

'Flame of Araby' Plays At Beaufort Theatre

Universal-International's spectacular "Flame of Araby," showing today and tomorrow at the Beaufort theatre, cleverly combines Technicolor beauty with daring adventure and desert romance.

The film stars Maureen O'Hara, long regarded as the queen of Technicolor, and rugged Jeff Chandler, star of "Iron Man" who today is considered the hottest star in Hollywood.

Story concerns the attempt by desert outlaws Lon Chaney and Buddy Baer to wrest a kingdom from Maureen O'Hara, cast in the colorful film as Princess Tanya. Jeff Chandler, in the role of Tamirane, rescues Miss O'Hara and wins her hand in marriage.

Congressmen Protest Against Taking IQ Test

New York. — (AP) — Congressmen don't always agree, but 25 of them recently were unanimous in turning down an invitation to take an intelligence quiz.

The 28-question test, prepared at the request of a magazine (Why) by a psychological-testing bureau, was submitted to the group of house and senate members. Typical queries were "Who wrote the Declaration of Independence?" and "Who is the prime minister of Iran?"

Editors of the publication said the lawmakers were explicit and vehement in their reactions. The names of the congressmen were not disclosed.
