Sonny McDonald won the election as president of the student council after much campaigning for both him and David Freshwater. Jackie Taylor is vice-president, defeating Joe Dixon; Annette Guthrie, secretary and treasurer, won over Bernice Willis; Corrine Webb is junior representative, James B. Willis, sophomore and Helen Carlton, freshman.

The annual spring concert of the high school band will be presented Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium. Featured will be waltzes, marches, the Clarion Quartet, Ave Maria, Joshua, sax solos, and the popular Three O'Clock in the Morning.

Mr. Ralph Wade, director, told me yesterday that he has had several requests for Bill Merrill to repeat the drum solo that was such a great hit in the winter concert. If Mr. Wade feels that the audience really wants him to, Bill will use Drumnastics for his encore.

Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Bobbitt Honored Guests at Luncheon

Mrs. S. W. Thompson was hostess Wednesday at a bridge luncheon honoring her sister, Mrs. Thomas Woods of Clarkton and Mrs. Sam Bobbitt of Raleigh.

The living room, dining room and den, where tables were arranged for play, were beautifully decorated with blooming azaleas, tulips and snapdragons.

Upon arrival of the guests, a luncheon plate was served, after which four progressions of bridge were played.

When scores were compiled, Mrs. Darden Eure was high and won a "krispy kan." Mrs. Alvah Hamilton, second, received a set of oil and vinegar cruets. For consolation prize, Mrs. H. L. Joslyn received a sandwich knife. Traveling prizes were won by Mrs. George Eastman and Mrs. V. E. Henry. Both received an egg timer.

Mrs. Bobbitt was presented a pottery bowl and Mrs. Woods an ornamental ash tray, gifts from the hostess.
