Miss Rice Becomes Bride Of Sgt. John Pharis Friday

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Mann of Morehead City announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Rice, to Sgt. John Vallerie Pharis, Jr., USMC, Cherry Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Pharis of Alexandria, Louisiana.

The wedding took place at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, November 23, in St. Egbert's Catholic church with Father Gabriel Stephens officiating.

The bride wore a gown of navy blue taffeta with full skirt and short princess jacket and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Robert Moody, the bride's only attendant, wore a purple suit and corsage of white flowers.

Best man was Sgt. Robert Moody of Cherry Point.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and decorated with ivy and small white mums. In the center was a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake.

Sgt. and Mrs. Pharis are at home at the Channel apartments, Beaufort.

Women's Auxiliary Will Sponsor Cake Sale Saturday

The women's auxiliary of the St. Andrew's Episcopal church will sponsor a cake and pie sale Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in front of the Morehead City Drug store.

The proceeds from this sale will go to the church fund.

Chocolate, coconut, pineapple, spiced and coffee cakes, cookies, candies and assorted pies will be on sale.

Advanced orders can be placed for cakes or pies by calling Mrs. Gus Davis, chairman, or Mrs. J. R. Morrill, president of the Women's auxiliary.

Two Initiated
Mrs. Nell McBride and Mrs. Edna Piner were initiated into the Order of Eastern Star, Morehead City chapter No. 223, at the recent meeting. Plans were made for another initiation at the next regular meeting and refreshments were served.

Miss Shirley Willis Becomes Bride of Harrell K. Baldree

Miss Shirley Rosemond Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harold Willis of Morehead City, became the bride of Mr. Harrell Kittrell Baldree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley K. Baldree also of Morehead City, Friday, November 23, at 7:30 in the evening in the Franklin Memorial Methodist church.

The Rev. W. D. Caviness of Goldsboro assisted by the Rev. A. L. Reynolds performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums, smilax and pine. Lighted candles provided the only illumination.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Truman Newberry, Raleigh, and Mrs. Josiah Bailey, Jr., soloist, sang O Promise Me, The Sweetest Story Ever Told, and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white duchess satin with charmingly lace yoke and panel extending down the front of the skirt. The bodice was fashioned on basque lines and buttoned to waistline. Long lace sleeves terminated in a point at the wrist and the skirt extended into a long circular train. The three-tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a hat of lace and seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations centered with a royal bouquet orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Liske of Lexington, wore a gown of pastel green net over tulle, satin bodice with net stole, matching head dress and gloves and carried a ballerina bouquet of yellow carnations tied with spice satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Jerome Hunneycutt of Goldsboro, Miss Olive Taylor of Beaufort, Miss Barbara Willis and Miss Addie Jane Willis, wore shrimp colored gowns styled the same as the matron of honor and carried ballerina bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was Mr. William B. Willis and ushers were Mickey Woolard, Ray Lewis, Richard Spears, USCG, and William Anderson, Durham.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the civic center. Mrs. Leslie Day greeted the guests at the door and the bride and groom, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis, the groom's mother, Mrs. Baldree and the bridesmaids were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Lesta Willis was in charge of the bride's book and Mrs. C. C. Land, Mrs. Walter Lewis and Mrs. Cecil Langdale served punch while Mrs. W. D. Caviness, Mrs. Billie Arrington, and Mrs. Herman Guthrie served cake.

The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of aqua lace and a corsage of white royal bouquet orchids.

The mother of the groom wore a floor length gown of dusty rose crepe and a corsage of lavender orchids.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a suit of grey wool with black velvet collar and cuffs, black accessories and a corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Morehead City high school and is employed at the Carolina Telephone co.

The groom is a graduate of Morehead City high school and is employed in the Air Corps. He is now employed at the East Drive-In theatre.

After a short trip through the southern states the couple will be at home at 2207 Arendell st.

Miss Shirley Willis Honored At Three Nuptial Parties

Prior to her marriage Friday night, November 23, to Mr. Harrell Kittrell Baldree, Miss Shirley Willis was honored at a number of showers.

The first was at the home of Miss Betsy Wade with Miss Olive Taylor of Beaufort and Miss Barbara Willis as co-hostesses.

Miss Willis was presented a corsage of pink carnations by the hostesses who also gave her a gift of china in her chosen pattern.

The green and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations and green and white bridal cake was served.

The home of Mrs. Lester Willis, who was assisted in hosting by Mrs. Leslie Day, was the scene of another shower on Monday, November 12. A Thanksgiving motif was carried out in the decorations.

The guest of honor received a corsage of red roses and a pickle fork in her pattern from the hostesses.

Brownies, orange ice, nuts, and mints were served.

On November 8 six hostesses, Mrs. Emmett Russell of Beaufort, Mrs. Kenneth Ellred, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Garland Willis, aunts of the bride-elect, Mrs. Walter Lewis and Mrs. C. C. Land, honored Miss Willis with a shower at the civic center.

White carnations and white gladiolus were used in the decorations which carried out a green and white color scheme.

The hostesses presented the honor guest with a corsage of pink roses and a gift of china in her pattern.

Lime punch and bridal cookies were served.

Mrs. Baldree Entertains Wedding Guests Thursday

Mrs. S. K. Baldree was hostess at her home Thursday afternoon at a coffee hour to entertain the Willis-Baldree wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Baldree greeted guests at the door and Mrs. Evelyn White and Mrs. Preston Andrews of Durham presided at the coffee table which was beautifully decorated with flowers, wedding cake topped with bride and groom statuettes, and lighted candles.

Dr. Roelofs Reviews Book At Woman's Club Meeting

The literary and art department of the Woman's club enjoyed an educational program given by Dr. Eugene Roelofs of the Institute of Fisheries Research at their meeting last Tuesday at the civic center. Dr. Roelofs gave a review of the book, The Sea Around Us, by Miss Rachael Carson, and showed slides of marine life.

During the business session, with Mrs. A. B. Roberts, chairman, presiding, the members voted to give $10 to CARE for Korea and $10 for the little symphony drive.

One new member, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, was welcomed.

After the close of the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed. Coffee, cake and nuts were served by the hostesses, Mrs. B. F. Royal and Mrs. D. J. Eure.

St. Egbert's Auxiliary Will Meet Wednesday Night

The Ladies Auxiliary of St. Egbert's Catholic church will meet at the rectory Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Plans will be made for a Christmas party and hostess for the evening will be Mrs. T. H. Hardy.

The meeting was postponed last Wednesday because of the holiday.

Mrs. Theodore Economen Presents Topic to Guild

Mrs. Theodore Economen presented the topic, "The Cross is Not Greater Than His Grace," at the recent meeting of the Wesleyan Guild at Mrs. Economen's home.

Mrs. Clyde Willis spoke on "Economics South of the Border" and Mrs. Fred Lewis presented the devotional. The new pastor, the Rev. Leon Couch and his family were guests.

Mrs. Economen, chairman, presided at the business session. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. H. H. Harris, Jr.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Elmer Nichols and Mrs. C. B. Wade, served jello with whipped cream, cake, and candy.

Shake the can of baking powder or container of baking soda lightly before measuring since both ingredients have a tendency to pack down.
