Miss Wanda Johnson, Charles Godby Married

In an informal candlelight ceremony Saturday, April 7, at 8 o'clock in the evening in the First Christian church of Morehead City, Miss Wanda Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson of Atlantic Beach became the bride of Cpl. Charles Edward Godby, son of Mrs. Edith Godby, of Staunton, Va.

The Rev. R. T. Willis, jr., performed the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with English ivy, floral baskets filled with white iris and bridal wreath and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted white tapers. White satin bows marked the pews reserved for the family and honored guests.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Josephine Mzesko, pianist, and Miss Billie Watson, vocalist. The bride was gowned in a navy blue street length dress with navy blue accessories. She carried a white satin prayer book.

The maid of honor, Miss Marie Faircloth of Fayetteville, was dressed in a navy blue suit with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Cpl. Johnny Manzutto attended the groom as best man. Ushers were James Johnson and Eugene Steed, brother and cousin of the bride, respectively.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the civic center. The bride attended Morehead City high school and for the past several years has been employed at Sunshine Laundry.

The groom is stationed at the U. S. Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point.

After a short wedding trip the young couple are making their home on Atlantic Beach.
