Junior Women to Sponsor Beaufort Cub Scout Pack

As the result of a talk by Charles Hassell, leader of the Beaufort Boy Scouts, the Junior Women's club voted to sponsor a cub Scout pack Monday evening when the club met at the Lottie Sanders building.

Mrs. Leslie Moore, Mrs. Clarence Guthrie and Mrs. Theodore Salter were appointed a committee by the president, Mrs. Gene Smith, to meet with the regional director of Boy Scouts, and to choose a den mother for the pack.

Newly-elected officers, who will take office in May are Mrs. Glenn Adair, president; Mrs. Billy Arrington, vice-president; Mrs. Eddie Paul, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Barnes, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Frank King, treasurer.

Members of the club will continue their scrap drive this Sunday, when all Beaufort residents are requested to put their papers and magazines on the curb at 1 o'clock.
