

Carteret Farm Agent Presides Saturday at Livestock Meeting

R. M. Williams, county agent, presided Saturday at the annual Cooperative Livestock meeting in New Bern.

The report of the past year's activities, given by John Booth, livestock manager, revealed that $283,264.82 was received for hogs handled through the market. The address of welcome was given by P. M. Cox, Craven county assistant farm agent and the principal address by Dean D. W. Colvard, head of the animal industry department, State college.

Other brief talks were made by A. T. Jackson, Craven county farm agent, John Winfield, who is in charge of the marketing division, North Carolina Department of Agriculture, C. S. Mintz, district farm agent, and Jack Kelley, extension swine specialist.

Re-elected Saturday were the following livestock directors: Thomas Oglesby, Carteret county; John Daughtry, Craven county; W. E. Mallard, Jones county; and Ralph Brooks, Pamlico county.

At the close of the meeting, patrons of the livestock market were served a barbecue dinner.

Rotarians Hear Talk Favoring Town Extension

Stressing that Beaufort citizens should "look to the future," Dr. W. L. Woodard voiced his approval of extending Beaufort municipal boundaries before attentive Rotarians Tuesday evening at Inlet inn.

According to Dr. Woodard, chairman of the planning board, the people of Beaufort must face facts in realizing the advantages extension will provide.

"Do you know that Beaufort is the only town in North Carolina that hasn't extended its city limits in the past 130 years?" he asked.

"Industry doesn't think much of a town whose population has decreased instead of increased."

"The town of Beaufort is hanging in balance," Dr. Woodard continued, "and it's up to each individual to get behind" the extension plan, backing it to the hilt.

Members also agreed that Beaufort needed a combination summer recreation, year-round school athletic director. This person would form a summer recreation program following school vacation, and take over certain school sports activities in the fall.

The Rev. Theodore R. Jenkins, Rotary president, announced that the International Rotary club conference will be held at Atlantic City March 27-31. He hoped Beaufort would be represented.

Glenn Adair and Jack Crawford became new Rotary members.

the blinds wound cover them with his paws.

There was no question in my mind, Tommy K was just about the smartest dog that ever lived, especially in Hyde county. This I had been thinking when the subject of dogs was mentioned since Tommy K's death.

But then I met Hyde county-born Alvah Sadler of Suffolk, Va. It was on the fox hunt last week in Nags Head Woods that the man who left Hyde to enter the music business in Virginia told his dog story.

"We had gone down to Rose Bay in Hyde to do some waterfowl hunting with Cecil Sadler, but the weather was for bluebirds and one day when we did not go out to the blinds, Cecil said:

"You fellows like to go deer hunting today?"

"Sure," we replied. "But where are the dogs? No use going after deer unless you have dogs."

"That'll be fixed," said Cecil and then he started whistling.

"First thing you know," Alvah continued, "a couple of bird dogs—setters, came running into the yard."

"Let's go," said our guide. "We followed, thinking that Cecil was crazy. Who ever heard of a bird dog running a deer?"

"Well, we drove down the road a way. Cecil put us alongside the road and said, 'Stay here, the dogs'll chase the deer to your stand. By that we thought the dogs must be crazy too. In less than a half hour those dogs actually chased a couple of deer within range, and my companion and I, each made a kill. It was the first time I had ever heard of setters chasing deer."

Morehead City Firemen Answer Two Alarms

Chief Grady Bell's fire fighting crew answered two alarms in the past few days with only slight damage reported in one instance.

A floor fire yesterday caused by a faulty furnace in the home of John Wetherington, 2905 Arendell st., was promptly smothered. Estimated damage was $75. A reported blaze on the roof of Molly Davis' home, 204 N. Eighth st., turned out Wednesday to be an unintentional false alarm.

Sunday School Lesson

our Christian religion today. We believe that Jesus was the Messiah, the son of God and that His authority is Divine, the highest authority in Earth or Heaven. The Jewish Hierarchy did not believe this, but theirs was a selfish position and so Jesus was crucified. We do not question the authority of Jesus and neither did the great multitude of Jews and Gentiles who followed Him. There are those who ask this question today and the Christian always has the answer "Jesus was the Divine Son of God."

I have seen and you have seen men and women who commercialized religion? I do not need here to point out individuals. Jesus once said "Not everyone who says Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom" and I think He meant church members who joined the church for business purposes, or to get votes.

LESSON TEXT.—Mk. 11:11, 15-19; 12:28-31.

(11) And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple; and when he had looked around about upon all things, and now the even-tide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve. (15) And they come to Jerusalem; and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves: (16) And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. (17) And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. (18) And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him; for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his doctrine. (19) And when even was come, he went out of the city. (20) And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? (21) And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord: (22) And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength; this is the first commandment. (23) And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
