain, as in the League of Nations, to open the sessions. This is because of the different creeds represented. Mrs. Jenkins remarked that differences in culture make it difficult to attain the common understanding necessary for world peace. All nations, she continued, must have faith in the greatest means for peace, the United Nations. Individuals, Mrs. Jenkins emphasized, can play a big part in bringing peace by participating in local committees on international relations, taking part in better government movements, and voting more intelligently. Minutes of the September meeting were read, corrected and approved. Committee reports were given, after which old and new business was discussed. It was agreed that the November meeting shall be a dinner meeting. Mrs. C. L. Beam and Miss Norma Gaskill were appointed to find a place for the dinner. Mrs. E. H. Lillestrand was appointed chairman of the education and vocation committee.

Jaycees Prepare For Scrap Drive

Morehead City residents should begin saving scrap paper and rags in preparation for the next Jaycee scrap drive on Sunday, Nov. 5. Drive Chairman Warren Beck told Jaycees at their Monday night meeting in the Fort Macon hotel. Beck said Jaycees plan a drive on the first Sunday of each month. Next week a large bin will be erected in downtown Morehead for scrap that accumulates before the drive begins. Those persons who have scrap paper or rags for collection now should call 6-4452. Beck added. Jaycee Bill Clagon, a member of the State Highway Patrol, announced that his safety committee was almost through preparing a plan to give more protection to children at Morehead City school when crossing streets or playing at the school. Clagon said the plan would be presented to Morehead City commissioners at their next meeting. Plans are underway to schedule a football game between Morehead City and a country school near Burlington in the Burlington stadium Nov. 3, the next open date on the Morehead schedule, Bernard Leary revealed. He said a further announcement would be made if plans materialized.

Point Four Aims Listed by Windell

The necessity for education in the underdeveloped areas of the world were emphasized to Morehead City Rotarians at their recent meeting by Principal G. T. Windell of the Morehead City school. Windell's underlying theme was the conflict between communism and democratic ideals throughout the world. He said that the communists had a rare sense of mission in their desire to spread communism over the globe. The United States' answer to communism's aims is the Point Four program of the State Department, Windell explained. This program has as its aim the goal of educating peoples of the underdeveloped areas of the world to the gains of democracy and its many advantages over communism. Dividends on such a program will come extremely slow, the speaker stated. When they do come, he concluded, "they may be expected to come in the form of security, justice and peace for all men." R. B. Howard was welcomed into the Rotary membership at the meeting.

Two Cars Meet Head-On At Beaufort Intersection

Two vehicles collided head-on Monday night in Beaufort, but no one was injured. Albert B. Pollock, Newport route 1, was driving east on Ann st. at 7 p.m. As he reached the traffic light at Ann and Turner he started to turn south into Turner through the green light. At the same time James Leland Peterson of Beaufort was parked at the curb, headed west on Ann. Peterson pulled away from the curb and also turned south into Turner. Both cars met at the intersection. The front end of Pollock's car was punched in, causing $175 damage. Damage to the Peterson vehicle was less. No charges were preferred in the accident, pending a hearing Monday before Mayor W. L. Hassell. Beaufort Police Chief L. B. Willis investigated.

Primary Students Start New Luncheon Schedule

Morehead City children in grades 1 through 3 have had their lunch schedule changed, G. T. Windell, principal, announced yesterday. They go to lunch at 11:35, five minutes earlier than previously, and stay in the lunchroom with their teachers until 11:55. They leave in a group to make way for the grammar grade and high school students. At 12:30 p.m. they return to their classrooms and are dismissed at 2:30.

Speaker Explains Rotary Objects

The four objects of the Rotary club movement: club service, community service, vocational service and international service were explained to Beaufort Rotarians and their ladies at a meeting Tuesday night at Harkers Lodge, Harkers Island. Charles W. Phillips, director of public relations for the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, was guest speaker at the meeting. Phillips said the object of Rotary was to take one representative from each vocation in a community, mix the benefits of his vocation with that of the vocations of other Rotary members and have each member gain from the good points of the vocations of others. These benefits are then shared with others outside the Rotary club through the four objects of the movement, Phillips stated. The Rotary's program can be one of true worth to all as has been shown through its accomplishments on the local, national and international levels, the speaker concluded. Gene C. Smith, newest Rotary member, received his club pin at the meeting. Guests were Miss Annie Gaskill and Miss Minnie Willis of Beaufort.

Merchants Plan For Christmas

More elaborate Christmas decorations for Morehead City were planned yesterday noon at the Morehead City Merchants' association meeting in the Fort Macon hotel dining room. This was their first fall meeting. The Santa Claus models mounted on light poles will be spotlighted this year and more extensive lighting has been planned at intersections in the business district. A cash give-away program, like those conducted the past two Christmas seasons, will be repeated, only a large amount of money will be given the first Saturday as well as the last. No amount has been set as yet. With purchases made in Morehead City stores, tickets will be given. Each Saturday certain ticket holders will receive large cash prizes. The Christmas shopping promotion program will begin Monday, Nov. 13. Beginning that week stores will stay open each Friday until 9 p.m. and Christmas week the stores will be open every night until 9. President Warren Beck appointed the following shopping promotion committee: Bernard Leary, chairman, D. G. Bell, W. C. Matthews, W. B. Chalk, Bill Willis, Jimmy Wallace, and Walter Morris. The street lighting committee is comprised of George Stovall, chairman, Clyde Blanchard, and John Lashley. Introduced as new members were Dom Femia and Clarence Styron, Mr. Lashley, city clerk, was a guest. Mr. Matthews was especially welcomed because he was absent from several meetings due to illness. Bill Willis served as secretary in the absence of Robert G. Lowe.

Driveway Shrubs at School Replanted on Grounds

Shrubs that bordered the driveway at Morehead City school have been removed, improving the appearance of the front of the building. G. T. Windell, principal, commented yesterday. The shrubs have been used to fill in other places on the school grounds. The work was approved by the school board and was made possible by the assistance of the town crew, headed by Doil Hancock, and high school boys. Mr. Windell said the cooperation of town authorities and the students was greatly appreciated.

Fair Exhibit Chairman Lists Winners

Beaufort school and Beaufort 4-H club topped two top awards at the Carteret county fair, Mrs. Billie Smith, chairman, announced. Other group awards and individual premium winners are listed below: Agricultural: Best individual exhibit: Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Second best individual exhibit: Jackie Chapman. Best community, organization or curb market exhibit: State College Extension Service. Schools: Best all-round school exhibit: Beaufort high school. Second best all-round school exhibit: Smyrna high school. Home Demonstration Clubs: Best all-round club exhibit: Russell Creek. Second best all-round club exhibit: North River. Third best all-round club exhibit: Crab Point. Fourth best all-round club exhibit: Camp Glenn. 4-H Clubs: Best all-round club exhibit: Beaufort. Second best all-round club exhibit: Newport. Forage crops. Peanut hay: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Crab Grass hay: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Noe Avery. Lespedeza hay: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Noe Avery. Soy bean hay: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. R. R. Gooding. Soy bean, on vine: 1—plant, 3 any variety; Mrs. R. P. Gooding. Okra, 1 quart any variety: Mrs. R. P. Gooding. Pepper, 6 sweet: 1—Mrs. Noe Avery, 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Pepper, 6 hot: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Pumpkin, 1 sweet: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Potatoes, 1/2 peck White Irish: 1—A. V. Josey, 2—Mrs. Paul Beachem, 1/2 peck Red Irish: Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 1 peck Porto Rico: 1—Mrs. Noe Avery, 2—Mrs. R. P. Gooding. Fruits. Apples, 5 Stayman Wine-sap, Mrs. Hugh Carroway. 5 Starks Golden Delicious, Mrs. Hugh Carroway. 5 any variety: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Noe Avery. Apples, 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway. 2—Mrs. Paul Beachem. Grapes, 1 pint black: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Noe Avery. 1 pint white: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Collection of fruits, at least 4 varieties: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Nuts. Pecans, plate of any variety: 1—Mrs. R. P. Gooding, 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, plate of 1950 crop: 1—Mrs. Noe Avery, 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Walnuts, plate of black: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—

Mrs. Paul Beachem. Floral. Foliage plant, best specimen: Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Snake plant, best specimen: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Billie Smith. Coleus, best specimen: 1—Mrs. Paul Beachem, 2—Mrs. Noe Avery. Cacti, best collection: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Earl Taylor. (Blooming plants) Jewel plant: Mrs. Floyd Stoy. (Bulbs, Tubers, Gourds) Narcissus, 6 any variety: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Gaston Simpson. Iris, 6 rizomes, any variety: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Tulips, 6 bulbs: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Gladiolus, 6 corms: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Dahlia, 6 tubers: 1—Mrs. Noe Avery, 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Gaston Simpson. Spider lilies, 6 bulbs: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Any other bulbs or tubers: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Earl Taylor. Canned Fruits—Quart jars. Apples, whole or sliced: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Apple Sauce, 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. Dick Parker. Blackberries, Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Huckleberries: 1—Mrs. John Chaplain, jr. 2—Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Peaches: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Pears: Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Grape Juice: Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Collection of 6 jars: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Canned Vegetables. Beans, green snaps: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Loyd Stoy. Beans, lima, pint: 1—Mrs. Dick Parker, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Beets: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Loyd Stoy. Corn, pint: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Earl Taylor. Pumpkin: 1—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. 2—Mrs. Earl Taylor. Peas, garden: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Squash: Mrs. Gaston Simpson. Soup Mixture: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Tomatoes, soup: Mrs. Gaston Simpson. Tomato puree: Mrs. Billie Smith. Tomato juice: Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Collection of 6 jars: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Jam—Pint Jars. Blackberry: Mrs. Hugh Carroway. Peach: 1—Mrs. Hugh Carroway, 2—Mrs. Dick Parker. Grape: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Any other fruit jam: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. John Chapman, jr. Fruit Butter—Pint jars. Grape: 1—Mrs. Earl Taylor, 2—Mrs. R. P. See WINNERS, Page 6

Speaker Explains Rotary Objects

The four objects of the Rotary club movement: club service, community service, vocational service and international service were explained to Beaufort Rotarians and their ladies at a meeting Tuesday night at Harkers Lodge, Harkers Island. Charles W. Phillips, director of public relations for the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, was guest speaker at the meeting. Phillips said the object of Rotary was to take one representative from each vocation in a community, mix the benefits of his vocation with that of the vocations of other Rotary members and have each member gain from the good points of the vocations of others. These benefits are then shared with others outside the Rotary club through the four objects of the movement, Phillips stated. The Rotary's program can be one of true worth to all as has been shown through its accomplishments on the local, national and international levels, the speaker concluded. Gene C. Smith, newest Rotary member, received his club pin at the meeting. Guests were Miss Annie Gaskill and Miss Minnie Willis of Beaufort.

Tide Table

Tides at Beaufort Bar

Friday, Oct. 27	LOW	Sweet Potato Meeting
8:58 a.m.	2:37 a.m.
9:09 p.m.	3:22 p.m.
		Saturday, Oct. 28
9:32 a.m.	3:10 a.m.
9:43 p.m.	3:59 p.m.
		Sunday, Oct. 29
10:07 a.m.	3:43 a.m.
10:20 p.m.	4:37 p.m.
		Monday, Oct. 30
10:44 a.m.	4:17 a.m.
10:59 p.m.	5:16 p.m.	