Beaufort Boats Continue to Fish in Spite of Strike

Students Will Attend Boys, Girls State This Month

Pictured left are Beaufort students and at the right Morehead City students. Seated at left are Margaret Bryant and Gus Farlow, standing are Jean Taylor, Gordon Davis, and Anne Noe. At right are Ann Webb and Annette Guthrie. Seated behind Miss Webb is A. H. McDonald, jr., and beside him is

American Legion posts and auxiliaries of Beaufort and More bead City are again sending this year outstanding rising seniors, to Boys and Girls State.

Selected at Beaufort school are: Gus Farlow, with Gordon Davis as alternate, Jean Taylor and Ann Noe with Margaret Bryant as alternate; at Morehead City school, Ann Darden Webb and Annette Guthrie, and David Freshwater and A. H. (Sonny) McDonald, Jr.

The students at the Beaufort

American Legion posts and at Morehead City school by the sponsoring organization, the auxiliary to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age who are in the sponsoring organization, the auxiliary to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age who are in the sponsoring organization, the auxiliary to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age who are in the sponsoring organization, the auxiliary to provide citizenship training for girls in that foundation, walls and roof the church building be completed within five years or the born of the church building be completed within five years or the popular to one week at the University of North Carolina and Girl's State begins June 13 at Woman's college, Greensboro, and continues through the June 19th.

Guthrie, and David Freshwater and A. H. (Sonny) McDonald, Jr.

The students at the Beaufort

The students at the Beaufort

The students at the Beaufort and City school, and the functioning of the church building be completed within five years or the building be completed within five years or the tourn. The union office is located at 514 Pline st.

Isaac Jordan is reportedly head of the union in Beaufort and Cityde Evertte is secretary. The union office is located at 514 Pline st.

Isaac Jordan is reportedly head of the union in Beaufort and Cityde Evertte is secretary. The union office is located at 514 Pline st.

Isaac Jordan is reportedly head of the union in Beaufort and Cityde Evertte is secretary. The union o

Time Action, Discusses Town Court for the coming year was approved and the deadline of July 1 set for payment. The town clerk, Miss certificate reads: "The Edith Lockey, reported that Car-Carolina Department of La-roll refused to pay his last year's

Ocracoke Children the town's going on daylight saving time at their meeting Monday night and also decided to discuss Power Firm Wins

Conduct Service

Ocracoke—Special memorial services were held Friday by the Ocracoke school children at the British graveyard here, where Lt. The British sailors, victims of the 1942 and the submarine war in the Atlantic. The graves were decorated with British is the one who should say what is the one who sho submarine war in the Atlantic. The graves were decorated with British flags sent to the school by the British Embassy in Washington, D. C.

High school students also decorated with American flags the graves of two World War II boysthat of James Baugham Gaskill of the U. S. Merchant Marine and William J. Gaskins of the U. S. Army.

At the service, Jimmy Spencer, service, read a sketch about "Mem.

In regard to the recorder's court matter, Commissioner Hatsell sug-

At the service, Jimmy Spencer, senior, read a sketch about "Memorial Day," Danny Garrish about the "Unknown Soldier". Larry Simpson and Harold Wahab placed mayor's court. Commissioner James Rumley re-marked that the initial costs in setrish read a poem, "A Rendezvous with Death;" Merian Garrish read ting up the court are too much and suggested that Franklin of the League of Municipalities be con-

Elle Spencer read a brief account of the Cunningham graveyard, mentioning Mrs. Cunningham and her son, Tommie, Jr., who have kept in touch with Ocracoke since 1942. Mayor L. W. Hassell commented that he would be in favor of the court if there were a suitable place to hold it.

Braxton Adair, president of the chamber of commerce who attended the meeting, said that the chamber has passed a resolution asking that laws be enforced and that a court be conducted that will facilitate enforcement of those laws.

He offered the chamber's cooperation in backing any type of court the town deems advisable.

Tide Table Tides at Beaufort Bar

					200.44
		Friday,	June	6		0/9
3:20	a.	m.		12:33	a.	m.
:47	D.	m.		12:23
		Saturday,
1:09	a.		CONTRACT	1:21	a.	m.
:36				1.12
		Sunday,	June		***
:59	a.			2:09	a.	m.
3:25				2:02
		' Monday,	June		3
.49	2.			2:58	a.	m.
1:14				2:55	p.	m.
	26	Tuesday,	June
1-41		STATE OF THE PARTY	E 100.00	9.47		*

the state department of labor.

The award, a framed certificate, was presented to George Stovall, manager of the Morehead City division, at the Morehead City office by C. H. McAllister, safety director of the former Tide Water Power

The certificate reads: "The North Carolina Department of Labor Presents This Certificate of Achievement to Tide Water Power company, Morehead City Division, för conspiculous performance in accident prevention which reduced its frequency rate by 40 per cent or more and minimized the needless pain and suffering caused by preventable accidents, 1951."

The citation is signed by Forrest in the Morehead City bank, be

The citation is signed by Forrest Shuford, commissioner of labor, and W. M. Shaw, district inspector.

port to be partially tied up by a strike called Sunday by the International Furriers and Leather Workers union. Other menhaden ports along the Atlantic are back in operation with heavy catches of fish being reported from

New Jersey ports, according to in-formation received in Beaufort yes-

Beaufort By-Products boats are Verona, Commander and Ensign.

Verona, Commander and Ensign.
The Verona is working. Beaufort
Fisheries boats are Mispillion, Mace, Edwards, Lloyd T. and Virginia Bell. The Lloyd T. and Virginia Bell are fishing and the Drewer, under lease to Beaufort Fisheries, is also working. Potter stated that Beaufort By-

Products has not been contacted by union representatives on any matter but Beaufort Fisheries has been approached by union officials with demands for union recognition, which Beaufort Fisheries has turn-

"So far as I'm concerned."

replaced by fishermen from else where."

was organized in Beaufort in Feb ruary, said that they were notified by national union headquarters to leave their jobs Monday unless a larger percentage of the catch pro-ceeds, payment of food by the company, more accurate methods

JCs Seek Girls

wishing to enter competition should phone Lewis, 6-3607. Mills, 6-3028 or 6-4071; or Caddell, 6-4582,

Hurt in Accident Tuesday

The fishermen are asking for a

Only Negro fishermen are strik ing. James A. Holland of Beaufort a member of local No. 710, which

Newport Town Board Handles Series of Issues

The Newport town board let the contract for the well in the vet-erans housing development Tuesday night, straightened out the conday night, straightened out the con-troversy between the town and the "Baptist Missionary" church, de-plored town law enforcement, ap-proved the privilege license sched-ule and stated that a warrant should be sworn out for Johnny Carroll, used car dealer, if he deen't pay his post year's prividoesn't pay his past year's privi-lege license immediately. The commissioners met in regular session at the town hall. D. Ira Garner, mayor pro-tem, presided in the absence of Mayor Charles Gould, jr., who was out of town.

The Heater Wells company of Pelaith of Gord to sink pro-tick pro-ti Raleigh offered to sink an 8-inch well in the new housing develop-ment to a depth of 200 feet maximum at $8 a foot, and at $9 a foot from 200 to 300 feet, plus $150 for four hours' testing. The quotation of $8 per foot included all materials.

V. M. Rhue, a former commis sioner and member of the Baptist Missionary church, which requested the town for a land site, ap-peared and asked that the church be given an outright deed to the of measuring the catches, and bet-property. The town agreed, with ter working conditions on the the stipulation that the church en-ter into a side contract guaranteethe stipulation that the church enter into a side contract guaranteeing that foundation, walls and roof of the church building be completed within five years or the property shall revert to the town.

boats.

Isaac Jordan is reportedly head of the union in Beaufort and Clyde Everette is secretary. The union office is located at 514 Pine st., Beaufort. It was organized early

Board Reluctantly Rescinds Daylight

The board discussed the problem of the business section being over run with drunks. Commissioner Charles Hill said that businessmen charles HIII said that businessmen should not have to be plagued con-tinually with having to run drunks out of their stores. He said that its damaging to business. Commissioner Edgar Hibbs said that every day drunks are lolling in cars in the business section or have dropped on the sidewalks and added that women shoppers should not be in danger of hearing em-several weeks.

The schedule B license schedule

With the Armed Forces

Gary P. Day, Lola, Finishes 24-Week Course at Key West

Gary P. Day, seaman apprentice, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Day of Lola, received his diploma from Capt. E. H. Eldredge, USN, commanding officer of the U. S. Naval Air station, after graduating from the U. S. Fleet Sonar school at Key West, Fla. The 24-week course is designed to acquaint the student with basic electronics, maintenance of Sonar equipment, and technique and tactics of antisubmarine warfare.

Julian Austin who has been attending welding school at Chanute
1:21 a. m.
1:21 a. m.
1:21 a. m.
1:22 a. m.
1:23 a. m.
1:24 a. m.
1:25 a. m.
1:25 a. m.
1:25 a. m.
1:26 a. m.
1:27 a. m.
1:28 a. m.
1:29 a. m.
1:29 a. m.
1:20 a. m.
1:2

County's Assistant Farm Agent Accepts Position in Onslow

formation received in Beautort yesterday. W. H. Potter, operating manager of Beautort By-Products company, and Beautort Fisheries, stated yesterday that crewmen of four of the companies' boats, which are working this week, will each net more Three-Year Term

Judge Lambert Morris Gives John W. Wynn Six Months Sentence

Naomi Turner Worthy, Beaufort colored woman, has been sent to Woman's prison, Raleigh, to serve three-year term. She was found guilty in recorder's court Tuesday on a charge of being drunk in pub ic and using loud and boisterous language, and resisting arrest.
A two-year term, suspended in court Tuesday, May 27, was imposed and Judge Lambert Morris added another year. In both instances she was found guilty of believed with and disorderly g drunk and disorderly. Her husband, George Worthy, acing two charges of being drunk in public was given a 30-day sen-ence in each instance, suspended n condition he pay a total of $20 ne and costs in each case.

Carlton Garner, chief of police, Beaufort, reported that on Monday afternoon he had to refrain the Worthys from leaving town by bus At that time both were under $400 See WOMAN, Page 6

The working conditions on the boats.

Isaac Jordan is reportedly head of the union in Beaufort and Clyde Everette is secretary. The union office is located at 514 Pine st.

Beaufort. It was organized early this year by C. A. Simmons of Greenville, union representative. The union is not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor or the Committee on Industrial Organization.

On May, 5 boats at Southpart were tended at 516 Pine st. and committee on Industrial Organization.

On May, 5 boats at Southpart were tended at 516 Pine st. and committee of a stife. I we is a difference of a stife of the second of the recorder's court Monday.

According to early reports this week, menhaden plants on the Gulf were not affected by the strike.

According to testimony given by 9 year-old Fred Jr., he and 6-year-old Timmy Matthews were playing in the alley by Timmy's house on a recent Monday afternoon after din the alley by Timmy's house on a recent Monday afternoon after din Beaufort, Wednesday night, June ner, about 3 o'clock and Timmy 11.
took a marble belonging to Fred. Fred grabbed Timmy by the Fred. Fred grabbed Timmy by the arm and demanded his marble, according to evidence. Fred said he was holding Timmy on the ground but not hitting him, when Matthews came out of the house and picked him up by the back of his trousers. Fred said Matthews cursed him once andspanked him hard. When he put Fred down, Fred said he headed for home down the alley.

Morehead City Jaycees are seeking participants for the Miss Morehead City pageant this summer. Luther Lewis, chairman of the committe, stated yesterday that it is hoped enough girls enter the contest to make a pageant possible. If they don't, he said that the pageant idea will be by-passed and a girl selected by secret ballot.

The girls should be single, never having been married, divorced, or

The girls should be single, never having been married, divorced, or had an annulment. They must be graduates of high school and their age on Sept. 1 of this year cannot be less than 18 or more than 28. They should be of good character have poise, personality, charm, and be physically attractive, according to entry rules. They may be either ### to entry rules. They may be either amateur or professional (models, actresses, vocalists, etc.) The girl chosen will represent Morehead City at the Miss North Carolina pageant July 24-26 at Winston-Salem. Representing Morehead City last year was Miss Lois Locates Carriage Simpson. Assisting Lewis on the committee are Marion Mills, Edward A. Ballou, Beaufort, yesterday, was a Caddell, and Sal Palazzo. Girls baby carriage which was stolen from under their car port seven Two Morehead City Barbers chief of police, Carlton Garner, in the Capt. West Noe apartment house. It was left there after the nouse. It was left there after the apartment was vacated by a ser-viceman and his family. The ser-viceman, according to Chief Gar-ner, evidently stole the carriage, but then his wife was afraid to take it out on the street.

Roy L. Mann, jr., of Newport, and L. C. Matthews, of Raleigh, employees at the Sanitary Barber shop in Morehead City, were inshop in Morehead City, were in-jured in an automobile accident west of Garner at 5 a.m. Wednes-day. The two were on their way from Raleigh when the accident Captain Noe said the people owed him money and he was hop-ing to hold the carriage for the money. He didn't know the car-riage had been stolen. The chief Jasper Bell, owner of the barber shop, reported Wednesday that he received a phone call Wednesday morning from a friend of Matthewa' wife.

The two men had a head-on collision with a produce truck. Mann, who suffered a brain concussion was still imconkious Wednesday night. Both of Matthewa' legs were broken.

James Allgood, assistant farme repted the position of farm agent n Onslow county. He will assume its duties there June 16.

A graduate of State college, Ral-igh, in March 1950, Allgood major-d in animal husbandry. Upon araduation he served as assistant arm agent in Swain and Graham y as assistant farm agent Sept. 15, 950.

Aligood was officially employed is the Onslow farm agent at the Onslow county commissioners' meeting Monday morning at Jack-sonville. He replaces Charlie Clark who has accepted the position of sales manager with a tractor and equipment company. R. M. Williams, farm agent, states that Allgood "has been a very efficient assistant agent and has accomplished some very outstanding work in 4-H and other ex-tension activities in the county. He is well liked by the 4-H club members and by the rural people throughout the county... I regret very much that we will be losing Mr. Allgood. When there is a promotion in both position and salary, I do not feel that we could do other. I do not feel that we could do other than to assist him in every way than to assist him in every way the town limit sign east to the possible in obtaining this promo-

Mr. and Mrs. Allgood recently

Two Men Present Troubles Monday To Town Board

New Residents Want Fire Hydrants, Street Lights, Sidewalks

Dr. Lawrence Rudder and Jarvis Herring, residents of the east Front street area which has become a part of the town of Beaufort, ap-peared before the town board Monday night at the town hall and presented grievances which were ac-companied by one compliment, that the garbage pick-ups "are very good."

Dr. Rudder said that he was most interested in obtaining fire hydrants, but said that others had requested that he present additional complaints involving the moving of the street, laying of sidewalks, and installation of street lights.

moved into a new home they built. Herring suggested that bids be in Hancock Park. They expect to obtained on laying sidewalks and retain the home but will move to the residents informed of the cost Jacksonville. Mrs. Allgood, who is a with a view to the town's levying a case worker in the Carteret county welfare department, will leave erty owner. He said that the side-

"His subject has not been an-nounced but his talk is sure to be of great interest," remarked Dr.

N. T. Ennett, program chairman.
A large attendance is anticipated, he added. The dinner meeting day, June 16: Faircloth vs. Seahe added. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Returned to Mr. and Mrs. Holden
Ballou, Beaufort, yesterday, was a Chancellor House has been reMills, Willis vs. Bell, Sutton

"impromptu" numbers by the uni-Courtney.

versity official; declared Dr. EnWednesday, June 18: Hamilton

President of the club is James

Morehead City. Jaycees See Film on Dare County Morehead City Jaycees were shown a film on Dare county and Luther. historic Fort Raleigh at Manteo Motion when they met Monday night at the Waddell Waterfront cafe. Luther Lewis man. was appointed chairman of the Miss Morehead City pageant.

Tanks Tanker Leaves

The club voted to give $25 to help complete the recreation center fund. Guest for the evening was Wallace Winkler of Arlington, Va.

Tanker Leaves
The Panamanian tanker, San Diego, with Italian crew, left Thursday from Morehead City after discharging fuel oil. She is bound for Jacksonville, Fla.

Two Cases to Go To Grand Jury

to go before the grand jury in the June term of superior court which begins Monday, George Dudley, charged with assaulting a female with intent to commit rape, and Ernest Wallace, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Cases on the criminal docket as of Wednesday are as follows: Wil-liam Bell and Bernice Hardy, be-ing drunk and disorderly; Walter Davis, drunk and disturbing the peace and assault; Horace Eli Hat-ley, Horace McRae Kirby and Thomas Calvin Avery, violation of the motor vehicle law. Judgment is to be handed down in the case of Charles Holland, found guilty in the last term of superior court of asault with a deadly weapon.

J. Burney will preside during the criminal court and Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn during the civil term will begin at 6:30 p.m. shore, Cannon vs. Peterson et als, It is probable that this will be Stead vs. Clyde Jones Gas comthe last meeting of the club for pany and Willis, Lewis vs. Newsome, Lewis vs. Downum. Tuesday, June 17: Murray vs.

baby carriage which was stolen quested to "accidentally" slip his Deibert, Jarman vs. Bell, Sutton vs. from under their car port seven famous harmonica in his pocket, ardson vs. Cooke, Cannady vs. months ago. It was located by the and there probably will be some Lockhart. Town of Beaufort vs.

vs. Tide Water et als, Norris Candy company vs. Wade, Carr vs. Long, Lawrence vs. Gillikin.

Divorce suits: Rice vs. Rice, Pot-ter vs. Potter, Kelton vs. Kelton, Noe vs. Noe, Keyser vs. Keyser, Willis vs. Willis, Hall vs. Hall, Mor-rison vs. Morrison, Luther vs.

Motions: Gillikin vs. Lawrence, Waddell vs. Potter, Davis vs. Pitt-rother Hai and Tuesday night at the community building. Pelletier.

Rotarians See Movie Beaufort Rotarians saw a film on Dare county at their meeting at the Inlet inn Tuesday night.

and placed in the county jail under $150 cash bond. Pending in court now are three cases against him for public drunkenness. public drunkenness. Luther Glover was arrested at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and placed in the county jail without privilege of bond, and Elijah Hardesty, arrested Wednesday afternoon on a charge of public 7 drunkenness, posted $12 bond. 7 Chief of Police Carlton Garner

the British flags. Miss Helen Gar-

Beaufort Police Arrest

For the third time in less than two weeks Horace Jones has been rrested for public drunkenness. He vas picked up by Beaufort Police it 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon

Horace Jones Again

reported yesterday that turned into the police office the week was some cash. The money was found in the street and if the owner can dentify it, it will be returned. Also turned in was a set of door keys with an identification tag, Canipe 9:41 a. m. Buick company, Havelock, on them. 10:05 p. m.