

Colored Family Loses Clothing, Home in Blaze

Mrs. James Rumley, Red Cross Home Service Chairman, Asks for Donations

The small home of a colored family at North River was destroyed by fire Sunday morning and Mrs. James Rumley, home service chairman for the Beaufort Red Cross chapter, today issued an appeal for clothing for the adults and children of the family.

There are two adults, a grandmother, Mary Davis Smith, who wears a size 38 in a dress; the mother, who wears a size 16, and three children, two girls age 4 and 5 and a boy age 6.

All the furnishings were lost in the fire also. The grandmother told Mrs. Rumley that she had gone to church Sunday morning and when she came home the house was in ashes. It could not be learned how the fire started.

Persons who have clothes or other items for the family may take them to the home of Mrs. Rumley, 118 Marsh st., or if they are brought to THE NEWS-TIMES office, Arendell st., Morehead City, THE NEWS-TIMES will see that they are delivered to Mrs. Rumley.

Defendant Draws 60-Day Suspended Term Monday

Robert Modlin, charged with public drunkenness and disturbing the peace in a public place, was given a 60-day suspended sentence in Monday's session of Morehead City recorder's court. Judge George McNeill ordered him to remain on good behavior for a period of six months, pay a $10 fine and costs.

Noe Emory was found guilty of public drunkenness, using profane language and resisting arrest. He was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, suspended on condition he pay costs and remain on good behavior for six months.

L. A. Williams was fined $100 and costs on the charge of driving under the influence of intoxicants. Trial of the second charge against him, no operator's license, was continued. Mallie Jack Webster paid $100 and costs for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

John H. Chambers, who was charged with careless and reckless driving, was fined $25 and costs. Vance Talmadge Robinson and Joseph Barrett paid costs for exceeding the load limit on the bridge. Robinson also paid an additional fine of $25. It was his second offense.

Pays Costs
For speeding, James Kush Chandler, jr., paid a fine of $10 and costs. On the same offense Patrick L. Russell paid costs. Herbert Barker Utley paid costs for running through a stop sign.

The case against Robert C. Porterfield was removed from the docket until the warrant could be served. The state dropped the case against Donald Wesley Mason. Sudie Fennell Roberts, who was involved in an accident last week, was found not guilty of careless and reckless driving.

Ralph Paul Dodd paid half costs for operating a car with no lights. Lionel Scott was given a suspended sentence of 30 days for having no operator's license. He was also ordered to pay a fine of $25 and half costs. Joanna Irene Walton paid $25 and half costs for having no operator's license.

Sentence Suspended
John P. Healy paid costs for public drunkenness and was given a suspended sentence of 30 days. For permitting an unlicensed person to drive, Charles Thomas Scott paid half costs.

Truck Car Collide On Evans St., Morehead

John William Hollingsworth of Faison, driving a car owned by Ivey V. Haskett of Newport, was going east on Evans st., Morehead City Tuesday morning at 11:10 when he was struck by a panel truck backing out of a parking place between 4th and 5th st., police said.

The truck, parked in front of the Ocean grill, was driven by Clarence Elmon Smith of Apex, and owned by the Killo Exterminating company of Raleigh. The truck hit the car on the right side and did damage estimated at $100. There was no damage to the truck which hit the car with its bumper. Capt. Herbert Griffin investigated.

Highway Worker Killed Near Otway Tuesday

Two Sets of Twin Calves Born

C. J. Hines, Craven county dairyman of the Tuscarora community who started an "A" grade dairy just ten years ago became the proud owner of the two sets of twin calves shown above.

Their mothers were bred artificially. The calves were born on the last day of May and the first day of June of this year. Both sets of twins and their dams were doing nicely at the time the picture was made.

The Holstein calves are both females, while one of the Jerseys is a male and the other is a female. It is likely that the Jersey female will be sterile, commented C. H. Kirkman, Carteret county assistant farm agent. In cases of

Chamber of Commerce Will Hear Proposals for New Year

The proposed program for the coming year will be presented to chamber of commerce members Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce supper meeting at 6:45 at the Scout building.

Dan Walker, manager of the chamber of commerce, declared yesterday that sports shirts and other informal attire is in order and the building will be cool.

Program Set Forth
The proposed program as suggested by the directors, includes more trade promotions, bulkhead front street, additional housing facilities for tourists, benches for the waterfront, municipal dock, continuing service to established firms and industries, obtaining additional businesses and industry, continuation of the highway from Hatteras to Beaufort, more participation of citizens in local government.

The membership will be given the opportunity to revise the program and suggest additions.

"The success of any program," declared Walker yesterday, "depends not on mere adoption, but an active following-through by chamber of commerce committees."

McCallers to Speak
Charles L. McCullers, manager of the Kinston chamber of commerce and president of the North Carolina Chamber Executives Association, will be the speaker. A new tourist film on North Carolina, with a major part of it devoted to Beaufort and Carteret county, will be shown.

The membership drive for the coming year will begin Wednesday. At a Monday meeting of the membership committee, headed by Gerald Hill, names of prospective members and firms were divided among the members of the committee who will make the membership calls.

Hill requests that the businessmen be prepared to transact their business with the solicitors so that work can be accomplished as soon as possible.

On the membership committee are Earl Mason, E. W. Downum, James H. Davis, Halsey Paul, Dr. W. L. Woodard, Glenn Adair, Gene Smith, Wiley Taylor, jr., Mrs. Bonnie Davant, Paul Jones, G. W. Duncan, st., and Elbert Dudley.

Miss Ann Mills Will Represent Morehead City

Jaycees Select Miss Morehead City for Pageant At Winston-Salem

Miss Ann Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Mills, has been chosen by Morehead City Jaycees to represent Morehead City in the Miss North Carolina beauty pageant next month at Winston-Salem.

Luther Lewis, chairman of the beauty contestant committee, stated Monday night at the Jaycee meeting that Miss Mills was chosen by a committee of Jaycees because there were not enough girls interested in competing to make a contest feasible.

Miss Mills was a guest at Monday night's meeting. She is a graduate of Morehead City high school, class of 1944, and a graduate of Salem college, Winston-Salem. Following her four years in college she was employed at Sound Chevrolet company and after leaving there, went to New York where she entered the modeling profession.

She returned from New York several weeks ago to spend the summer with her parents here. The Jaycees set a new meeting time at their session Monday. They will meet from now on at 6:30 p.m. instead of 7.

Representing Miss Morehead City in the Miss North Carolina Beauty pageant last year was Miss Lois Simpson, daughter of Mrs. Mattie Simpson, now of Wilmington.

Chamber Issues Business List

Distributed this week was the Morehead City chamber of commerce business directory, a 12-page pamphlet the size of the large type business envelope.

The directory carries a classified list of firms which are members of the chamber, a list of Morehead City churches, plus the names of individuals who are chamber of commerce members.

Pictures Published
Four pictures appear on the front and last page of the directory and the last page also carries facts on population, the weather, and monetary assets.

The directories have been mailed to chamber members, new residents from Morehead City to Newport, to 200 other chambers of commerce, and tourist information bureaus. Copies are available at the chamber of commerce office in the Morehead City recreation center.

The directories will be mailed upon request to those who write the chamber from out of town and to firms who want business and industrial information.

Revise Schedule
J. A. DuBois, chamber of commerce manager, stated that additions and corrections will be made in the 1952-53 issue which will go to press in August.

This is the first time a business directory has been published in Morehead City for several years.

'Flying Sleeve' Hurtles Through Air, Hits Truck

Coroner Leslie D. Springle was almost a gone gossin' last Thursday afternoon, June 12. He was driving his pickup truck on highway 101 north of Beaufort toward his farm when something came hurtling toward him out of the air.

The thing struck the hood of his pick-up, glanced off and bounced into a ditch at the side of the road. Shocked and a little scared, the coroner stopped his truck and went searching for the thing that damaged his truck to the extent of $25.

He found it—a piece of solid brass 3 1/4 inches in diameter with a hole through the center about an inch and a quarter wide. The piece of metal weighed 30 pounds and dug two chunks of asphalt as big as a man's fist out of the road after it bounced off Springle's truck.

The coroner called Cherry Point Marine air base and on Friday Marine personnel visited Springle and identified the piece of brass as a sleeve for one of the hydraulics on an aircraft landing gear. It was their opinion that a plane carrying parts was flying with its doors open, hit an air pocket, and one of the sleeves being carried inside the plane bounced out, according to

Beaufort Planning Board To Study Parking Tonight

Parking in downtown Beaufort will be the target for discussion at a meeting of the Beaufort planning board at 7:30 tonight at the town hall.

Braxton Adair, chairman of the planning board, expressed the desire yesterday that as many Beaufort businessmen as possible attend the session to help find a solution to the lack of parking space on Front street.

The planning board, at the June meeting of the town board, offered its services to the town in regard to the parking situation.

Child Continues To Improve After Train Accident

Earl Nicholas Lane, 7-year-old son of L. and Mrs. W. M. Lane, 2411 Arendell st., Morehead City, is recovering satisfactorily from injuries received Friday afternoon when he was struck by a train on Arendell st., Morehead City.

His mother reported to THE NEWS-TIMES Wednesday that the child did not see the train, that he was looking the other way and there was no warning bell to call his attention to the danger.

Mrs. Lane received a wire from Honolulu from her husband Tuesday, stating that he was on his way home. He had been stationed with the Marine corps in Korea.

The child has a broken collarbone, jaw, shoulder, arm, extensive head injuries, and his teeth were knocked out. He never lost consciousness but was put under anesthesia for an operation of three hours' duration following the accident.

Nicky, as he is called, has two brothers, one 2 years of age and the other 8.

The accident occurred between 4:30 and 5 o'clock last Friday in front of the child's home.

Marine Receives Injuries in Wreck

Robert G. Skidmore, USMC, was injured Monday night on Evans st., Morehead City, when the car in which he was riding ran into the back of a parked truck. The accident happened at the intersection of 14th and Evans at 9:15 p.m.

The truck, parked on the south side of Evans headed east, was owned by Cyrus Hunter. Driver of the car was Paul M. Wise of Pennsylvania and Camp Lejeune. As the car hit the left corner of the truck, a large splinter of wood speared Skidmore's face. It was removed at the scene by Wise.

Skidmore also received a broken nose, lacerations on the face and was bleeding profusely. A 12-year-old Boy Scout, Jeff Faucette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Faucette, was in the crowd of spectators at the accident. When a call went out for someone to stop Skidmore's bleeding, Jeff volunteered, and ably administered first aid to the injured man. Jeff is also a NEWS-TIMES carrier boy.

Lt. Carl Blomberg investigated.

County Suffers Under First Heat Wave of Summer

Cooling Southern Winds From Water Offer Only Respite from Heat

Suffering under the first continuous heat wave of the summer, Carteret countians began yesterday to anxiously scan the sky for rain-bearing clouds. No rain has fallen in the county for two weeks.

According to Stamey Davis, official weather observer, the last heavy rainfall was .87 inches the night of June 5. Several drops of rain fell in the Morehead City area Wednesday afternoon but the sun didn't even disappear.

R. M. Williams, farm agent, stated that "the situation could get serious" if rain doesn't come soon. In the growing process now are corn, tomatoes, peanuts, soybeans, cotton, watermelons, and of course, pasture lands.

Back yard gardens have been re-tarded by the dryness, but the farm agent said farmers down east don't suffer as quickly from dryness as do upstate farmers because of the high water table in the eastern section of the county.

The highest temperature thus far this summer was 93 degrees on Sunday, June 8. Wednesday's temperature of 90 was next highest. Southerly breezes have been blowing almost continuously but the trick is to be able to recline in their path with a glass of lemonade.

Temperatures since last Friday follow:

	Max.	Min.
Friday, June 13	88	65
Saturday, June 14	88	66
Sunday, June 15	85	76
Monday, June 16	87	76
Tuesday, June 17	87	77
Wednesday, June 18	90	77

Officers Arrest Primrose Mason

Primrose Mason of Beaufort was arrested soon after 6 o'clock Tuesday night on a charge of going through three stop signs and speeding 70 miles an hour in a 55-mile an hour zone. Chief of Police Carlton Garner and Officer Maxwell Wade made the arrest after chasing Mason in his car through Beaufort and out highway 70 about four miles.

Mason has been ordered to appear in court at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in Beaufort.

According to Chief Garner, he and Officer Wade were parked in the colored section of Beaufort at about 6 o'clock Tuesday when a car came by, and Chief Garner said as soon as the driver saw the police car he speeded up.

The officers decided to follow the car, neither of them recognizing the driver because of his dark glasses, the chief said, and the chase started.

The driver, who was later identified as Mason, went through colored town, back toward the center of town, then out Turner street to the west Beaufort road, east on that road to highway 101, south on 70 and then through Huntley's and out highway 70.

Chief Garner said Mason soon turned off into a dirt road and then left that road and ran into the woods. The officers followed as far as they could, then jumped out of the car. At about the same time Mason stopped, the chief said and ran from his car.

When Mason jumped out, Chief Garner recognized him and the officers decided to drive the abandoned car back to town. Just as Officer Wade was about to turn it around, Mason came out of the woods. The officers questioned him, and he told them that he was just playing a game.

Chief Garner replied, "Well, we don't play games like that," and told him to be in court Tuesday morning. Chief Garner also serves as a deputy sheriff.

According to records in the clerk of court's office, Mason is now under a six-month suspended sentence as the result of a trespassing conviction.

Agent Tells How To Root Shrubs

R. M. Williams, farm agent, today gave advice on rooting azaleas, camellias, or boxwood.

The farm agent declared: "Home gardeners who like outdoor life and who would like to start a few plants from cuttings will find late June and July are excellent months for rooting azaleas, camellias and boxwood. In fact, it's a pretty good time for rooting most plants.

"Here is how to do the job: (1) Place 6 to 8 inches of clean, coarse sand in 12 to 16 inch deep box, tub, etc. (holes in bottom for drainage). (2) place container in shade or otherwise provide shade. (3) make cuttings in early morning or late afternoon.

(4) Take cuttings from new growth, (5) make cuttings 3 to 6 inches long, (6) remove the leaves from bottom two-thirds of the cutting, (7) keep cutting moist and place in sand as soon as possible, (8) use glass or glass substitute over container if possible, but it is not absolutely necessary (cracks will allow enough ventilation).

(9) Place cuttings 1 to 3 inches apart, pack sand around cuttings and water thoroughly, (10) keep cuttings watered often enough to prevent wilting (perhaps every day at first).

Laborers Pick Berries
Carteret county's colored migrant laborers are now picking blue-berries. There are approximately 100 acres in the county, 40 on the Theodore Budd farms, Lennoxville, and 50 to 60 on the Jason Morris and Jim Young farms, Stella.

Police Find Boat Parts
Morehead City police have found an outboard motor, two oars and an oil can. These things may be claimed at the police station after being properly identified.
