Howard Garner, Newport, Heads County 4-H Council

Four Newport 4-H club members hold the majority of offices in the county 4-H council. They are Howard Garner, president; Ann River, vice-president; Jean Garner, treasurer; and Pauline Garner, reporter. Thomas Oglesby, Morehead City, is secretary.

Elections were held Saturday morning at a meeting of the council in the home agent's office, Beaufort. Thirteen 4-H club members, representing Newport, Morehead City, Smyrna, and Beaufort, attended.

The group made plans to attend the 4-H camp at Manteo in June and presented a play on safety. A safety quiz was also conducted. James Allgood, assistant farm agent and boys' 4-H club advisor, conducted a recreation program.

Soft drinks and cookies were served by Mrs. Carrie Gillikin, girls' 4-H club advisor, and Miss Josephine Stanton, home agent secretary.
