District Head Speaks to Rotary

Rotary clubs have mushroomed in the last few decades, until today 7,000 of them are scattered all over the world.

This was the statement made by David Britt, 279th district governor of Rotary International Thursday night. He addressed the Morehead City Rotarians in the Sunday school rooms of the First Baptist church.

Rotarians, Britt stated, hope to aid the cause of world peace by fostering fellowship on the group level.

Rotarian H. S. Gibbs, sr., celebrated his 25th consecutive year with the club. Down through all those decades Gibbs has never missed a meeting. His fellow Rotarians acclaimed it as quite a record.

The meeting closed with the usual song fest. Robert Taylor conducted the singing and Dr. Eugene Roelofs played the piano.

Patrolmen Crack Down On Guffed Muffler Addicts

Carteret county state highway patrolmen today issued a warning to motorists with guffed mufflers, stating that unless the proper type muffler is on the car, the driver will be arrested.

Patrolmen have been warning drivers during the past week that guffed mufflers were not permitted. They said that if a second warning has to be issued, the driver will be ordered to appear in court.

Episcopalians Consult Bishop on Plans for Church

Morehead City members of the Episcopal church met Sunday evening with Bishop Thomas Wright to discuss plans for building an Episcopal church in Morehead City.

The Rev. Winfrey Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church, Beaufort, reported yesterday that the new church will not be ready for the 68th annual session of the Atlantic Baptist association Oct. 25 and 26. The First Baptist church is host.

Construction on the church has been extremely slow, mainly because the contractor has been involved in numerous other construction jobs, the pastor said. The contract was let for $42,000 to E. C. Willis and Sons of Morehead City more than a year ago. Construction began about six months ago.

When the association convenes in Beaufort next month, it will be the sixth time the First Baptist church has been host since the organization of the association in 1884.

Dr. John H. Bunn, pastor of the First Baptist church, Morehead City, will deliver the annual association sermon. He will also serve as clerk for the 11th consecutive year. M. Leslie Davis of Beaufort, moderator, will round out 38 years in that capacity.

The Beaufort church was host to the association in 1891, 1901, 1921, 1931, and 1941. One session was held there in 1875. The Atlantic Baptist association includes churches in Carteret, and parts of Onslow, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties.

The new sanctuary, of concrete block construction with brick veneer, will be furnished with new pews. It is being built next to the present church on Ann street, Beaufort.

July Highway Fatalities Make New 1951 Record

Raleigh.—Carnage on the highways of the state continued unabated in July with 93 persons killed and 1,362 injured, according to the regularly monthly summary of traffic accidents compiled by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Deaths and injuries from highway mishaps in July were the highest reported for the year. Deaths were up 18 per cent over the 79 fatalities reported in July 1950 and personal injuries showed a 23 per cent increase over the same month last year.

The highest previous death toll was recorded in December 1950 when 110 persons were killed.

Of the 93 fatalities reported during July, 42 deaths were attributed to collisions of motor vehicles, an increase of 35 per cent over last year. Running off the roadway and overturning accounted for 36 deaths and an increase of 80 per cent over figures for July 1950.

Single fatalities were recorded in each of the following type accidents: Bicycle, fixed object and non-collision.

One bright note in the otherwise grim report was a 33 per cent decrease in pedestrian fatalities. A total of 12 pedestrian deaths was reported in July with 10 of them occurring in rural areas. There were 111 pedestrians injured in the same month. In July 1950 the department recorded 18 pedestrian deaths and 77 injured. Two municipalities reported one pedestrian death each; they were Asheville and Crossnore.

Accidents in rural areas accounted for the greater number of deaths and injuries. Percentage-wise 89 per cent of the total number of traffic fatalities reported to the department occurred in rural areas. Accidents occurring on U. S. numbered highways claimed 43 lives and injured 459.

Twenty persons were killed and 193 injured on state-numbered highways and wrecks on county and local roads took 20 lives and injured 267.

The department noted the following violations involved in accidents reported during July: 671 speeding violations; 687 drivers failed to give the right-of-way; 540 were on wrong side of road; 313 were following too closely; and 213 were driving drunk.

Six counties lead the state during July with four fatalities each. They were: Alamance, Buncombe, Chatham, Cherokee, Richmond, and Rockingham.

Next with three fatalities each were: Iredell, Johnston, Mecklenburg, Montgomery, and Robeson.

Forty-eight counties, of which Carteret was one, reported no fatalities.

Civic Group Will Ask for More Time To Raise $5,000

The general civic committee will ask the town board tonight to allow them more time on raising the $5,000 needed for the rehabilitation of the USO, said A. B. Roberts, chairman.

Roberts feels that if the committee has not collected the necessary amount by today they will have come so close that the town officials will be inclined to grant them an extension of time.

As of Saturday afternoon, the committee had collected nearly $4,000 in pledges and a few hundred in cash gifts.

Friday afternoon Clyde Jones, Rotarian, was interviewed on the air. He aired the general committee's views on the necessity of keeping the USO. On Saturday Judge Luther Hamilton did the same.

The Lions of Morehead City collected $690 toward the project at their Thursday night meeting, and $99 the next day.

OPS Office Terms Compliance Good

Raleigh.—The Eastern North Carolina Office of Price Stabilization said today that "compliance with OPS regulations by business firms of all types in Eastern Carolina is exceptionally good."

Acting OPS Director Alton G. Murchison declared: "We wish to extend our congratulations to our business people throughout Eastern Carolina for an unsurpassed spirit of cooperation and patriotism in their willingness to comply with price stabilization regulations."

Murchison pointed to 93.3 per cent compliance among wholesale grocers, 94 per cent compliance among retail grocers, 89 per cent compliance among the 3,000-odd retailers who are required to file pricing charts as "indicative of the most gratifying sort of cooperation at a time when high prices and the tense international situation has everybody worried."

The OPS said, however, that "a much smaller percentage of firms selling services at retail" have filed necessary service charge price lists, now overdue. This group includes firms offering services encountered daily by the public, among them are banks, building and loan associations, auto, radio and household appliance repairs, laundry, dry cleaning and tailor shops, shoe repairs, parking lots, filling stations, bowling alleys, golf fees, admissions to amusement parks, county state fairs and a host of other services.

Even Yankees Buy Confederate Flags

By Austin Adkinson

Columbia, S. C. —(AP)—The Flag of the Confederacy waves over a lot of Yankee territory now, courtesy of Clarence T. Langley.

Confederate flags in various sizes are fast-moving items in Langley's flag workshop and store here.

Helping to revive interest in the Southern flag is the training at nearby Fort Jackson of the 31st (Dixie) Infantry Division.

Originally an Alabama-Mississippi National Guard outfit, the division now is laced liberally with Yankees. Its flag is the Confederate Stars and Bars.

And a transplanted Yankee, as any Southerner can tell you, often works up more interest in the south and southern lore in a short stay than some natives do in a lifetime.

Of course there always is some local demand for Confederate flags. This apparently has been increased by the flag fad the soldiers started. Langley finds the two-by-three foot battleflag the most popular of the banners he makes here. This has the familiar white-starred blue cross on a red field.

More Arrests Expected

Four boys, one a minor, were arrested yesterday morning at Newport on charges of breaking and entering two Newport places of business and taking cigars, cigarettes, candy, soft drinks, shells, bullets, and air rifles.

They are Will Gillikin and Earl Joyner, both 16 years of age, Newport, J. D. Arnold, 17, Mill Creek, and another boy from Mill Creek who is under 16 years of age.

Other arrests are expected to be made within the next several days, according to Deputy Sheriff Marshall Ayscue. Yesterday's arrests followed an investigation by R. H. Brown, state highway patrolman, who lives in Newport. The arrests climaxed a series of petty thieveries in the Newport section during the past few weeks.

Entered early Sunday morning was Ira Garner's service station where items valued at less than $50 were taken. This service station has been burglarized recently about three times, according to Deputy Sheriff Ayscue.

Also entered within the past few days was Roy Garner's feed store where chewing gum, and similar items were taken.

None of the boys has been placed under bond. All have given assurance that they will appear in court when summoned. Because the investigation is continuing, a hearing in recorder's court is not expected to take place until next Tuesday.

Marines Request Change in Zone

The Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, Wilmington, has received a request from the commanding general, Marine barracks, Camp Lejeune, that the existing danger zone of navigable waters extending seaward in the Atlantic ocean off Onslow beach, be amended as follows:

Atlantic Ocean from New River Inlet to Browns Inlet. The waters within a sector of a circle bounded by radius of 25,000 yards from latitude 34° 45' 15", longitude 77° 16' 10" and bearing 85° true from latitude 34° 35' 35", longitude 77° 13' 54" and bearing 205° true from latitude 34° 32' 37", longitude 77° 18' 34" on Onslow Beach and all points in the area bounded by the two above sectors and extending normal to the shore line seaward 25,000 yards.

No changes in the regulations which govern navigation in the danger zone have been proposed.

If there are any objections to the proposed change, which supersedes the notice sent out from the Corps of Engineers June 14, 1951, they should be sent to the office of the district engineer, Wilmington, no later than Monday, Sept. 24.

A map showing the existing area and the area which is now desired to be included in the danger zone may be seen at Wilmington, 308 Customhouse, or at the post offices at Sneads Ferry, Swansboro, Beaufort, or Morehead City.

Three Persons Receive Injuries In Auto Wrecks

Three persons were injured in two weekend accidents in the county. They were Mrs. Clarence Piner, Beaufort route 1, James Rose, Harkers Island, and Alton Earl Swain, Beaufort. In a third mishap, no one was injured.

Mrs. Piner and Rose received lacerations at 5:10 p.m. Saturday when the four-door sedan being driven by Clarence Piner was involved in a wreck with a 1949 pickup truck driven by Jesse Wade, Beaufort route 1.

The accident occurred two and a half miles east of Beaufort on highway 70 in front of Wade's grocery. According to State Highway Patrolman H. G. Woolard, Wade started driving his car from in front of the grocery, which he owns and operates, across the road to the other side, when Piner, who was proceeding east, struck the truck in the rear right fender, causing an estimated $600 damage. Damage to the car was estimated at $250.

Rose, who received a gash on his forehead, had a couple stitches put in it at the Morehead City hospital, and Mrs. Piner, who suffered lacerated knees, was also treated at the hospital.

Piner, who is in the Army, has had no charges placed against him as yet. Wade is being charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Swain, 405 Hedrick st., Beaufort, had his mouth seriously cut at 11 o'clock Sunday morning when the 1940 two-door car he was driving ran off the road two miles east of Beaufort on highway 70 and hit a culvert. He has been charged with driving without an operator's license.

Swain told Patrolman Woolard that he went to sleep, ran off the left side of the highway, struck the culvert and went into a ditch. Damage to the car was estimated at $300.

Lewis Collins, colored, of Merrimon, has been charged with speeding in excess of 35 miles per hour as the result of an accident at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the highway 101 and 70 intersection. According to Patrolman Woolard, Collins, who was proceeding east on 70 in a 1949 pickup truck, failed to make the curve, skidded, went off the right shoulder of the road, then the truck spun around and hit a pole.

Damage to the truck was estimated at $500. Collins was uninjured.
