Marine Faces Charge of Double Rape Attempt Sunday

Beaufort Baptists Will Observe Anniversary

ing April 27, 1851 and has seven charter members, James G. Noe, Mary Noe, George D. Anderson, Jane, Anderson, Asa Piver, Naomi Piver, and Jane Sherwood. Outstanding speakers have been engaged for a series of meetings at the church, beginning Sunday, April 22.

Opening the centennial observance at 1 o'clock next Sunday morning will be Dr. M. A. Huggins, Raleigh, corresponding secretary of the State Baptist Mission board. His topic will be "Baptists and State Missions."

At 7:30 Sunday night Miss Inabelle Coleman, returned missionary from China, will speak on "Bap-tists and Woman's Work, Foreign Missions.

Claude Gaddy of Raleigh, head of the Baptist education work in North Carolina, will speak on "Bap-tists and Christian Education" at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

"Baptists and Evangelism" will be the topic of the address by the Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor of the First Baptist church, New Bern, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Wednesday night's speaker will be the Rev. W. C. Reed, superin tendent of the North Carolina Baptist orphanage. His address will deal with "Baptists and Orphan-

Chaplain Featured

Thursday night's speaker will be Dr. W. K. McGee, chaplain of the Baptist hospital, Winston-Salem. "Baptists and Hospital Work" is the title of his address.

At Friday night's meeting the history of the church by M. Les-lie Davis, will be read and Dr. Christian Influence."

At the 11 o'clock service Sunday

The final centennial service will September 14 to June 18. feature Robert L. Humber, jr., leader of the World Federation movement, Greenville, who will speak on "Baptists and Peace".

Each evening service will begin at 7:30 and special music has been national defense. planned. The committee in charge of the centennial celebration is M. Leslie Davis, chairman, Gray-the institute.

Six Fires Keep Firemen on Jump

automobile, chimney, roof, oil

30 minutes to put out the flames the major damage was reported to be from smoke.

ing on Orange st.
High wind caused a broken cir-to the dilapidated condition of the Gene C. Smith has been elected president of the Beaufort Jay cees for the coming year. He succeeds George Cottingham. Smith is Beaufort's civil defense Rotary club board of directors.

Technical School Speeds Program Due to Emergency

stitute, a branch of State college Baptist church of Morehead City will speak on "The History of its training program due to the na- and firemanship; Donald Fulcher, tional emergency.

Director Edward W. Ruggles of morning, April 29, Dr. I. G. Greer, the State College Extension divisor of the University of North Carolon, in announcing the move, said nie L. Hyatt, pathfinding. lina, will speak on "Baptists and the fall term opening date of the institute has been advanced from thus became the first division of State college to accelerate its cour-

An enrollment from 100 to 125 students can be accommodated at Ruggles said the school located den Paul, and Mrs. J. E. Arrington.

The committee has extended a on Bogue Sound in Morehead City. cordial invitation to the public to attend the centennial services.

Students eligible to enter the in- a stitute at the beginning of the term in June include both 1951 graduates and previous graduates of the car, was charged with reckless North Carolina high schools. Rug-driving. gles explained that students enter-Firemen were on the jump the ast three days quenching brush, utomobile, chimney, roof, oil gles explained that students entering in June will be able to gradution on March 14, 1952 — three months ahead of regular schedule.

The college official pointed out stove, and oil furnace fires in that one-year technical courses of-fered by the institute "will be valustove, and oil furnace fires in that one-year technical courses of-Morehead City and Beaufort.

Sunday morning the chimney in able to graduates who may later the home of Mrs. H. B. Avery, 124 Turner st., Beaufort, caught ablaze duties."

Avery was out at the time, but cation blanks for admission, may neighbors noticed the curling smoke and turned in the alarm.

Though it took Beaufort firemen vision, N. C. State College, Raleigh.

Though it took Beaufort firemen vision, N. C. State College, Raleigh.

The First Baptist church of Beaufort will observe its 100th anniversary April 22 through April Heads Jaycees Sunday Night

Conduct Court of Honnor at Beaufort

The Carteret district council, Boy Scouts of America, will con- May 8 election. duct a court of honor Sunday night at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Beaufort. Stanley Woodland, Morehead City, chairman of the Carteret council, will preside. City's chief executive. Awards will be presented to Scouts by W. C. Carlton, Morehead City, and W. C. Wall, New Bern, district field representative. Highest awards to be made will Walter G. Fulcher. They will be come Star Scouts. Laughton is a whelming vote.

Dill was appointed mayor of broad City Sept. 17, 1946 upon Morehead City. Scouts who will receive second class awards are Kenneth Swain. Glenn Conway, Walter Dear Phil-lips, Daniel Lee Ricks, Jimmy L. Sandy, J. W. Alligood, and Charles Springle. Receiving first class awards will be Jerry Conway, John-wards will be Jerry Colway, John-ny Simpson, George T. Lewis, Charles Fulcher, and Eric Lewis, Merit badges will go to the fol-lowing: James E. Willis, public health, home repairs, carpenter, and first aid; James B. Willis, jr., bookbinding, personal health, first aid, and safety. William J. Laughton, jr., path-finding and carpentry; Gordon C. Willis, jr., personal health, safety and first aid; Charles Fulcher, safety and home repairs.

Walter G. Fulcher, first aid, pathfinding, cooking, and first aid; Gene Lewis, pathfinding and cook-

September 14 to June 18. The college's Morehead City unit Two Boys Hurt In Sunday Wreck

jured at 3 o'clock Sunday afterwere riding upset on the Mill Creek nology, electrical technology, and on the face and head and Oglesby suffered face bruises. The car a '41 Chevrolet, was demolished. The driver, Lawrence W. Simp-son, route 1, Beaufort, who owned

According to Cpl. W. S. Clagon, state highway patrolman who investigated, Simpson was driving east on the Mill Creek road and wa rounding a curve when he met an oncoming car. Because Simpsor was on the wrong side of the road the corporal reported, he swerv-ed to the right, lost control, hit when an open draft fanned flames from a wood-filled stove Mrs.

tute, including a catalog and appli.

an abutment on the Harlowe Creek run bridge, and the car landed

Slight damage was also caused when Marion Noe's automobile caught fire early Saturday morn Boundary Lines for Annexation and Morehead City at the town hall. Seventy-five cecharge for the years of the seventy five cecharge for the years.

of Dorsey Rice, 509 Fisher st., while Clyde Helms, Shackleford an overheated oil furnace.

Concerning oil circulator owners, Chief Grady Bell stated that everybody should look into their stoves before lighting them. If too much kerosepe is present, bail or The News-TIMES.

The legal procedure on the remaining them along Gallants creek and Marie Campen and on recreation Miss Stanton.

Marie Campen and on recreation Miss Stanton.

Corporation Organized

A certificate of incorporation has been filed for Community Invest ments, inc., Beaufort, in the office of Secretary of State. That Eure

Boy Scouts Will George W. Dut, Jr., Receive Awards Re-Election as Mayor of Morehead

City, has announced that he Dill. who succeeded H. S. Gibbs Carteret county's legislator, went to Raleigh to serve in the general assembly Jan. 1, 1951 after resigning his position as Morehead

102-day law-making session, and in Morehead City Sept. 17, 1946 upon the death of Mayor D. B. Willis. He was re-elected in 1947 and 1949.

Derrickson Serves

Commissioner W. L. Derrickson. mayor pro-tem, assumed the posi-tion of mayor upon the resignation of Mayor Dill. Commissioner Derrickson had served on the board since 1945.

Present members of the board are W. P. Freeman, D. G. Ben, S. C. Holloway, and M. T. Mills. None their intention to seek re-election.

Murder Weapon

Sheriff C. G. Holland on Friday gained possession of the gun believed to have been used by Clay-ton Gillikin the night of March 31 when Benny Gillikin, Otway, was murdered. Clayton is being

The automatic shotgun, established as the one loaned to Clayton by Headen Willis on the fatal night, was discovered by some Bet-tie school children last week as they

the sheriff reported.

The weapon was lying in the marsh near the Ward creek bridge.

Sheriff Holland said it is believed. Clayton disposed of the gun as he was traveling from Otway, after the shooting, toward Beautort. Youngsters who found the gun Bettie. The sheriff was notified and he went up to Bettie and got the weapon Friday.

Although it hadn't been lying in the water, the gun was very rusty, the county's chief law au thority commented.

Veterinarian Will Vaccinate Dogs

charge for the vaccination is refunded by the county when the dog owner's taxes are paid. Dr. Wickizer said that holders of Paden's visits to the various towns are made as a convenience to dog can obtain i

Tide Table

а.		- CONTROL		2.0
	Tuesday, April 17
9	HIG	H		LOV
	4:24	a.m.	10:41	a.m
	4:50	p.m.	11:07	p.m
S	1270	Wedn	esday, April 18	Ä
t-	5:16	a.m.	11:27	a.m
e	5:38		11:58	p.m
8		Thur	sday, April 19	1
1	6:05	a.m.	12 Midi	nigh
8	6:25	p.m.	12:10	p.m
0	19.17	Fri	day, April 20	20
đ	6:51	a.m.	12:46	a.m
	Dr. 450.		444

Chamber of Commerce Speaker will seek re-election as mayor of Morehead City in the Stresses Need for Spirituality

North Carolina is more intelligent people possessing imagination that combines the spiritual with the physical in our daily business and

Speaking before a jam-packed, attentive audience at the annual Morehead City chamber of com-merce banquet, the oftimes humorous and serious Chapel Hill ex-ecutive explained the important role played by the university in the religious lives of Morehead City residents and all North Caro-

According to dapper Carmichael, there should be no conflict between religion and science. oldest testament of all is the unioldest testament of all is the universe itself," he said. "What we need are scientists of deeper theological thinking.

"Thank God North Carolinians "Thank God North Carolinians are beginning to realize that the wind are beginning to realize that the wind state of the st university is a place where things are studied spiritually as well as physically," he added.

The Soul of the State

The university as the source of imagination or dreaming soul and conscience of this state Our legislators are a part of this dreaming just as is the church. We must have a comprehensive program combining the spiritual with the physical in our economic, business, and educational relation ships to move forward in harhe said.

bough scientists have learned See CARMICHAEL, Page 5

Countians Buy

today that according to the month-Greensboro, sales of Series E, F, & University of North Carolina.

Greensboro of March totaled 224 for all of this amount was in series E

The total figures for North Carolina's 100 counties were as follows: series E bonds $2,387,618.50; Series F $92,833.00; Series G $374,-500.00: totaling $2,854,951.50.

Wickizer said that the U. S. Savings bonds program will be 10 years old in May. During the 10-year period since May 1, 1941 the Dr. C. E. Paden, veterinarian, has announced the schedule for vaccination of dogs, as required by law. The date for vaccination in North Carolina back in 1941.

Advance 'cello work and also gave officer, requests that the child's mother accompany him to the clinic, if possible, so that the nurse lam the date to the concert there and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the nurse and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the nurse and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the nurse and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the nurse and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the nurse and the doctor may obtain detailed to the concert there are lam the child's health of the possible, so that the child's health of the concerts.

Wickizer said that holders of series E bonds purchased in 1941 can obtain full information regard-and flames spread throughout the rorth to the highway then follow roof and porch. Damage was reported at only $50, however, due to the dilanidated condition of the tothe dilanidated condition of the cock parks.

Dill returned to Morehead City agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to 3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to 3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to the dilanidated condition of the cock parks.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to the dilanidated condition of the cock parks.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to 3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to 3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16.

The lower wight at 7:30 in the nome agent's office, Beaufort. T. Gates Matthews, New Bern, of the State to a second to the calendar committence of the calend lars has been turned over to the town and more $10 contributions are forthcoming, he said.

The town agreed to answer fire calls from outlying areas if rest dents of those areas deposited a fund with the town to meet expenses. Even though all residents do not participate, the fire trucks will answer any call in the area contemplated for annexation to Beaufort.

One call to an outlying area has been made since the town revised its order forbidding trucks to go beyond the town limits. That fire occured Wednesday morning on highway 101 when flames caused minor damage to the garage of Barney Willis.

Diffectived as to sestmaster of the chamber of commerce banquet and went back to Raleigh Friday. Mrs. Dill and their two children, Susan and George Leigh, went to Raleigh Saturday. "The youngsters didn't want to miss out on their Sunday school attendance, so we went to Edenton Street Methodist church in Raleigh Sunday morning. That's why we got back late Sunday," the legislator explained.

He likened leaving the legislature to breaking up school. "I made a lot of friends. There was a lot of arguing but no one took See LEGISLATURE, Page 5 12:53 p.m. Barney Willis.

VFW District Meeting Has Yet to Happen!

general assembly Jan. 1, 1951 after resigning his position as Morehead City's chief-executive.

Wins Large Vote

The legislator, reluctant to leave the municipal office, was urged to the muni until the coming weekend.

The story in Friday's paper announced the events as taking place this past Saturday and Sunday. We knew Friday the 13th could n't get by without something get-

Violoncellist

North Carolina Symphony Membership Cards Will Admit Countians

the orchestra makes its annual appearance in Wilmington on Friday. The orchestra, under the diplay an evening concert in the New Hypover high school auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Klenz will play Dvorak's Concerto for Violoncello and Orchestra, Opus 104.

A member of the music department at Duke university, Durham, Klenz has the unique distinction of having appeared with the North Carolina Symphony as soloist in the orchestra's professional debut in Raleigh in 1940. The violencellist is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music, Philadelphia. His teachers have included Ernest Bloch, Fritz Reiner and Felix Salmond. He also holds a

In 1940 he was a member of the All-Youth orchestra, organized of the nation's outstanding young and he toured North and South America with the group.

During the war, Klenz played Army concerts while stationed in 10:30 a.m. Friday, April 27. England. He appeared in London, Cambridge and Paris. His proland, 10:30 a.m. Monday, April 30: grams have been broadcast by the BBC and also Radio Francais.

advance 'cello work and also gave cination of dogs, as required by law. The date for vaccination in Morehead City has not been set, but Dr. Paden will be at the post offices in all towns scheduled below with the exception of Beaufort and Morehead City where he will be at the town hall. Seventy-five cents of the total charge for the vaccination is re stand morehead City where he will be at the post of the total charge for the vaccination is re lars in series E bonds purchased in 1941. Bars in series E bonds purchased in 1941. Be admitted to the concert there of presentation of their membership cards at the door. be admitted to the concert there of presentation of their membership cards at the door. Legislature Adjourns; County Representative Returns Home commerce, followed William Carmichael, guest speaker at Thurs-day night's banquet, with a talk on the chamber, its ideals, and the committees selected to make its goals accessible: We are all familiar with the saying, "don't change horses in the middle of a stream." Well, as you all know, it was necessary for your chamber of commerce during the man spat year to not only change horses could help him.

He asked her, Mrs. Moore rebut to also change riders some several times. But it is with a feeling of pride that I report to you tonight that though we did make changes in our personnel, we never did change our course, which was at all times to be dili-gent in the promotion of civic, commercial and industrial progress and expansion. Your chamber of commerce does not deserve, nor desire, to take credit for all of the progress that has been made by our community, but it has been our policy to give vigorous support and assistance to any group or individual engaged in a worthwhile project.

For the benefit of those who are with us for the first time tonight, I should like to emphasize the fact that day by day many problems are presented to your staff and committees. These problems are William Klenz, violencellist of committees. These problems are buke university, will be soloist with met and handled quietly and effihe North Carolina symphony when ciently. In the same manner new the orchestra makes its annual approjects are being investigated and developed. When found to rection of Benjamin Swalin, will presented to the board of direc-

See EURE, Page 5

Health Office Conducts Clinics

The county health department will conduct 16 pre-school clinics throughout the county during the coming three weeks. The first two, at Bogue and Stella, took place vesterday.

The remainder of the schedule follows: Morehead City, white school, 1 p.m. Friday; North River 9 a.m., Merrimon, 10 a.m., and South River, 10:45 a.m. Monday, April 23.

Beaufort colored school, 9 a.m. Tuesday, April 24; Salter Path, 9 a.m. and Morehead City colored school 10:30 a.m., Thursday, April 26; Otway, 9 a.m., and Atlantic,

Camp Glenn, 9 a.m. Tuesday, May 1; Newport, 9 a.m. Thursday, May

Dr. N. T. Ennett, county health on presentation of their member- information as to the child's health Beaufort chamber of commerce the way it was.

Dill returned to Morehead City Portsmouth island. The bill was charges of feloniously assaulting and attempting to cape two women at Atlantic Beach Sunday night. He is also charged with feloniously breaking and entering two .. N. Moore and Mrs. Newman Willis. Mrs. Moure lives with her husband on the beach highway and Mrs. Willis is the wife of the mayor of Atlantic Beach. Neither of the rine stationed at Camp Lejeune is being held in the county jail without bond on Hearing Today Sheriff C. G. Holland said yesterday that Dykman will be given ready to go to hed shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday night when there was a knock on the door. Her husband had already retired so she went to the door and asked the man standing there if she that name was there, he asked her to look up the name in the phone book. When she couldn't find the listing he asked her to look under

When that failed, Mrs. Moore said he asked to see the phone hook. "I opened the screen door and he came in," she continued, and I suggested several places for might be. When he didn't leave, I pushed the screen door open and be backed out, mumbling something I couldn't understand. Up to that time he talked all right, very nicely. Then he suddenly reached back, but I had hooked the door. He jerked it open, pulling out the hook. I tried to close the door but he put his foot inside.

"I called my husband, but he didn't hear. The man then asked me if my husband was there. I told him he was. Then he said, 'Prove it!' As he rolled up his fists to hit me, I screamed and ran to the bedroom door. My husband woke up and then, after throwing a botthe of beer at me, the man ran out the front door," she declared. Mrs. Moore said he had been holding the bottle in his hand all during the conversation. He was also wearing a Marine uniform.

Officer Called The Moores called the beach officer, Murphy Jenkins, and with Garth Cooper, Morehead City, they started searching the beach area Meanhile, Dykman went to the Willis home where he knocked and when Mrs. Willis went to the door he jumped on her and started to beat her about the face, inflicting Mrs. Willis screamed and wakened her husband, who with the others soon located Dykman at the Reachcombers, the motor court at intersection of the beach road sheriff stated yesterday that Dykman says he was drunk President Reports and Fort Macon road.

reported on the year's activities of the chamber to the board of di-rectors Friday night at the town

Included in the report were the following: Beaufort Armed Services Hospitality committee, oyster Carteret county's legislator, George W. Dill, jr., returned to his home in Morehead City late Sunday afternoon after helping to day afternoon after helping to Planning Board Draws New High wind caused a broken circuit at box 16 in Beaufort at 11:45 town board the Beaufort planning Saturday morning. The box 32 board met Thursday night and pull-

Saturday morning. The box 32 alarm rang and firemen answered the call but of course there was fire. They later discovered the damaged wire and after an hour, things were back in proper working order.

Morehead City firemen controlled a brush fire on 33rd st. Saturday, Gale-like winds are believed to meet on all grown on a Bay st. home in rotten shingles on a Bay st. home in the first fire, and flames spread throughout the service of the carried of the carried of the carried of the carried of the propose of the carried of the boundaries of the propose of the carried of the town board which is expected to meet on call prior to the regular meeting in May.

Norehead City late Sunday afternoon after helping to git the extension or exchange privise annexation plan will be prevised to the town board which is expected to meet on call prior to the regular meeting in May.

Morehead City late Sunday.

The schedule follows: Newport, 1 to 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Swanshut the service of the whole session or exchange privised annexation plan will be prevised annexation of the whole session. The beautoff of the whole sessio orted at only $50, however, due to the dilapidated condition of the cock parks.

From the Dr. Luther Fulcher property line the boundary will continue along Gallants creek and direct the speaker.

Serving on the recreation committee are Miss Tallman and Mrs. Marie Campen and on recreation stoves before lighting them. If too much kerosene is present, bail or mop the fluid out, cut the valve off, and open the draft and stove door. In this manner stoves will not become overheated.

THE NEWS-TIMES.

The legal procedure on the results of Secretary of State, Thad Eure. The corporation will deal in real estate. Authorized capital stock is $300 open. In this manner stoves will which has been objected to violently by the persons concerned.