

Citrus Fruits Belong On Christmas Tables

Tangerine jelly . . . that little Christmas gift.

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

Largest of our fruit crop, and at its peak in quality right now, citrus fruit can be used to advantage on holiday tables and can also be made into attractive gifts. Grapefruit halves always appeal to me as a starter for a festive dinner because they're easy to prepare and are a refreshing tangy beginning for a big meal. But to give the grapefruit halves a Christmas touch:

Festive Grapefruit Halves

Cut grapefruit in half. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. Cut slice of cranberry jelly with small sharp knife into small Christmas tree; place in center of grapefruit half and garnish with silver balls. Cut thin slice of citron into tiny leaves. Arrange with cinnamon candies around center of another grapefruit half to resemble a Christmas wreath.

For a delightful snack, or for dessert when some of the family and guests eschew the heavier puddings and pies, serve tangerines this way:

Tangerine Poinsettias

Cut tangerine peel into six sections; peel down one-half of the way but do not remove. Cut sections of peel with scissors into fine slivers. Spread sections apart sunburst-fashion; fill centers with semi-sweet chocolate or salted nuts.

Little jars of jelly make excellent gifts for friends who happen by during the holidays. Here is a delightful one to tuck under the Christmas tree:

Tangerine Jelly

Ingredients: 3 cups canned sweetened tangerine juice, 1 box powdered fruit pectin, 3½ cups sugar.

Method: Put tangerine juice in large saucepan. Place over high heat, add fruit pectin, and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 7 six-ounce glasses.

Festive grapefruit . . . holiday table treat.

Good Grooming Has Many Aspects

By Ruth Current
State Home Demonstration Agent

Good grooming is more than just being sure that clothes are spotless, hair neat, fingernails clean, stocking seams straight and shoes polished. Good grooming reaches its outward expression in clothes, make-up, hair and voice. And that goes for any age, any place, any financial state.

Good grooming is not dependent on lots of money. All anyone needs is a real desire to be well-groomed, plus determination to put that desire into action. An orderly well-groomed mind demands the same kind of body — inside as well as out. If the outside is to be kept well-groomed, the inside must be too. The undesirable signs of poor diet are unsightly skin conditions, lackluster eyes and a general air of sluggishness that takes the edge off a well-groomed appearance no matter how smart the clothes.

The daily bath, daily use of deodorant, the twice daily teeth cleaning, weekly manure — these are simple habits, easy to form. A full length mirror will tell you how well-groomed you are. How's the posture? Do you stand straight and tall, head up? Or do your shoulders slump and the chest sag, and tummy bulge? Is weight balanced on both feet, or all on one side so the hip juts out? Good posture is just as much a part of good grooming as is cleanliness.

New Town

Jakarta, Indonesia (AP) — A new town is rising from the chocolate-brown earth 10 miles from here to ease the over-population in this tight-packed republic capital. It is planned to transform 1,685 acres of this fruit and vegetable-growing area for the future occupation of 40,000 people.

Specialist Advises Chick Ordering by Dec. 15

"Order early to get the kind of chicks you want," is the advice of a poultry specialist at State college.

Thomas B. Morris says poultrymen who want quality chicks for 1952 should place their orders as early as possible. Hatchery books are usually filled early for the better bred chicks. Your order should be placed by the middle of December in order to get the best chicks when you want them," he says.

The specialist advises growers to consider the breeding behind the chicks they plan to buy. Producers who are not familiar with a particular breed or strain, he adds, should consult their county agent or other agricultural adviser.

Morris also suggests checking the laying house at this time of year for drafts. A little time spent in checking on the comfort of the flock, he points out, may pay well in continued good egg production.
