Will Smith to Serve 60-Day Sentence: Robert Penns Pays $100 Fine, Costs

Walter Davis gave notice of appeal to superior court Monday when he was found guilty of public drunkenness and sentenced to 30 days on the roads. Because Davis broke terms of a former suspended sentence, Judge George McNeill ordered that the former sentence be imposed, both terms to run concurrently.

Davis's appeal bond was set at 100. Will Smith pleaded guilty to public drunkenness. He, too, vio-lated a former sentence and Judge McNeill ordered that Smith serve the first sentence of 30 days, fol-lowed by an additional 30. Robert Penns pleaded guilty to

At a call meeting of the Beauort town board Wednesday night William Otis Willis, Beaufort RFD, was employed as police officer to replace Bertie Clyde Piner who has resigned, and Dr. N. T. Ennett, health officer, requested that the town take action to improve health and sanitary conditions.

The new-employed police officer will begin his duties the first of next month. He served four years in the Navy and has been with the Beaufort Quick Freeze plant as engineer for the past five years. Other applicants considered for the position of police officer were John Glover and William B. Lewis, both of Beaufort, and Clarence L. Davis, Highland Park. The board took no action on pro-posals by the health officer. Certain matters will be investigated and discussed at the April board meeting, they decided. Dr. Ennett proposed that an ordinance be passed prohibiting display of food or merchandise of hat type on the outside of stores.

He suggested that no hog pens, dog kennels, or chicken yards be per-mitted, and added that trash or garbage should not be allowed to e thrown in the water along Front He pointed out that a state law prohibits throwing of any type of dead animal, including fish, in the The health officer suggested that a board of review be estab
