IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of my dear husband, William Lee Hatsell, who departed this life one year ago today, July 31, 1950.
The blow was hard.
The shock severe.
I never realized your death so near.
And only those who have lost can tell.
The pain of parting without a farewell.
Keep him dear Jesus, in thy keeping.
Till I reach the golden shore.
Then dear Lord, let me have him back.
And love him as I did before.
Wife, Elva.

MARINES WIN
Peel, P. Cordova, and Klux in order in the sixth and final frame.
The Legion's Moody, with two for two, was the only player with more than one bingle. Sullivan, Arnold, and Lindsey garnered the other Legion hits while Geer, Dunn, P. Cordova, Norwood, and Adams each had one hit for the Jaycees.
Line score:
Jaycees . . . 000 030-3 5 3
Marines . . . 302 00x-5 5 1

NOTES
Failure to hustle cost the Marines a run-scoring opportunity in the fifth. With Moody on first and one down, Lindsey banged a sharp bouncer right at third baseman T. Cordova. Cordova picked the ball up cleanly and Moody stopped running. Thus when second baseman Dunn dropped the throw he had plenty of time to run after it, pick it up, and return to the bag in time to force Moody.
The game began 45 minutes late and it was necessary to clear the field for the second game of the double-header after six innings.
Marine pitcher Bill Cody was very sharp. He walked only one man while striking out four, and three of the five hits off his deliveries were of the infield variety.

LEGION
the complete disinterest in softball shown by the local populace. We have seen two twin-bills now, and in both cases the players outnumbered the fans by at least four-to-one. Hence it matters little that a player miss his turn at bat, as did Odd Fellow lead off man Steed in the second. This may not be the best softball league in the nation but it is easily the most haphazard.

Moe Willis Stars On Mound As Harkers Island Wins 7-2
Moe Willis pitched and batted Harkers Island to a 7-2 win over Beaufort Sunday in a Salt Water league tussle.
Willis stopped Beaufort with five hits, and pounded out a home run, double, and single. Beaufort's Frank Garner-ed two of the five hits off Willis.
Harkers Island picked up nine hits, and six Beaufort miscues made things easy for Willis.

opening frame. His clout went into the confused head of Thomas went into the woods and never was found.
Left fielder George Bay had three for three to pace the Beaufort attack, and Cahill and Graybill had two apiece. The aged Mr. Hassell of Beaufort managed to see service at four positions before the six-inning contest was completed. He started out catching, then moved to left field, to short stop, and right field. . . Marshallberg had only eight men at game time, and had to wait for nearly an hour before a ninth man showed up. That was Brogan, a catcher who had not caught a baseball game in years. This fact was obvious whenever he tried to throw the ball to second. Seven hops was about par for Brogan, while he generally made the pitcher's mound in three.
