On the Highway

Carteret County News-Times

A Merger of The Beaufort News (est. 1912) and The Twin City Times (est. 1936)

DITORIAL PAGE

TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1951

Three Upsets Rock Boxing World

Three upsets during the past two weeks rocked the boxworld. A high-pitched excited public is focusing a new stlight of interest on the squared-circle sport-and to say the least, several fighters' plans have been drastically altered. Carteret countians displayed more than usual interest when Rex Lavne climbed into the ring to meet Rocky Marchino July 12. Layne's brother, Elder David Layne is living In Carteret county as a representative of the Mormon church. By far the favorite, Rex had his sights set on the heavyweight crown but a punch by Rocky in the sixth round laid him low, lower than he has ever been laid before, and with him crashed his immediate hopes for the title held by Ez-

But this was merely the beginning. At Pittsburgh Wednesday Champ Charles bit the dust. Battered by Jersey Joe Walcott, Ezzy took the count of 10 less than one minute after the opening of the seventh round. Jersey Joe not only wrote his own ticket but entered a new twist in the history of boxing. He's the oldest fighter (just three years this side to take the heavyweight crown. Joe Louis, the fabled Brown Bomber, now in his 37th year, is impatiently awaiting his second crack at the title

Marshall Miles, Louis's manager, said the Bomber went bed "disgusted" Wednesday night because the Charles knockout puts him back at least six months in his plans to degain the title. Louis had been all set to meet Champion Charlie in New York in September, but now he must await the return bout between Charles and Walcott.

Meanwhile, across the heaving Atlantic, Sugar Ray Robon, the world's middleweight boxing king, got the heaveho at the hands of a 23-year-old Britisher, Randy Turpin. igar" lived up to his name socially, but met up unfamiliar type of pepper in the Earl's Court ring in London. A natural-born dancer, Sugar Ray was the darling of urope. He performed at benefits, posed for pictures, and basked in the adoration of the mobs that collected whenever he appeared in France, Italy, Belgium, Germany, and yes, even the last stop, London.

America's Sugar Ray Robinson was the 3-1 favorite. The fight went the whole way but Turpin had Sugar on the verge of a knockout in the 14th. Fight experts were astounded Turpin has a chance to prove he deserves the middleweight title when he comes to New York in September for a feturn bout with the fun-loving fighter, Ray Robinson.

And come to thing of it, all this topsy-turvy business in the upper brackets of the fight world started with a guy "Rocky." Tsk. tsk.

Among the Leaders in Linage

In May the Carteret County NEWS-TIMES ranked ninth among Greater Weeklies in national advertising linage (newspaper space is measured accurately by a "line" unit) and in ember of last year ranked sixth. "National advertising" refers to all that space bought by other than local businessmen or merchants whose business is confined to a relatively small area.

National advertising, automobile companies, cigarette farms, oil companies, realize that there is substantial buying ability in Cartret county served by a newspaper which reaches hat buying ability. Wise local merchants have the same faith as national advertisers when they consistently use the newspaper as their A-1 salesman.

National advertisers do not buy space willy-nilly. They spend their money on the basis of statistics, paying millions of ollars researching markets, locating buying power, and then determining the best method of tapping that buying power. On the basis of this alone a local advertiser would make a 100 per cent right decision in blindly following the national space buyor's example.

County stores carry almost everything needed in Carteret inty-but the problem is to find it. Unless the Carteret bussmen tells the public what he has, Mr. John Q. is not going be wear out his shoe leather looking. Either the mail order catalog will be flipped open or the car will come out of the pockets of its riders money that could just as well be spent We've always liked this truism: Doing business without dvertising is like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what u're doing but nobody else does.

We are pleased to rank among the top ten Greater Weeks in national linage, but we wouldn't be there except for fact that the big boys in the know are cognizant of the fact at Carteret county is an excellent market and to top it off, rteret county has a good newspaper which reaches that market.

Trees in Want

In the town of Newport whitewashed trees along the ints, to discourage tree-attacking insects, but more importat, to show motorists that trees are there.

At present the lower parts of the trun

At present the lower parts of the trunks, which should white, are practically the same shade as the upper parts lich have never been touched with brush.

The trees are practically on the shoulder of the highway and unless they are prominently marked, motorists, es-pecially at night, have difficulty seeing them.

suggest that the newly-installed town board get on the ball and get their trees whitewashed 'ere blood starts Blowing in the gutters.

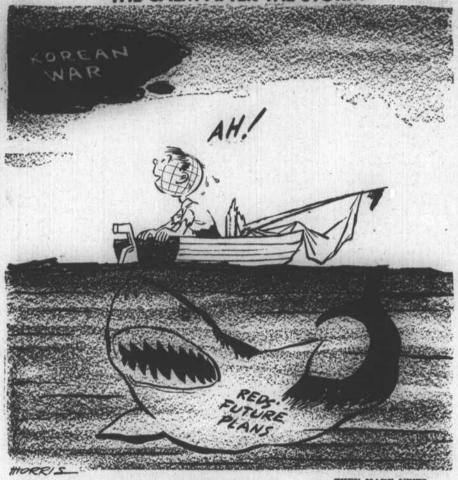

IP The kindly word that falls today, may bear its fruit tomor

CARTERET COUNTY NEWS-TIMES Carteret County's Newspaper

Merger of THE BEAUFORT NEWS (Est. 1912) and THE TWIN CITY TIMES (Est. 1936) Published Tuesdays and Fridays By THE CARTERET PUBLISHING COMPANY, INC. Lockwood Phillips - Publishers - Eleanore Dear Phillips Ruth Leckey Peeling, Executive Editor Publishing Office At 504 Arendell St., Morehead City, N. C. Mail Rates: In Carteret County, $6.00 one year, $3.50 stx months.

cond Class Matter at Morehead City, N. C. ted Press is entitled exclusively to use for repub-nd news printed in this newspaper, as well as all THE CALM AFTER THE STORM

In The Good Old Days

THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO

Miss Mary Bray of New Bern, who was visiting Miss Emily Dun-can, was complimented by David Duncan, who entertained at a sailing party for her.

A new department, the United States Employment Service, which would aid in recruiting labor war industries, was formed by the department of labor.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Miss Ellen Booth Lay, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George Lay, was married to Mr. Harold Hodgkinson of Worcester, Mass. Mr. Lay was rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Attending Mr. Hodgkinas ushers were Joseph House and Bayard Taylor.

The state was suffering from a heat wave. Raleigh had a temper ature of 102. Bayard Taylor's dry goods store was holding its second annual mid-summer sale.

TEN YEARS AGO

The county was joining the nation in a drive for cast-off aluminum pots and pans which would be turned over to the government to relieve the metal shortage in the building of airplanes and other

Daylight saving time was to be

The Department of Conservation and Development advocated the development of free bathing

FIVE YEARS AGO

Business firms and party boats were to enter floats in the Morehead City Water Festival which would be held in August.

new GM Diesel locomotive was placed in operation by the Atlantic and East Carolina rail-

Sou'easter

BY CAPTAIN HENRY

Miss Beaufort may not have wor the Miss North Carolina title. But she was head and shoulders above everyone else in the contest. They tell me that 5 feet almost 10 in ches tall is just the size that models should be

Last month when the town clerk mailed a check for the last pay-ment on the Dodge fire truck equipment, he wrote "Hallelujah" on the bottom of the check. The American - LaFrance corporation, Detroit, returned the check youcher and penned across its face was the relieved comment, "Amen!"

> AUTHOR OF THE WEEK

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE

Witter Bynner, who has been best known to the American read-ing public as a poet, may become better known as a prose writer thanks to his new work on D. H. Lawrence, the novelist, and Lawrence's German wife, Frieda. The book, called "Journey With Genius," records a friendship begun when Lawrence made his first visit to this country and spent his first night in an American home at Burney's in New Mexico. home at Bynner's, in New Mexico. Bynner was born in Brooklyn in 1881 and graduated from Harvard in 1902. The appearance in 1917 of "Grenston Poems" first called him importantly to public attention, and prior to the biography, his most recent work appeared in 1947.

Some of our elder citizens are distressed about the way the town cemetery was "cleaned up." They say it was burned up. I went by the other day and it looks cleaned up all right, but I couldn't say whether anything was removed that shouldn't have been, seems to me that the town cussed when it doesn't do anything and likewise gets cussed when it

I noted that a corner of the colored cemetery has been turned into a boat yard.

I heard a definition of an expert the other day and how true it is. An expert is anyone more than 150 miles from home with a

I see where the mayor of Morehead City doesn't like Morehead people 'calling Arendell street "Front Street" I don't blame him. "Front Street." I don't blame him. What if people would start calling our Front street "Arendell Street"? There would be confusion without

Almost every town in this nation that is built on a creek, river, bay or any body of water has a waterfront street. In most instances the street name designates that fact, but the name has been short-ened to either "Water Street" or "Front Street." As far as I know Arendell street near has been on Arendell street never has been on the water and never will be unless

Rumors that Procter and Gamble soap people are going to purchase a big chunk of land hereabouts for a "soap factory" have become most persistent. I've been hearing things like that for more than a year, but if a soap factory is as hard to grab hold of as a wet piece of soap, we may be hearing rumors for some time to come.

Smile a While

"Judge," cried the prisoner in the dock, "do I have to be tried by woman jury?"
"Be quiet," whispered his coun-

"I won't be quiet! Judge, I might as well confess I'm guilty. I can't even fool my own wife, let alone twelve strange women!'

From the way the Golden Rule has been obliberated, we're off the gold standard in several ways.)

THEY MAKE NEWS STAMPS

By Sid Kronish

THE COMMUNIST- controlled countries of the world have a way, somehow, of sticking togethereven if it be in the form of postage stamps.

Many of the nations behind the Iron Curtain have issued stamps dedicated to their close friendship with the Soviet Union or to some Soviet hero. purn, Russia has issued stamps showing comrade-ship with her satellites satellites. Eastern Germany (Soviet Zone) has just issued a set of three new stamps paying tribute to Red China. Two stamps, a 12 pfennig green and 50 pf blue, picture Mao-tse-tung, king-pin of the Chinese Com-

FRANCE has issued a special stamp honoring the National Museum at Epinal and picturing St. Nicholas, reports the New York Stamp Co. Epinal has been famous for centuries for its making o prints from original paintings and sketches. The one of St. Nicholas is by the artist Didier. The 15 franc stamp is red and blue.

TO CELEBRATE the 50th an niversary of the treaty of friendship between itself and Britain, Tonga has issued a set of five new stamps. Tonga is a samll group of islands in the South Pacific. Since the dates are 1900-1950 it is evident that the set is a year late arriving on the philatelic scene. Queen Salote is pictured on two of the stamps. The values are from the 1 pence to the 1 shilling.

DOMINICA has issued a new set of 15 stamps, 14 of which are pictorials. This set indicates a departure in Dominican stamps in that the denominations are in dollars and cents rather than in the British pound currency.

Each stamp illustrate's a vignet-the right. Such scenic spots as ing Lake, Layou River, Fresh Water Lake, Botanical Gardens are depicted. Also shown are peo-ple picking oranges, drying co-coa, making baskets, drying va-nilla beans. The lowest denomination, a half cent brown, bears a portrait of the King only.

FEZZAN, in North Africa, has issued a set of 12 regular pictorials and two airmails. The regulars range from the 1 franc to the 50 francs. Depicted are natives en-gaged in agriculture, irrigation and camel raising. The high values illustrate a likeness of ruler Bey Ahmed. The airmails are 100 franc-blue and 200 fr red. They show views of a plane flying over famous Fessan landmarks.

ON THE HOUSE

BY DAVID G. BAREUTWER -

PECKING OUT this column with one hand, because of a broken arm, I feel especially qualified to offer the householder a few tips on how to behave like a handyman.

In brief, be careful. A practical philosopher has added to the familiar line "There's No Place Like Home . . . for an accident."

If it takes big figures to convince you, consider the latest report of the National Safety Council-27,500 persons were killed in accidents around the home in the United States last year and millions were painfully injured.

While we are now in the midst of the painting season; with amateurs scrambling up and down ladders, it's timely to look into some of the dangers that lurk in innocent daubing.

YOU'D NEVER think there were hazards in painting lawn furniture.

would you. You spread some newspapers on the garage floor, stir the paint and start to work. But look out! Any paint spatters or paint that spills can floor you faster than a banana peel when you inadvertently step on them. You'll find that wiping up paint as you go along will not only prevent accidents, but will make your cleanup job easier afterwards.

And put out that cigarette. Some paints, lacquers and quickdrying enamels give off vapors are highly inflammable. which When such vapors are mixed with air in proper proportions they will explode from a static spark, a lighted pipe, cigar or cigarette.

Ventilation is a must while you are painting indoors. Many persons are allergic to the odor and fumes of paint, and all other persons can be affected by over-ex-

It's a good idea to prevent babies from chewing paint off toys, cribs, etc., unless you know that the ingredients of the paints are non-poison-

And guard your eyes when painting. Methyl alcohol (methanol) can paralyze the optic nerve, causing temporary or even permanent blindness. When painting a ceiling be careful not to let any kind of paint fall in your eyes. Wear a cap with a visor and put a shield on your brush to keep paint from dripping down the handle. Sometimes a painter will slit a sponge and pass it up the handle, or half of a rubber ball is slit and pressed on, cup side up.

CEILING JOBS are risky in general. If you attempt to patch the plaster get a helper to support loose parts while you remove pieces carefully to avoid an avalanche of falling plaster.

Use only a sturdy step ladder for reaching high places. To pile up chairs, tables and boxes to climb upon is an invitation to that haggard ghost with a scythe. Whenever you place a can of paint on top of a ladder, or on its drop shelf, be sure it sits securely. If you move the ladder, take the paint can off first. Never attempt to move a ladder with a can of paint Don't try to save time by reaching far out from the ladder. Get down and move the ladder. That's the way to save time in a hospital. When you have finished painting, your job is not done. Pick up every piece of equipment, clean it and store it safely. Don't leave tools around for someone to trip over and be careful of sharp tools when Dispose of all inflammable rubbish and oily rags. To put them away for future use risks spontaneous combustion.

Hollywood

ed him not to owim down stream into that factory waste.

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood-Walt Disney's "Alice In Wonderland" is a supercharged fantasy from his magic inkwells. Adapted from "Alice" and its companion classic, "Through The Looking Glass," the all-cartoon feature imaginatively takes the little English girl through her best-remembered adventures.

There's the mad tea party, where steaming pots play a calliope chor us. Ed Wynn supplies the voice of the Hatter and Jerry Colonna that of the March Hare. A wonderfully haughty caterpillar blows smoke letters of the alphabet as he talks. Sterling Holloway vocalizes for the striped Cheshire Cat, who can disappear and leave only his enormous

The Walrus and the Carpenter, Tweedledee and Tweedledum, the White Rabbit, the Queen of Hearts with a precise army of playing cards—all cavort in this colorful picturization of the 85-year-old tales of Lewis Carroll. One of the chorus of wildflowers come to life; a chrysanthemum is a shaggy poodle furiously barking at Alice. Shovel birds, spectacle birds, um-brella and pencil birds inhabit the trees, and a dog sweeps a magic walkway into oblivion with his whiskbroom nose.

"JOE BEAVER"

To this confirmed Disney fan, however, "Alice" didn't seem quite up to par on the whole. The determined madness of her dream world hypoed and exaggerated almost beyond endurance at times. Some of the frantic dialogue can't be understood. There are no characters as captivating as, say, malicious cat and Gus-Gus the mouse in "Cinderella." Still, the film, in the works several years, shows great imaginative effort in more than half a million drawings. Alice's voice is supplied by Kathryn Beaumont, a 12-year-old English actress

Taut direction and interesting camera work make "Iron Man" a better movie than the routine church, and must attend Sunday school regularly.

By Ed Nofziger

they go to prayer meeting.
7. After 14 hours in the store, the leisure hours should be spent

Maestro, American Style

cting the New York Philham ic Orchestra, a few years back, there occurred a trivial digression in rehearsal that was to have sig-nificant results. Toscanini wished to hear a certain passage from the rear of the auditorium, and called for a volunteer in the orchestra to step forward. Toscanini then mo-tioned to his first viola player, Leon Barzin. The meek viola player hesitated, but not daring to disobey his maestro, took the baton. While he conducted the great orchestra in the desired passage, Toscanini hovered silently in the darkness of the unlit hall.

He made no comment until the passage had been completed, and he had returned to the stage. Then he said simply, "Leon, put away your instrument. You are going to

It is seldom that a player in a musical organization becomes a conductor, and despite his sudden conductor, and despite his sudden and dramatic success, Leon Barain learned from experience the difficulties of a career in music. He encountered many passing clouds in the treacherous path of a musician, but they were not enough to prevent his becoming a full-fledged conductor in 1929. He has been guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic, Minneapolis Symphony, St. Louis Symphony, and Buffalo Philharmonic.

The modern house is the one in which a switch regulates every-thing but the children.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

GEORGE HEISLER BUCHER. born July 24, 1888, in Sunbury, Pa. Bucher was president of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation from 1934 to 1946 and its vice chairman from 1946 until early 1951. He is now a director of the company and chairman of the board of its foreign selling subsidiary house Electric In ernational Bucher started George Bucher his business ca-reer with the Westinghous Co. He lives in Pittsburgh.

Way Back When . . .

The following rules, vintage of the 1880's, were posted in an Am-boy, Ill., store, operated by the founders of what is now called, Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., of Chicago: 1. Store must be open from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. the year 'round,

2. Store must be swept; counters, shelves and showcases dusted; lamps trimmed, filled and chimneys cleaned; pens made; doors and windows opened; a pail of water and a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast. (If there is time to do so, attend to customers who call.) 3. The store must not be opened on the Sabbath unless necessary and then only for a few minute 4. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish eigars, being shaved at the barber's, going to dances and other places of amusement will assuredly give his employer reason to be suspicious of his integrity and honesty.

5. Each employee must pay not less than $5.00 per year to the

6. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting, two if for the most part in reading

When Arturo Toscanini was con-

take his baton.

No one proved bold enough to